

Double Ring Rites Read In February

Ruthalene Blakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blakley of this city, became the bride of Norman E. Gammere, also of Klamath Falls, in a double ring ceremony read at 8 o'clock the evening of February 27, Rev. Daniel B. Anderson read the nuptial service at the Klamath Temple.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gammere of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of pearl satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt ending in a train. Her veil of fingertip length, fell from a halo of white net and pearls. For jewelry she wore a double strand of pearls.

A circle of pink rosebuds surrounded the white orchid which centered her bouquet. Mrs. Palmer Gundersen sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the vows, accompanied by Delbert Morris, who later played the traditional processional and recessional.

Mrs. Carl Blakley was matron of honor. Her gown was of aqua tulle, fashioned with a bouffant skirt. An orange satin ribbon trimmed her bouquet of carnations, and she wore a bandeau of the same flowers in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Geneva Hixon and Mrs. Bill Blakley, who were attired in yellow tulle gowns. Their bouquets of carnations were tied with yellow ribbons. Linda Blakley was flower girl, in a dress of aqua tulle, and she wore a halo of carnations in her hair.

Robert Book was best man and ushers were Carl Blakley, brother of the bride, Dexter Sexton, Ted Reames and Dean Owens. Larry Blakley, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of sky blue, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 4039 Biesta way. A white, three-tiered cake centered the bride's table.

After the new brides cut the first slice of the confection, Mrs. Carl Woodward and Mrs. Palmer Gundersen served. They were assisted by Mrs. Ray Branswell, Bonnie Sweeney and Evelyn Hanson. Mrs. Dean Owens was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Gammere wore a black suit with pink accessories for going away. Her orchid was pinned at the shoulder. After a week in San Francisco, the couple returned to be at home at 315 Martin street.
