Kansas State Glides Into Cage Playoff

KANSAS CITY, March 16 (AP)—The amazing Kansas State college Wildcats, collegiate basketball "Cinderella Kids," will represent district 5 in the western regional NCAA playoffs here Friday and Saturday.

An all-time record basketball crowd for municipal auditorium, estimated at 9700, watched the hepped-up Cats, champions of the Big Seven, whip Missouri valley titlist, Oklahoma A. and M. Aggies, 43-34, last night.

Kansas State, only team to beat Oklahoma A. and M. twice this season, used a dazzling fast break for a 27-17 halftime lead, then hog-tied the Aggies at their own game—ball control—to win as much as they pleased.

Rounding out the western playoff field this week-end will be Baylor of the Southwest, University of Washington of the Pacific Coast, and Wyoming of the Rocky mountain states.

Pairings for the western playoffs were expected to be announced today.

Fear Is Cause Of Killing

LONGVIEW, March 16 (AP)—Prosecutor Joe L. Johnson said today a 16-year-old boy shot and killed his older brother yesterday because he was afraid of him.

The prosecutor said the boy, George Fowler, 16, had admitted orally he fired the shot that caused the death of his brother, Calvin, 26.

A sister, Mrs. Lorraine Oliver, told the prosecutor and Coroner Gordon Guernstrom that the shooting occurred during a family quarrel in which the slain man had threatened her.

She said the elder brother had once been committed to a mental institution and was irrational at times.

The mother, Mrs. H. F. Grasser, was absent from the home at the time. She went to Tacoma yesterday morning in an effort to have her older son committed again to a mental hospital, Mrs. Rosser said.
