Malin Girl Weds In Chapel Rites

Joyce McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonald of Malin, became the bride of Roy Everett Anderson in a ceremony read February 15 in the chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The bridegroom is also of Malin.

Elder Merlin Bleak read the ceremony at 8:30 in the morning. "I Love You Truly" and "Always" were played as guests assembled. Bouquets of white stock and calla lilies formed the background for the nuptials.

The bride wore a suit of aqua with pink accessories and pink carnations at the shoulder. Her sister, Gloria McDonald, was her maid of honor, in a suit of gray with white accessories.

Phillip Anderson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The Winema hotel was the setting for the wedding breakfast which followed the vows. The newlyweds are making their home in Malin.

Installation
The auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars met in the city library clubroom Thursday evening, March 4 with Charlotte Canoy, president, in charge. Plans were completed for the joint installation of auxiliary and veterans officers. Dinner will be served to veterans and their wives that evening. It was voted to make a donation of $5 to the Red Cross drive.

The following officers were elected and will be installed on April 1: president, Patricia Henry; senior vice president, Jennie Arnold; junior vice president, Theresa Ailesch; chaplain, Bertha Ambers; treasurer, Ruby Hickman; conductress, Caroline Williams; guard, Anna McGilvray.

At the meeting on March 18 plans will be made for the encampment to be held at Pendleton in June and delegates will be elected to attend.

Potluck Dinner

MALIN — Members of the Malin American Legion and their families enjoyed a potluck birthday dinner commemorating the 30th anniversary of the American Legion. The affair was held at 6:30 Monday evening in the Malin church. The Legion auxiliary planned the party.

Ann Lahoda and Hazel Kalina were in charge of decorations and entertainment, assisted by Irene Freitag. Community singing opened the program. Ronnie Kalina, accompanied by Ruth Kalina, played a violin solo. Others on the program were Margie Bunge and Frankie Phillips with vocal numbers, a piano solo by Joanne Freitag and an accordion solo by Janet Bunge.

Tables were decorated in blue and white, Legion colors, and the center of attraction was a decorated birthday cake made by Mary Jane Payr.
