Girl Scout Birthday Week Activities
The Girl Scouts celebrated their 36th birthday during the week of March 8 to 14 with a public relations dinner, window displays, radio programs, international friendship program and a Scouts' own program.

The dinner which opened the week's activities was attended by 180 leaders and adults connected with Scouting. The guests were seated according to their neighborhoods and partook of "potluck" which had been arranged by the neighborhood chairman. Rev. Victor Phillips opened the program with an invocation and following the dinner Mayor Ed Ostendorf congratulated the Girl Scouts on their growth and pledged cooperation with their future activities. Mrs. Scott Davis, a national committee member from Medford, and Mrs. Marjorie Kafer, a field representative from Seattle, spoke briefly on the ideals and plans of Scouting. The main speaker of the evening, Phil Hitchcock, was entertaining and inspirational as he told of "Our Responsibility to the Youth of Klamath County," and pointed out specifically that the adults must direct the allegiance of the youth of the country and try to see that the trust and hope of the youth will not be misplaced.

Awards Made
A surprise feature of the dinner was the presentation of several awards to women who have given faithful service to Girl Scouting in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Lowell Kaup was given a badge denoting six years or more service as leader, and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe and Mrs. E. L. Mitchell were given thanks badges in recognition of more than 16 years of volunteer work. Mrs. James Pinniger, commissioner, in presenting the awards pointed out what an unusual contribution those long years of service are, and also mentioned appreciation to the sacrifice and service of the husbands of volunteer Scout workers.

The dinner was concluded with the showing of an information movie by Joe LaClair. The duties of the Girl Scout leader were depicted by showing the various activities of a Girl Scout troop.

Radio Program
"As Friend to Friend" was the title of the radio program given on Friday evening by 14 girls of Altamont troop 9, led by Mrs. A. C. Olson and Mrs. C. C. Crawford. Mrs. Jack Wright assisted with the play, which was directed by Miss Violet Moore. The theme was the current Girl Scout drive to collect clothes for overseas relief.

The birthday program held at Fremont school included skits, songs and dances featuring Ireland, Denmark, Fiji Islands, Sweden and a Pan-American demonstration and a sailor's clog dance. The troops and their leaders connected with this program were Altamont troop 17, Mrs. Ralph Gates; Shasta troop 27, Mrs. Kenneth Lambie; Altamont troop 30, Mrs. Kit Johnson; Roosevelt troop 6, Mrs. Elmer Harnden; Pelican troop 1, Mrs. Laura Orrell; Mills troop 43, Mrs. Fred Hayward; Riverside troop 19, Mrs. H. A. Nilschelm; Fairview troop 23, Mrs. Gilbert Walters; KUBS troop 51, Mrs. Eston Balsger; Fremont troop 10, Mrs. Dorothy Ramsey; Mills troop 24, Mrs. G. E. Matthews; and Altamont troop 16, Mrs. L. L. Parker. Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger was the song leader, and Mrs. E. H. Shipley directed the program.

Scout's Own
The Scout's Own program was held on Sunday, March 14, at the American Legion hall and was directed by Hazel Morrison. Selections on the program were patriotic and religious songs, and the Girl Scout Hymn by troop 16, accompanied by Betty Pinniger, from Senior troop 51; a candle-lighting ceremony symbolizing the Girl Scout promise by Altamont Junior high troop 11; a recitation of the 23rd Psalm by Henley troop 14; the History of Girl Scouting by Helen Olson of Mills troop 53; "What Girl Scouting Means to Me" by Patricia Brown of Mills troop 53; and a recitation of the Girl Scout promise and laws led by troop 5 of Roosevelt. Beverly Burke of Senior troop 51 was the mistress of ceremonies, and the song leader was Jackie Robateck of the same troop. Also helping with the ushering and decorations were troops 53 of Mills and 11 of Altamont.

The window decoration at the U. S. National bank emphasized the community service of the Girl Scouts and was designed by Mrs. Arthur Compton. In the window of Penney's are photographs of many leaders of

Camp Fire News

By FLO ANN PERKINS
Since the past week has been Birthday Week for Camp Fire Girls all over the country, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, first guardian of the local organization, was called upon for information regarding that first group.

"Camp Fire organization in Oregon was begun in 1913 in Portland and became well organized with several groups in 1914," says Mrs. Thomas. "Helen Gillespie, most prominent in the work, was assisted by Rachel Rhoades, a member of the staff of the Portland public library, and much valuable help was given by Mary Frances Isom, librarian."

"Miss Rhoades interested Mrs. Bert Thomas, and in the spring of 1915, a group was started in Klamath Falls. Augusta Parker, principal of the old Central school, gave Mrs. Thomas permission to speak to the girls in the seventh and eighth grades and to tell them about the organization. From this group the first Camp Fire circle in Klamath Falls was formed and called the Klamath Camp Fire group."

"The first meeting of the group was held at the Thomas home, 447 Alameda street, May 20, 1915. From then until August 2, eleven meetings were held, including a hike and a swimming party at the natorium. Most of the meetings were held Saturday afternoons, and the girls worked on head bands and learned the songs and laws of Camp Fire."

"There were 18 members at the time the work was turned over to Mrs. Walter Montellus, mother of Edith Montellus, one of the girls. Mrs. Thomas was called out of the city for several months, and Mrs. Montellus took over the work."

From the pictures of the group, a roll of most of the members has been compiled. Some of these are well-known ladies in Klamath Falls now.

These are: Edith Montellus Hill (Mrs. Harry G. Hill), Napa, Calif.; Freida Biehn Lucas (Mrs. Marvin K.

Lucas), city; Constance Fisher, Iris Turner, Florence Bradley, Margaret Upp Mudd, Wilmington, Calif.; Katherine Upp Kollins, Full Creek, Ore.; Constantine Miller Noble, Helen Turner Wagner (Mrs. Junior Wagner), city; Jean Perry Metcalf (Mrs. Howard H. Metcalf) Portland; Dorothy Sanderson Templar (Mrs. Earl Templar); Dr. Cornelia Robertson, Lakeview; Eleanor Petersteiner Schleinger, Petaluma, Calif., deceased; Myler Galkins Stevenson (Mrs. George Stevenson); Esther Haines Dunvan, Albertus Kitcherom Andrews, New Westminster, B. C.; Mrs. Prentiss Yeomans, Klamath Falls; Dorothy Delzell Lewis (Mrs. Leslie Lewis, Boulder, Colo.)

Girl Scout troops and is entitled "Leaders of Future Leaders."

Foreign Mail
Girl Scouts who are interested in establishing correspondence with young people of foreign countries are asked to leave their names at the Girl Scout office in the near future. Plans are being laid for making personal contact with Girl Guides and Girl Scouts of other countries and exchanging letters between them and Girl Scouts of the Klamath area. Mrs. Arthur Compton of the public relations committee started this plan when she reported that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Neville Huffman, is touring Europe and the Near East with her husband and as a trained Red Cross worker. Mrs. Huffman would have many contacts with young people and would obtain names and addresses for correspondence. Progress of the plan will be closely followed by the Girl Scout officials and will be publicized through window displays and newspaper articles.

Ashland School Districts Merge
ASHLAND, March 18 (AP)—Consolidation of four rural districts with the Ashland school district was approved overwhelmingly last night. Assessment in the district will be increased almost $2,000,000, permitting construction of additional school facilities.

Stephanie Koret Wins Success In Fashion Field

Famous Designer Insists on Excellent Materials to Work With... Chooses Sperry Drifted Snow as the One Flour for Her Kitchen

Co-partner in Koret of California, Stephanie Koret appraises each apparel sketch for style, comfort, versatility... the three "musts" that make Koret classics so widely acclaimed. She exercises the same excellent judgment in her home, where she insists that Sperry Drifted Snow "Home-Perfected" Enriched Flour be used for all bakings.

ORANGE TEA LOAF

by Martha Meade
Noted Western Food Authority

Always a special treat whether just sliced and buttered, made into dainty tea sandwiches or hearty lunch box ones; or served as fragrant toast with jam or preserves.

Sift flour before measuring. Use level measurements for all ingredients.

In a saucepan, heat to lukewarm —
1/4 cup strained orange juice
Remove from heat and stir in —
3 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3 tablespoons grated orange rind
3 tablespoons butter, melted
1/2 cup whole egg, beaten (1 large)
1 cake moist compressed yeast, softened in
2 tablespoons lukewarm water

Beat until mixture is well blended. Add —
3 1/2 cups sifted Sperry Drifted Snow "Home-Perfected" Enriched Flour

Mix to a moderately stiff dough. Turn out on floured board and knead lightly until dough is smooth. Cover with a damp cloth and let rest on the board for 15 minutes. Then roll dough into a narrow oblong, 7 x 14 inches. Starting from the narrow end roll up tightly, as for jelly roll. Seal lengthwise seam and ends of loaf by pinching dough together. Place loaf in a lightly greased bread pan, 9 x 5 x 3 inches. Cover with a damp cloth and let rise in a warm place until light and double in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours. (Center of loaf will be about 1 inch above pan edge.) Brush loaf with melted shortening. With a sharp knife carefully cut 4 diagonal slashes along top of loaf, about 1/2 inch deep. Bake in a hot oven, 400°, for 25 minutes. Cool thoroughly before slicing, 1 loaf.

NOTE: Top outside dimensions are given for bread pan size. This Orange Tea Loaf is delicious when lightly toasted.
