

Nuptials Read In Church Ceremony

Dorothy Ann Lund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lund of 2008 Madison street, became the bride of Sgt. Roy M. Chamberland, son of Mrs. Martha Jane Chamberland, of Fort Worth, Tex., Saturday evening, February 21.

The two exchanged vows in a ceremony read at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. David F. Barnett.

Mrs. Emily Mecum played "O. Perfect Love," as guests assembled, later playing the traditional wedding marches. Bouquets of white stock and pink carnations with many tapers formed the background for the nuptials.

For her wedding, the bride wore a suit of navy with matching accessories, and carried a Bible with an arrangement of roses. Her sister, Beryl Lund, was her only attendant.

Best man for his brother was James Chamberland of Glendale, Ore.

The new Mrs. Chamberland is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy and attended schools in Santa Cruz, Calif. Sgt. Chamberland is stationed with the army air corps at Fort Worth.

The young couple left for a wedding trip through the Southwest and on to Fort Worth where they will make their home.

Birk Snares Naval Honors

Honors are doubling up for Elmer Lawrence Birk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Birk of 4534 Boardman, who is a third class cadet at West Point.

Young Birk, a competitive appointee from U. S. Representative Lowell Stockman's second congressional district, and the only student at West Point from this part of Oregon, is listed in third place in scholastic standing in a class of 691.

He is 20 years old and for two of his high school years was a student at Henley. Interested in a military education, he went to Brown Military academy, San Diego, from which he was graduated with the highest marks in the class.

At West Point his academic courses includes Spanish, mathematics, English, military topography, chemistry, physics and military aptitude.

Lawrence also sings second bass in the chapel choir of 160 voices, which just recently filled an engagement at the 125-year-old St. Thomas church in New York City.

He plans to spend a vacation period from next June 8 to July 7 in Klamath Falls, flying with others in a chartered plane. He made the trip via air last Christmas from West Point to Portland in 17 hours with a woman pilot at the controls.

Woman's Skirt Puzzles Manager

PHILADELPHIA, March 3 (AP)—An usher reported to Lee Kline, manager of the Germantown Orpheum theatre, that he found a woman's skirt under a seat after the movie house had been cleared for the night.

Kline said yesterday he was preparing to call police when he received a telephone call from the owner of the skirt. It seems, the woman explained, that she had gone to the movies with her husband, wearing a fur coat over her blouse and skirt.

The skirt had slipped off somehow and she hadn't noticed her loss until she got home.

Johns Hopkins Head To Resign

BALTIMORE, March 3 (AP)—Dr. Isaiah Bowman, president of Johns Hopkins university, asked for retirement Tuesday and quoted a scientist's dictum:

"The man who has survived the toll and tension of high responsibility up to the age of 70 is a biological miracle."

The noted geographer will be 70 next December 26.

Dr. Bowman became president of Johns Hopkins in 1935. He was chief territorial adviser to President Wilson at the peace conference following World War I.
