

Camp Fire Girls Plan Celebration

March 14 through March 20 is National Birthday Week for Camp Fire Girls, and Klamath Falls Camp Fire Girls are joining over 360,000 others throughout the country in observing their organization's anniversary.

In Klamath Falls the first group of Camp Fire Girls was organized in 1915 by Mrs. Bert C. Thomas. Early in the twenties a group was organized in the Methodist church by Mrs. D. M. Smith and another in the Presbyterian church by Mrs. A. L. Rice. Since that time Camp Fire Girls have been continuously active in this community.

Among the early executive directors of Camp Fire Girls in Klamath Falls were Mrs. Edda Cummings, Mrs. Marguerite Powers, Mrs. Naomi French and Mrs. Louise Horlien.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Lydia Circle

Lydia circle of the Seventh Day Adventist church met Thursday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. Harold Hansen of 2024 Reclamation. The group plans to make layettes to sell to help raise money for the new church to be started soon. A candy sale is arranged for March 24 with proceeds to go to the church. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

A Dorcas Federation was organized at a meeting of all Dorcas societies of Southern Oregon held at Medford recently. A full report will be given at Lydia circle's next meeting in May.

Friendly Circle

Mrs. W. W. Cory entertained the friendly circle at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fritz Vance, Thursday, February 26, and Mrs. Vance was the assisting hostess.

Luncheon was served to seventeen members and one guest, Mrs. Lena Liles. A short business meeting followed. The special award of two loaves of homemade bread went to Nettie Good. As the club at present has no sewing project under way, the afternoon was spent in individual handwork and visiting. Myrtle Edwards will entertain the club on March 11, and Kathryn Billings will assist.

THIS HAPPY GROUP had lots of fun at Laura Gail Voight's birthday party February 26. Laura Gail was three years old, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Voight. From left, they are David Anderson, Jimmy Delyea (standing), Beth Palmer, Robert Anderson, Frederick Biehn, Laura Gail, Charles McNair, Bonnie Delyea, Mary Dixon and Roland B. ailey.

Selby. Mrs. Lawrence Martz is president of the Leaders' association which meets monthly at the Methodist church and has well over 100 members. To these leaders and sponsors goes much credit for making Camp Fire Girls groups possible for the girls of Klamath Falls.

The Camp Fire Girls Birthday Week theme this year is "Hello World, Let's Get Together" and the girls made this theme take on real meaning as they studied foreign countries, sent party kits and boxes of clothing to groups of girls in other lands, and corresponded with pen pals.

Birthday Week will be highlighted by the grand council fire to be held at 7:30 Thursday night, March 18, in the Armory auditorium. At this traditional ceremonial, to which all parents and friends of Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and Horizon club girls are invited, national honors and ranks will be awarded to girls who have earned them throughout the past six months.

Another big event will be the tea to be held in honor of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, first Camp Fire Girls' guardian in Klamath Falls. This tea will be sponsored by Horizon club girls and they cordially invite all council members, leaders, sponsors, Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and their mothers to attend between 3 and 5 o'clock at the Presbyterian church parlors on Saturday, February 20.

Other events of the week will be a special church service at the First Christian church and the Catholic church for all Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds, uniform day at school and a movie on Saturday morning, February 20, sponsored by the Pawea Camp Fire Girls.

Luncheon

Alice Hoover was hostess to members of the Three R club Tuesday, February 24 at 3415 Shasta way. Fifteen members were present for luncheon and pinocle.

High went to Greta Schweiger, second to Anna McCormack and special to Lucille Heller.

The club will meet next at the home of Frances Killian, 1742 Menlo way, on March 9.

Crab Supper

HENLEY—The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. G. D. Reeder and Marshall McClay were celebrated Friday, February 27 at a crab supper at the McClay home in the Henley district. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sasstedt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Geer and Melvin, Lyle McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Byers, Mary Enos, Marie Allen, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Reeder, Dewain and Dannie, Mrs. Ruby Pellegrini of Yerington, Nev., Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McClay, Jimmie and Jeanie.

Legion Party

American Legion members and their guests will be entertained by Klamath unit of the Legion auxiliary in the Veterans Memorial hall Tuesday, March 16, at 8 o'clock.

The affair will be a birthday party honoring the organization of the Legion 25 years ago.

Cards will be played, with Mrs. Lester Finley and Mrs. Jennie Hurn making arrangements. Bingo will be directed by Mrs. James Gilson and Mrs. G. A. Nichol.

Mrs. H. W. Petrick and Mrs. Pence will be in charge of refreshments. On the committee are Mrs. Francis R. Olds, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. Paul Osterlein, Mrs. Fred Osterlein, Mrs. E. G. Patrick, Mrs. Emil Paul, Catherine Pence, Mrs. H. E. Perkins, Gloria Petersteiner, Mrs. Gertrude Pierce, Mrs. L. L. Pope, Mrs. Edwin Pope, Mrs. Stella Powell, Mrs. G. E. Purdin, Mrs. Calvin Raney and Mrs. G. B. Hawkins.
