

Noon-Day Services To Be Given

Noon-day services will be held each day, Monday through Thursday of next week under the auspices of the Klamath Ministerial association. Holy Week services will be from 12:30 to 12:50 p. m. in the Pine Tree theatre.

Ministers conducting the services and delivering the addresses respectively are Rev. D. B. Anderson and Rev. Selmer Jacobson, Monday; Rev. Keith P. Fields and Rev. P. C. Alderson, Tuesday; Rev. C. O. Ross and Rev. Virgil Dexter, Wednesday; and Rev. Hugh T. Mitchelmore and Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach, Thursday.

General theme of the addresses is "The World of Men and Their Redeemer."

On Good Friday, the sacred service of the Three Hours will be held in the Pelican theatre beginning promptly at 12 noon and continuing until 3 p. m.

Meditations on the Seven Last Words from the Cross will be led by Rev. Perry M. Johnson, Rev. C. O. Ross, Rev. D. B. Anderson, Rev. David Barnett, Major W. Roswell, Rev. Howard F. Hutchins and Rev. Victor Phillips.

A most cordial invitation is extended to all to join in these services.

Communion At 1st Christian

"Open the Gates to the Temple" will be the solo number that Dean Stephens, baritone, will sing at the First Christian church at the 11 a. m. hour of worship this Sunday. The Rev. Howard Hutchins, pastor, will speak on the sermon subject, "The Magnetism of Calvary." Observance of weekly communion is at 11:10 each Sunday.

Evening worship is at 7:30. Dean Stephens will lead the song session. The pastor's message will be "Reigning From the Tree." Baptismal services will also be held.

Bible school is at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages. The average weekly attendance is now 300, the pastor reports.

Christian Endeavor groups meet at 6:30 p. m. Sunday. The annual state CE convention will be held in Albany in April.

Two special services to be held next week will be on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Holy Week services will be at 6 o'clock and will last 45 minutes. The pastor will speak on the subjects, "A Crossless Christ," Wednesday, and "Let Us Forget" on Friday. All are invited.

Sunday School Class Slated

Weekly worship services will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington.

The plan for holding Sunday school classes at the same hour has worked out well, and Sunday school is being held regularly at 11, downstairs in the church.

A weekly meeting is held at 8 p. m. Wednesdays.

Golden Text of this week's lesson-sermon will be "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world,"

Methodists To Hear Phillips

Palm Sunday services will be held at the First Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The Rev. Victor Phillips will take as his topic at the morning service, "Palm Sunday Cheers, Jeers and Tears." The Junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robert P. Craig, with Mrs. Patricia Hunt at the organ, will sing special music at this service.

There will also be baptism of infants and reception of new members. At the evening service the minister will speak on the subject, "The Meaning of the Cross."

Other services for the day will be church Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and Methodist Youth fellowship at 6:30 p. m. The public is invited to all services at First Methodist, N. 10th and High.

Matthews To End Series

At the Congregational church on Sunday morning, Rev. Godfrey Matthews will preach the last in the series of sermons on "The Victory of Faith." His subject title is "What Hope Is There That Christianity Can Triumph Over the World?" An augmented choir will unite with the church choir in the singing of the liturgy and leading the congregational singing under the direction of Marie Casjens.

On the night of Thursday, March 25, the Maundy Thursday celebration of Holy Communion will be observed. All members of the church are earnestly urged to be present. The service will begin at 7:30. Following it will be a church meeting in which the vote of the congregation will be taken on the serious subject of the proposed merger of the Congregational churches with the Evangelical and Reformed churches.

St. Paul's Service Set

Celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m. Sunday will begin Palm Sunday services at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Church school will be held at 9:45 a. m. and morning prayer and sermon will be at 11 a. m. The offertory solo will be "The Palms" sung by Jewel Howard.

At 6:30 p. m. Sunday there will be a meeting of the Young People's fellowship.

Services for Holy Week are as follows: 10 a. m., Celebration of the Holy Communion; 7:30 p. m. Maundy Thursday choral celebration of the Holy Communion, followed by choir practice; 3 p. m., Good Friday, the Three Hours service, beginning at 12 noon and ending at 3 p. m.; 3 p. m. Saturday, Baptismal service in the church.

the love of the Father is not in him." (I John 2:15). The lesson subject is "Matter."

Also from the Bible will be the following: "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea." (Rev. 21:1).
