Tule Drawing Plans Final

The U. S. bureau of reclamation is going ahead with plans for holding the Coppuck bay homestead drawing on March 15.

R. R. Best, USBR district manager said today plans are to open the drawing at 10 a. m. on March 15, at the armory, and the public will be invited to attend. Governors of Oregon and California are also invited and the drawing will be covered by both local radio stations. Results of the drawing will be marked up on a black board as they are determined and the mechanics of the drawing will follow the procedure used in the drawing held in 1946.

The drawing date depends upon completion of the appeal board hearing for reconsidering rejected applications, Best said.

Olene Grange Party Cancelled

OLENE, Feb. 27—Plans for the grange-sponsored card party originally to be held Saturday night have been called off. The party is being postponed due to the death of a grange member, J. P. Roper.
