Chicks and Bunnies Herald Eastertime

With several holidays already tucked into limbo and party favors passed in the small fry scrapbooks, Easter has reared its head and the town's shops are well sprinkled with bunnies, chocolate eggs, green grass, fluffy chicks and all the other well loved paraphernalia that represent the season.

A quick survey around town didn't show up anything that was brand spanking new, except perhaps those Easter eggs on sticks which are eaten on the all-day sucker plan. It was wonderful once more to see all the tummy-stuffing stuff for the very young including big chocolate eggs with the individual's name personally engraved in frosting by Mr. Bunny himself.

Haven't heard of any egg hunts planned thus far but if eggs take a sudden drop, lots of oying will be going on the night before Sunday, March 28. One time we had an Easter egg hunt for our two young-uns. We carefully hid the pink, red, yellow, blue and orange affairs in the grass at Moore park and should have looked over our shoulder. As fast as we hid them, two young wags gathered them up. No stuffed eggs the next day.

Mildred Kenner Myers, who got back from Japan a week or two ago after serving 17 months with the department of army civilians in Tokyo, has many amusing stories to tell about The New Look. Seems The Look has been scorned in Tokyo and women who made stateside trips or had just recently arrived in Japan were so self-conscious about the longer skirts that they immediately brought them back to the old knee level.

When Mildred and husband, Mrs. W. J. Kenner, went on a shopping spree in San Francisco shortly after her return, Mildred had to be convinced that The New Look was here to stay for at least a season or two. While stationed in Tokyo Mildred and a group of women civilian workers flew to Shanghai for a two-week vacation and they practically reveled in fresh milk, fresh citrus fruits and all sorts of vegetables.

Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett faces a whirl of meetings, gatherings and coffee hours up north this week and leaves here Monday night as she embarks on active participation since filing her candidacy for republican candidate for national committeewoman.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock noon in the Multnomah hotel, the Portland unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, formerly Pro-America is having a candidates' luncheon and City Commissioner Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland is chairman of the day. The cards say: "The guest of honor is Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, candidate for republican national committeewoman, and Miss Emilie Eisenhauer, candidate for the house of representatives." On Wednesday Olive will spend the day in Salem with friends and also attend the noon luncheon of the Salem Soroptimist club. Thursday is another day when the Portland Women's Forum will hold its annual Republican-Democrat candidates luncheon meeting at 12:15 in the crystal dining room of the Benson hotel. This group is headed by Miss Evangeline Philbin. Olive will be the guest at this gathering of Mrs. Lee Patterson.

There is a coffee hour from 12 to 2 Friday afternoon at the Portland YWCA under the auspices of the Council of Oregon Republican Women, an informal get together for the candidates. Olive expects to return either late next week-end or the first of the following week and will hear more about political minded women from that end of the state.

Interesting news from Klamath students at school. Erlene Wheeler has been elected vice president of Gamma hall on the University of Oregon campus for the coming year. Erlene is a sophomore major in liberal arts and is the daughter of Mrs. N. G. Wheeler of 505 North Fifth.

Shirley Mason, Mrs. Carl Mason's daughter, has pledged Sigma Kappa sorority at the University of Oregon. Shirley is a junior in history and will move in with other Klamath Sigma Kappas, Maryellen Wright, Barbara Osborn and Charlene Harmon who was also pledged recently. Shirley will be home for spring vacation along with other Oregon students, leaving the campus on March 19. Shirley will first visit with friends in Grants Pass for a couple of days.

Same old college studies have "above college average" in grades for the fall semester is smart Nancy Bennett, the Warren Bennett's girl. Nancy was among four seniors who earned straight A's for the term.

Mary Louise Sexton, who is an Alpha Omicron Pi pledge, at Oregon, spent last week-end here with her family, the Frank Sextons of Riverside. Mary Louise rooms at Alpha hall with Madeleine Adler and came down particularly for Madeleine's part in last week's concert at KUHS.

The wrong people always move away. Lake of the Woods summer home owners regret to see John Sarginson and his family take off for the Snoqualmie forest in Washington. Mr. Sarginson has been ranger at the lake for the past 10 years.

And there is the pending departure of the Willard C. Preston family for Whitefish, Montana. Mr. Preston has already gone north to take over his chief dispatcher's job for the Great Northern and Mrs. Preston and Mary Ann will go as soon as school is out. Mary Ann is an honor student at Fremont Junior high.

Noted in the Oregonian society section: Mrs. Stanley Staiger (Jolene Woodruff), modeling at the fashion show presented this week by the Oswego Country club.

The Charles Hoveys have returned from their trip south and spent several days with the Harry Elliotts at Klamath Agency. They are former residents now living in Vancouver, Wash., and just recently enjoyed a trip by boat out of San Francisco down the South American coast and home by way of Mexico.

Proud Parents Dept.: The Charles F. Scharfensteins, former Klamathites now Long Beaching in California, when their son, Charles Jr., received the Bronze Star medal by the secretary of the navy. It was for meritorious service on D-Day when Lt. Scharfenstein (now Lt. Comdr.) "maneuvered his ship close to the beach to maintain the flow of men, ammunition and supplies despite enemy gun fire etc."

Note from Nadine Palmerton Hanks telling of her husband going into business for himself in San Francisco, setting up his own photography shop and both of them as busy as bees, Nadine is in the sales promotion department of Foster and Kleiser, the billboard people, and says she has a wonderful job and a very interesting one.

One of the prettiest of the spring suits, a white knit affair worn by Marlys O'Neill. The new longer torso sweater with a knit four-purl skirt.

Orchid Section: A bushel basket of them to Helen Gray Jeschke who has kept her amazing sense of humor and the proportion of things despite the fact she is confined to a wheel chair. Helen (Mrs. Rudy Jeschke), is leaving Sunday for further treatment at the University of California. She has been ill since last April when a sudden illness paralyzed her from the waist down. Her first time out at an affair of any size at all was to the crab supper arranged by the Elks for their ladies last Thursday night. Helen was the center of a great many people, and she the gayest of all. Incidentally, the little Easter lilies that helped to send Helen to Eugene for four months' treatment last year, will again be sold on the streets of Klamath Falls, this year on Saturday, March 27, by the Pep Peppers.

Coming Events: Elks St. Patrick's dance on Wednesday, March 17; St. Paul's tea and card party at the Willard hotel, Saturday, April 3; Appleton and Field duo-piano concert, Wednesday, March 24, at the Pelican, last of the Klamath Community Concert association's schedule for the season; Easter Lily sale by Pep Peppers, March 27; Easter, March 28; school vacations, March 28-29; Mother's Day, Sunday, May 9.

Klamath Group In St. Pat's Parade

Joining the Irish in San Francisco's big St. Patrick's parade Sunday, March 14, is a delegation of Klamath Sheriff's Posse members. A number of wives and other guests are also spending a few days in the bay area this week.

The posse will ride in the parade and will stay at the Whitcomb hotel.

Among members and guests who went south this week for the affair are, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read, Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ring and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams, Mrs. Laura Ware, Doris May Ware, Mr. and Mrs. L. Haffer, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Danforth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lloyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tuback, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rice, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Balsiger, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Totton, Dr. and Mrs. E. Dietzsch, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ivory, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Low, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Howard, Keith Moon, Dr. M. A. McPadden, Lamar Townsend, Roscoe Lilly, Dan Emrick, William Peck and Fred Harlick.

Friends have learned of the betrothal and forthcoming marriage of Marge Larson, daughter of Eldur O. Larson of Tulelake, Calif., and John Bowman of Turlock, Calif. Date set for the wedding is June 20.

ROMANTIC NEWS was learned this week here and at the University of Oregon when the betrothal of Joan O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell O'Neill, and Charles Fredric Faulon, son of Mr. E. P. Faulon of this city, was told friends of both families. No date is set for the wedding.

Sacred Heart Is Setting Of Rites

At 10 o'clock this morning, Saturday, March 13, Lois Dorrine Coady, daughter of Mrs. Clara Chambers of Redding, California, exchanged vows with John Anthony Raffetto Jr., at Sacred Heart church with the Rev. Father John Delahanty officiating.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her step-father, Mr. G. J. LaMoure of Klamath Falls. She wore a white slipper satin gown with a long full skirt, the snug bodice fashioned with a net yoke and long, tight sleeves. Her finger carried a single white orchid on a white prayer book, which was loaned by the groom's aunt, Mrs. A. W. Novakovich of Modesto, Calif.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Kay Kaler who wore a bluish pink crepe gown with a matching head band and carried a Colonial bouquet. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Warren Caldwell, who wore an ice blue crepe frock and matching head band and also carried a Colonial bouquet. Mr. Jack Vaughn was best man.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. John O'Connor played incidental organ music and Mr. Carl Hagel sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus." The altar in Sacred Heart church was decked with white flowers and candles and there were palms at either side.

Immediately after the service the young couple received 75 guests in the Pelican party room. The bride's table was in white and silver and the wedding cake on a base of sweetheart roses and fern was served by Mrs. Paul Whitlatch after the first piece was cut by the new Mr. and Mrs. Raffetto. Mrs. Robert Lamont presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Chester Jaskiewicz was at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Chambers wore a dressmaker suit of pale blue gabardine with matching accessories, and Mrs. Raffetto, mother of the groom, wore a spring green suit with black. Both mothers wore corsages of rose-hydrants.

Tea Committees Make Plans for Easter Affair

Plans for the annual Easter tea and card party by women of St. Paul's Episcopal church are going ahead nicely and this year's affair will be given Saturday afternoon, April 3, in the Willard hotel at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Wyatt Padgett is general chairman of the affair.

Mrs. Howard Pernel heads the calling committee and she is being assisted by Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Warren Bennett, Mrs. Scott McKendree, Mrs. William Hagelstein and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken. Those wishing to make reservations and not contacted by the calling group should call Mrs. Pernel at 6580, or Mrs. Padgett at 3508.

Mrs. Clarence Ough is chairman of prizes and on this committee are Mrs. Richard Maxwell and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge. Mrs. Frank Terr and Mrs. A. J. Lambert will be at the door, with Mrs. Boyd Sprague arranging for tallies.

Mrs. Raymond Enzelcke is chairman of the tea table, assisted by Mrs. George H. Adler.

The kitchen and cookies committee is headed by Mrs. Paul Jones, assisted by Mrs. Horace Greig, Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Dolores Mills and Mrs. T. J. Orr. Mrs. Neal Stewart is publicity chairman.

PLEGGED AT the University of Oregon this past week was Shirley Mason, daughter of Mrs. Carl Mason, 2025 Lawrence. Shirley is a junior in history and pledged Sigma Kappa sorority.

Skating Party

A group of young friends was invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson on Eldorado street this evening for a supper in the playroom with several hours of skating later, when their son Willard will entertain.

Guests invited for the supper and skating party include Carol Jean Elliott, Sara Stewart, Marcia Wilson, Nancy Kollig, Carolyn Helbronn, Annette Jacobs and Dolores McFarland, Don Hall, David Molatore, Gregg Schulze, Monte Voight, Ross Tomlin and Alton Anderson.

Coming Rites
Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hanson of this city have announced the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter Gertrude. She will exchange vows with Earl Brooks, also of Klamath Falls, in a ceremony planned for Saturday, March 23.

VISITING IN KLAMATH FALLS are Mrs. Robert Stewart and young son Stephen of Los Angeles, here for the wedding of her sister, June Michelson, tomorrow at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. Stewart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michelson of Walnut street.

Betrothal News Told to Friends Last Week-End

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connell O'Neill of this city last week-end announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan, to Charles Fredric Faulon and at the same time members of Joan's sorority at the University of Oregon were told the romantic news.

On Friday evening, March 5, at the Delta Gamma sorority in Eugene, Joan made the announcement at a supper party. The big table was centered with an arrangement of bronze, pink and blue, the house colors, and printed announcements carrying the pictures of the young couple, were at each place. Joan's sister, Marilyn, and Sally Mueller of Klamath Falls, were guests of the evening. No date is set for the wedding.

Joan is active on the University of Oregon campus and is a Delta Gamma officer, treasurer of Kwanza, sophomore women's scholastic and service honorary, and is a sophomore in sociology. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1945 and was very active in student affairs.

Mr. Faulon is the son of Mr. E. P. Faulon of this city and the late Mrs. Faulon. He is also a KUHS graduate, entered the armed forces and served during the war with the 17th airborne paratroop division and saw combat in France and Belgium.

On return from service he entered the University of Oregon where he is a member of Phi Kappa Psi and a sophomore in architecture.

Friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cogdill on the birth of their first child, Billy Sanford Cogdill, March 6. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Selby.

Bride-Elect Feted At Nuptial Parties

Numerous affairs have marked recent days in honor of June Michelson, who will become the bride of Harold Dryden tomorrow, Sunday, at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Van Landrum and Betty Merrill entertained at a pre-nuptial party held at the home of the latter, 1949 Melrose, March 4. The groom-to-be is the assistant manager of United Air Lines here, and the motif of the party was centered around an arrangement of tiny airplanes suspended over the mantel.

Guests included Miss Michelson, Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. William Wales Sr., Mrs. Ray Michels, Dorothy Hutchinson, Mae Lorenzen, Marcille Reynolds, Hope Samson, Margaret Kopta, Mrs. Jack Ray, Mrs. Karl Kujak, Mrs. Vertis Swearngen, Jean Merrill, Ruth Merrill, Mrs. Guy Merrill, Mrs. Carl Michelson, Mrs. Harry Dickerson, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Ralph Schobee, Mrs. Lawson Kandra and Mrs. Walter McIntyre.

Twenty friends gathered at the Walter McIntyre home one evening recently in Miss Michelson's honor for a miscellaneous shower, when Mrs. McIntyre entertained for her. Pink and white were colors used for the decorative theme. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by guests.

Teachers at Fremont school presented the bride-elect with a gift last Friday afternoon. Miss Michelson is a member of the Fremont faculty.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Altman of 1602 Oregon this week announced the betrothal of their daughter, Geraldine, to Keith Cook, also of this city.

He is the son of L. Marble Cook of Beaverton, Wash., and Mrs. Winifred K. Cook of Oakland, Calif. No date has been set for the wedding.

Spring Fantasy

March 27 is a date that Sojourner members are urged to remember and reserve for the spring tea. Mrs. S. E. Hopkins of the tea committee announced that plans for a Spring Fantasy are under way for that date and hinted at some unique decorating schemes the committee is working on. Specific information which she gave was that the place is the Willard hotel, the time is 1:30, with tea being served at 4 o'clock, and that members may bring as many guests as they wish. A charge will be made each person. Sojourners will be contacted by phone or mail for their reservations in the near future. Mrs. Al Lent and Mrs. Harry Fredricks are chairmen, and they are being assisted by Mrs. William Green, Mrs. A. J. Lambert, Mrs. S. B. Hopkins, Mrs. John Ashley and Mrs. H. R. Collins. Mrs. Robert Houck is working with the committee, and Mrs. Arthur Compton has offered assistance with the decorations.

Sojourner members were happy to meet the following guests at the meeting of March 10, Mrs. G. W. Nelson, Mrs. E. A. Shipley, Mrs. Eileen Shoop, Mrs. C. Lamont, Mrs. Jack Diskman and Mrs. S. M. Johnson. Three new members joined the ranks, Mrs. Dean Oakes, Mrs. Nathan Rosenbaum and Mrs. David Boyd. The afternoon hostesses were Mrs. Charles Larkin and Mrs. S. B. Hopkins, and at the close of the card party, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Nathan Rosenbaum, Mrs. William Wales and Mrs. John Kealey.

All Sojourner members are reminded that the tea on March 27 will take the place of the regular Wednesday meeting of March 24.

Farewell Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Art Reinhart were hosts at a farewell dinner at the Log Cabin inn last Sunday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Thorold Kierulff who left Wednesday on the first leg of their journey to Denmark where they expect to remain for the next five months.

Musicale

The annual musicale of the Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women is scheduled for Saturday, March 20.

Arranging the program is Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, AAUW music chairman. The affair will open with luncheon in the Pelican party room, followed by the musical program.

Mrs. Samuel A. Muehlen will play a group of piano selections, Mrs. Robert Banister and Charles Selby will present vocal solos, and an ensemble composed of Mrs. Lewis Hornby and John O'Connor, piano, will present selections. Mrs. Sherman Carter will accompany the vocal numbers.

Attractive Geraldine Altman is the bride-elect of Keith Cook of Klamath Falls.

Miss Altman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Altman, who announced the engagement news this week. No date has been set for the nuptials.
