Plane Thieves Object Of Search

MYRTLE POINT, Feb. 25 (AP)—Two men who police said escaped after cracking up a stolen airplane were sought in this area today. Four men working nearby witnessed the crack-up as the plane neared the end of an attempted take-off. Police said the men cut a hole in the plane to unlock the cockpit door and wired the ignition to start the engine. They taxied around the Coos county fairgrounds several times to warm up the engine before the accident.
