

Auxiliary

MALIN—Members of the Malin American Legion auxiliary met at the Malin church March 1 for a regular monthly meeting.

The auxiliary will serve supper at coming bingo parties. Emma Wilde was in charge of the March 6 party, assisted by Irene Jelinek and Norma Petrasek. The March 12 party will be arranged by Grace Stephens. Mrs. Nettie Pierce, child welfare chairman, is accepting clothing to be sent to a six-year-old girl in France, and all contributions may be made through her.

At the April meeting, Anna Petrasek, Pan-American chairman, will report on Argentina, the subject for 1948. Mrs. Ethel Roberts will be on the entertainment committee for April.

Attending were Mrs. Leah Street, Mrs. Ann Petrasek, Mrs. Irene Jelinek, Mrs. Frank Elmer, Mrs. Martha Brothmanek, Mrs. Antonia Smith, Mrs. Irene Freitag, Mrs. Berntha Meyers, Mrs. Barbara Bruner, Mrs. Abbie Herringshaw, Mrs. Nettie Pierce, Mrs. Grace Stephens, Mrs. Norma Petrasek, Mrs. Ann Lachoda, Mrs. Ila Bunge, Mrs. Emma Wilde and Mrs. Hazel Kalina.

Family Reunion

MALIN—Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Stephens and Bonnie and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson and family returned recently from Dallas, Ore., where they joined a family reunion at the home of Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Johnson's mother.

Twenty-one members of the family were present for the occasion. The affair honored Ens. and Mrs. Richard Hartman, who will leave soon for Hawaii, where he will be stationed with the navy air corps.

Bridge Club

MALIN—Mrs. Charles H. Johnson entertained the Happy Hour Bridge club last Tuesday at her home.

High went to Mrs. George Retherath, second to Mrs. Conrad Johnson and low to Mrs. Perry Haley.

Others present were Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mrs. P. G. Wilson, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Charles Hamilton and Mrs. Joe Jacobs.

Jolly Neighbors met at the home of Ruth Russell Wednesday, March 3, at 1:30 for dessert. Members present were Jackie Bedard, Rita Matson, Myrtle Samson, Hermie Francis, Harriet Newman, Catherine Parkurst, Betty Padgett and the hostess, Ruth Russell Toycon, 2346 Wantland.

A special gift was presented to the club by Alice Steinke.

PRETTY is the word for Connie Beryl Sackett, seven months old, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sackett of 2330 Vine street. Mrs. Ivy Sackett of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Charles Spore of 4634 Bisbee are her grandmothers.

Reception

TULELAKE—The new Mrs. Stanley Bradbury, formerly Virginia Brinston, of San Gabriel, was honored delightfully the afternoon of Tuesday, February 29, with a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bradbury. Fifty guests called between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of daffodils and pussy willows and a prettily decorated cake.

Mrs. Bradbury is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selmer K. Brinston and the groom is a 1947 home-steader.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Carl Jensen, Mrs. Donald Snyder, Mrs. Earl Heck and Mrs. A. E. Ryckman.

Rebekah Lodge

On Thursday evening, March 4, a regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge was held in the IOOF hall with Berenice McCracken presiding.

After the business meeting Irene Markham, program chairman, pre-

Committee

CHILQUIN—The Wood River unit, Oregon council of Republican Women, met Monday evening, March 1, with Mrs. Ray Lousley, vice chairman, in charge of the meeting. Walter Zimmerman was appointed head of a committee which will assist with registration of new voters in the Chilquin, West Chilquin and Fort Klamath precincts.

A check of $50 was received from the Republican central committee, which will be used to further party campaigning in this election year.

Discussion of the evening pertained to "Rationing and Price Control" with various members leading sections of the forum. Opinion was that extreme government controls in United States do more harm than good.

Special guests of evening were Guy Barton, candidate for the office of county sheriff, and his wife, Mrs. Barton, both of Klamath Falls. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, Mrs. Gerry Wolf.

Anniversary

MALIN—The Malin American Legion celebrated the 30th birthday anniversary of the Legion at a potluck dinner Monday evening, March 1.

The auxiliary entertained with a program and served dinner.
