Fort Klamath

FORT KLAMATH, March 11—The regular monthly meeting of the Civic Improvement club was held on Friday afternoon in the clubhouse, with the president, Mrs. W. B. Hescock, in the chair, and with Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley acting as secretary pro tem in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Olaf Carpenter.

Plans were made during the business session for a card party to be sponsored by the club in the clubhouse on Saturday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock. Pinochle, bridge, gin rummy and bingo will be played, each member being requested to bring some small article to be given as individual prizes in bingo. Mrs. Earl Jackson and Mrs. Joanna Taylor were named by the president as general chairmen in charge of the affair, Mrs. Jackson, assisted by Mrs. Frank Denton and Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun, to be in charge of refreshments and serving, and Mrs. Taylor to make arrangements for the card playing. She will choose her assistants later. Mrs. William Page was appointed to make posters advertising the card party. An admission price of 50 cents per person will be charged, and will include cards and refreshments. Proceeds will go to the club treasury.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, the pupils of the third grade of the Fort Klamath school presented demonstrations of their practical work in school as well as the social activities they enjoy. The entertainment was given under the supervision of Mrs. Frank Strahan, local grade school teacher.

Hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Harry Orem and Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun, who served refreshments following the meeting at cleverly decorated tables carrying out the St. Patrick Day motif in refreshments and accessories. Present were Mrs. Nettie J. Bishop, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Delbert Denton, Mrs. William C. Hackler, Mrs. W. B. Hescock, Mrs. Earl Jackson, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Marvin Roeder, Mrs. J. R. Sisemore, Mrs. Frank Strahan, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. H. T. Williams and the hostesses, Mrs. Orem and Mrs. Zumbrun.

Word has been received here telling of improvement in the condition of Alfred B. "Tony" Castel Sr., who has been seriously ill at the Veterans' hospital in Portland for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Briscoe and son are moving from Weed, Calif., to their new home in Fort Klamath, the former Art Nichols property, which was recently purchased by the Briscoes from Mrs. Nichols, widow of the late Art Nichols. Mrs. Nichols is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Abbott, at Susanville, Calif.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Perl Funeral home in Medford for the late Roy Stanley, who succumbed to a heart attack Wednesday of last week at his home at Eagle Point. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley are well-known here, having purchased the D. F. Lawton ranch north of Fort Klamath some time ago. They stayed at their ranch here during the year with the exception of the winter months, which they spent at their Eagle Point home. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley of Fort Klamath attended the final rites in Medford last Saturday.

Mrs. Ord Pritchett and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pritchett and children have moved to Madras, Ore., where they have leased a business property consisting of a soda fountain and lunch room, and which they are now operating. Ord Pritchett will leave soon also for Madras to assist in the management of the business. He and his brother Neil have been employed for some time by Thomas Hawkins on the Hawkins cattle ranch south of Fort Klamath, formerly known as the Wood River ranch. The many friends of the two young couples join in wishing them success in their new venture.

Gene Page was able to resume his classes at the Oregon Vocational school in Klamath Falls this week after being absent for ten days due to severe facial cuts and lacerations received in a recent automobile accident in Klamath Falls. Page returned to Klamath Falls Monday with Don Wimer, who is also a student at the school, and was returning there after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wimer of Fort Klamath. Mr. and Mrs. William Strahan and daughter Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strahan attended the theatre in Klamath Falls Sunday evening. Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun and Mrs. Henry Orth spent Monday in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Ray Prowell has recovered from a severe back injury for which she made several trips to Klamath Falls to receive medical care. The injury was sustained in an accidental fall when Mrs. Prowell slipped and fell on the floor of her home here.

F. D. "Buster" Knox miraculously escaped serious injury, including the possibility of death by drowning, on Thursday night when his car went out of control on highway 97, hitting a highway post near the Sand Creek highway patrol station and landing bottom side up in Sand creek, which is nearly at flood stage at this time of year. Knox was unconscious for some time following the accident, and finally managed to extricate himself from the wreck by breaking a window and climbing out. He was brought to Fort Klamath by a member of the highway patrol at Sand creek. Although the car was practically a total wreck, Knox received only minor cuts and bruises on his hand and face. He was en route to Fort Klamath from Oakridge at the time of the accident.

Sharon Parazoo, seventh grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Parazoo, was taken to Tacoma Indian hospital, Tacoma, Wash., early this week, suffering from chorea and rheumatic fever. Sharon has been ill frequently since the first of the year and will be hospitalized for many months. Doctors report that keeping her morale high is of primary importance and, although she is unable to write letters yet, friends are urged to send frequent cards and letters.

Approximately 100 local residents attended the Spade Cooley dance at the armory on Tuesday night. Cooley is well-known here as he formerly attended Chemawa.

Roy Gienger and E. K. Smith returned from a California business trip late Monday night, spent Tuesday on a hurried trip to Yreka and are now home.

Bob Hall Jr., made a business trip to Medford and Eagle Point on Monday.

Mrs. Lloyd Peters and Mrs. Blanche Peters were co-hostesses at the Tuesday night meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Blanche Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Peters of Klamath Falls drove to Alturas, Calif., last week-end to visit with relatives.

Coos Bay, Newport Top Lumber Ports

PORTLAND, March 11 (AP)—Oregon's coastal district ports of Coos Bay and Newport topped the lumber shipping districts of Washington and Oregon in marine loadings during January.

The Pacific lumber inspection bureau reports the two Oregon ports shipped 46,070,679 board feet of lumber.

The combined shipments from all Oregon, Washington and British Columbia ports was 198,300,900 board feet, an increase of 15 per cent from a year ago.

Columbia river ports shipped 45,382,373 board feet. Puget Sound ports 18,437,324 board feet and Washington coast ports 12,500,657 board feet. British Columbia led with 75,909,873 board feet.

Volunteer Fireman Meeting Called

Fire Chief Melvin Gordon of the suburban fire department today called a meeting of potential volunteer firemen. The meeting has been set for 7:30 p. m., Friday in the music room of Altamont junior high school.

All men over 21 years old who are interested in joining the suburban volunteer fire department are invited.

SEAFOOD CASSEROLE . . . tasty Lenten Menu on a thrifty budget!

It's FISHER'S BLEND SEAFOOD CASSEROLE WEEK!

1 16-oz. can Salmon
2 cups cooked or canned Peas
¼ cup Butter
½ cup chopped Celery
¼ cup minced Onion
6 tablespoons Fisher's Blend Flour
1 cup liquid from Salmon and Peas
1 cup Milk
¼ teaspoon dry Mustard
⅛ teaspoon Pepper
⅛ teaspoon Paprika
1½ teaspoons Salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce

Drain salmon and peas. Save liquid. Flake fish. Saute celery and onion in butter until limp and yellow. Add flour gradually, stirring constantly. Add liquid and seasonings. Cook until thick. Fold in peas and salmon. Pour into 1-quart casserole. Top with biscuit dough. Bake 12-15 minutes at 425° F. Use standard biscuit recipe for topping, using 2 cups Fisher's Blend Flour.
