

Vandenberg Asks Action On ERP Today

WASHINGTON, March 1 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) appealed to the senate today to "help stop World War III before it starts" by approving the European recovery program.

The foreign relations committee chairman opened debate on the $5,300,000,000 Marshall plan by telling his colleagues they face a decision "that can be a turning point in history for 100 years to come."

Denouncing "irrecherous Moscow propaganda" that has "charged us with iniquitous American imperialism," Vandenberg said the 16 Western European nations must be saved from economic chaos.

"This vastly friendly segment of the earth must not collapse," he said in a prepared address.

"The iron curtain must not come to the rims of the Atlantic by aggression or default."

3. The senate foreign relations committee will start closed door hearings March 10 on two other foreign aid requests. These carry $370,000,000 in economic help for China and $275,000,000 in military assistance for Greece and Turkey.

4. The house foreign affairs committee heard a proposal for a $500,000,000 economic recovery program for Japan.

Wreck Leads To Arrest Of Driver

Bernie Albertas Simonson, 2101 Gary, was arrested by city police for failure to yield the right of way following a collision Saturday evening at the Wantland and Martin intersection.

Police said Simonson entered the intersection from Martin as a 1941 convertible driven by Fred Mitchell, 1204 Mitchell, was entering from Wantland. Mitchell was unable to stop and crashed into the side of Simonson's 1938 sedan, which skidded over the curb and came to rest on the parking strip.

Both cars were considerably damaged. The City Ambulance service was summoned, but no injuries were reported.

Wage Row Halts Busses

SEATTLE, March 1 (AP)—A dispute over wages and "fringe" issues kept busses operated by the Northwest Greyhound lines idle today.

About 200 drivers walked out at midnight Saturday, halting service from Seattle to the Olympic peninsula, east through Idaho to Helena, and Butte, Mont., and from Portland, Ore. to Central Washington.

The company's 225 busses are tied up at terminals in the four states. The strike was called by the AFL Motorco. Employees union after negotiations with company representatives collapsed late Saturday night.

The international vice president for the union, William Cooper, blamed the walkout on the company's refusal to arbitrate.

James R. Neely, assistant to the Northwest Greyhound lines president, said the company agreed to arbitrate the question of wages for maintenance workers but would not

"hand out a blank check" by arbitrating proposals it considered "feather bedding" for the drivers. Neely said this would mean an average increase for main line drivers from Seattle to Butte from $1.75 an hour, whichever would be the greater. The company's last offer was for a straight 8 cents a mile.
