

Four Circles Hold Meetings Thursday

A joint meeting of the four circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church was held in the church parlors on Thursday, March 11. Dessert was served at 1:30, and the hostesses, from the four circles, were as follows: Ruth circle, Mrs. William Wales Jr.; Esther circle, Mrs. Fred Bechtel, Mrs. Robert Emerson; Martha circle, Mrs. F. H. Coter and Mrs. Sarah O'Connor; Mary circle, Mrs. Walter Leslie and Mrs. M. G. Leslie.

After dessert the circles held short business meetings and then united for a general meeting with Mrs. L. K. Phelps, president of the society, presiding. Attention was called to the Rogue zone meeting to be held in Medford on Wednesday, March 31. There will be representatives from Klamath Falls, Bly, Lakeview and Chiloquin. Mrs. John Yaden conducted the devotional service, taking as her subject, "The Glory of God in Nature and Man."

Mrs. George Casper, on behalf of the society, presented Mrs. A. G. Proctor with a going-away gift. Mrs. Proctor has been a member of the society for some time and is leaving Klamath Falls.

The next general meeting will be on Thursday, March 25, beginning with the study class at 10:30 a.m. At noon Esther circle will serve luncheon. An interesting program has been planned for the afternoon, and the theme will be "Christian Work in Japan."
