Christian Bible Study Class Full

"Peace, Beautiful Peace" is the anthem to be sung by the women's octet at the First Christian church Sunday morning. The sermon subject by the pastor, "Except Ye Forgive—As the Lord Forgive You," is at the 11 o'clock hour.

The evening session begins at 7:30 promptly, with Dean Stephens leading the singing. Both pipe organ and piano are used for the song service. The evening message will be, "The Offense of Baptism." At the close of the worship, baptismal services will be held.

Bible school is averaging over 100 weekly. The session starts at 9:45 a. m. and closes at 10:30 a. m. A class for every age and group is offered. Christian Endeavor for both juniors and seniors meets at 8:30 each Sunday evening. Young people are cordially invited to enjoy these sessions of youth fellowship.

Mid-week church night is held on Wednesday of each week beginning at 7 promptly. Teachers training class, a public speaking class, Bible study, a class for young people, personal evangelism, and other courses are open to all. Choir practice is held on Wednesday at 8 p. m. A full program for the entire family is the goal of the church. A welcome to you.

Missionary Meet Slated Tonight

Sunday School Bus To Be Used

A bus will make stops from Algoma to town this Sunday to bring children to Sunday school services at the Immanuel Baptist church.

The bus will make its first stop at 9 a. m. at Algoma, with next stops at Shady Pine, Wocus, Pelican City and Chelsea addition.

Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. Regular worship services are held at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sundays. All are invited.

Scientists Plan Worship

Sunday school and regular morning worship will be held at 11 o'clock this Sunday at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington.

Youngsters meet downstairs in the church for Sunday school, while regular services are held in the main auditorium.

A weekly service is held each Wednesday at 8 p. m. All are invited to attend the services. A reading room is maintained at 1023 Main.

The subject of this week's lesson-sermon is "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace" (Ps. 37:37). Among other citations is, "The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." (Rom. 8:16).

The church is an inter-denominational organization which works extensively in the Orient and Latin America.

Guest speaker will be Jean Pound, who has had many years of work as a missionary in China, Mexico and South America. There will be nightly services through Sunday at 7:45. All are invited. The church school hour at 9:45 a. m. Sunday will also be highlighted by a special missionary feature.

Chapel Choir Leads Singing

The Lenten sermon series on "The Victory of Faith" will be continued Sunday morning at 11 at the Congregational church, Garden near Martin. Rev. Godfrey Matthews will preach a sermon entitled "Does Civilization Need Religion?" The chapel choir leads the congregational singing and the liturgical passages of the service under the direction of Marie Casjens who will also sing the solo "Sheep and Lambs" (Homer). A nursery for small children is conducted during the hour of worship under the care of the Junior circle.

The Fellowship group is uniting with the Junior circle in a social gathering at 6:30 Sunday night in the Community hall when the feature of the evening will be a shadow-box-social. Wern F. Bryan, president of the fellowship, and Mrs. E. M. MacBeth, president of the Junior circle, extend an invitation asking the members of their groups to make this a largely attended affair.

Connolly Takes Catholic Post

SEATTLE, March 5 (AP)—Appointment of The Most Rev. Thomas A. Connolly, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco, as bishop coadjutor of the Catholic Diocese of Seattle was announced last night.

The announcement from the National Catholic Welfare conference said he will hold the right of succession to The Most Rev. Gerald Shaughnessy, S. M., bishop of the Seattle Diocese since 1933. He was named to the post by Pope Pius XII.

Rev. Connolly is a native of San Francisco and has served the church there since 1939.
