

MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

New Pine Creek

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Alma McLain on March 16 with 16 members and 11 children present. Alice Allen and Annie Wade opened their birthday gifts. After the business meeting the hostesses had members see who could name the most United States presidents. Gladys Foster won high prize and Eunice Cogburn won low. Delicious refreshments of two kinds of homemade cake, fruit jello with whipped cream and coffee were served. The next meeting will be April 6 at the home of Ruby Partin.

At the First Baptist church here this coming Sunday, March 21, Rev. George Chase of Lone Pine, Ore., will be the principal speaker of the day. Three services will be scheduled. It has been announced, at the following hours: 11 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

After the morning service a big dinner will be served in the basement of the church. All members are urged to be present and the public is cordially invited to make this a rousing banquet in the House of the Lord. Rev. Chase will speak each evening this week and all next week, climaxing his sojourn with us here Sunday March 28. The services and occasion will have added significance in that it will celebrate the second anniversary of the local pastor, Rev. Eugene Barrow.

New Pine Creek can now boast of a new beauty shop which was opened last Friday by Mrs. Veronica Mathewney. Mrs. Mathewney is an experienced operator and can give the local ladies the very best in beauty service. At the present she is specializing in the machineless wave and finger waving and will soon be able to give the machine permanent as soon as her machine arrives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith left last Wednesday for a trip into the Nevada country visiting Reno, Fallon, and penetrating the California country to Oroville. They returned Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Mary Snider received word recently from Mrs. J. M. Ernst who said she arrived safely in Yokohama, Japan, on March 5.

There will be a regular meeting of the East Side Grange this Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millspaugh visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ingstrom at Ashland and brought home Dorothy Johnston who has been visiting with the "Bud" Netherlands at Medford.

Winifred Gooch tendered the local boys and girls his garage for a big skating party last Friday evening of which offer 39 children and 17 grown-ups took advantage. The affair turned out to be a real enjoyable party and sandwiches, homemade cookies and soft drinks were served. About four dozen balloons were distributed amongst the crowd, which added to the fun.

The Paris family took off last Friday noon for Eugene, Ore., where they spent the week-end, returning Sunday night or rather early Monday morning. Although it took only 5 1/2 hours to drive over, 1 1/2 hours were required to make the journey home due to stormy weather.

The occasion was the reunion of an old bridge club circle of some 20 years' standing with two of each of the six couples' children and their girl friends and boy friends present. Some members of the children's group had never met before. The get-together was prompted by the completion of the Frank Graham estate mansion near Jasper, Ore., and what a warming that big house which is a dream in any man's language got. This was the second time the Paris' have gotten away out of the valley in over 10 years and the event was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. Dorothy Blunt and Mrs. Gladys Cooper managed the store and post office and the two youngest children, Don and Janet, while the rest of the family were away.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lawson went to Alturas last Monday evening and returned Wednesday noon. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Craig and Mrs. Thomas Fields.

Little Ads get Big Results. Use the Herald and News Want-Ads!

Henley

Overnight guests last week at the O. D. Reeder residence were Harry Howe and Bert Behlinger of Salem. They arrived and left by plane for Arizona.

Donnie Reeder underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday at Hillside hospital.

Those who attended the St. Patrick's parade in San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Read, Laura Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams and Keith Moon.

Read, Williams and Moon rode in the parade with the sheriff's posse from Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simon returned Monday from their trip to Mexico.

Celebrating her birthday Sunday, March 14, Mrs. Jess Johnson entertained with a turkey dinner.

Guests were William Cheyne, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Cheyne and Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton and Wesley from Malin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trelease are parents of a 7 pound 6 ounce daughter, Robin Gay, born March 18 at Klamath Valley hospital.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hopkins were hosts to a few friends for an evening of pinocle. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Kittredge and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Campbell.

Chiloquin

The honor roll for the past six weeks period in the upper six grades at the Chiloquin school included the following names, seniors, Ann and Jean McKell; juniors Bill Norval, Lerma Roser and Juanita Oates; sophomores, Betty Johnson, Joe Ball, Joan Loosley; freshmen, Betty Wright, Jerry Monks and Ken Miller. Six eighth graders made the list, Dorothy Kelly, Jacqueline Shorey, Joanne Keyser, Dorothy Kennington, Barbara Cookman and David McKell. Seventh graders were Kay Heglund, Gene Gentry, Carol Wilson and Stanley Webb.

Intramural tournaments have been played the past two weeks in both the girls' and boys' classes. The junior boys won the event and a girls' team with Nola Heminger as captain walked off with the other tournament victory.

Mr. and Mrs. William Savage of Nyssa, Ore. have been Chiloquin and Klamath Falls visitors this week, having come for the home-stead drawing on Monday. They have been guests of Savage's mother and his sister's families, the George Reeds and Wayne Niehaus.

Plate glass windows on Main street are always in danger. This time it was one of Gieners' dry-goods store windows that somebody leaned through.

Dan Lansay, former student at Chiloquin high school and recently a resident at Sweet Home, Ore., is in Chiloquin working on a crew which is completing the tearing down of the Chiloquin mill.

Newcomers to Chiloquin are Mr. and Mrs. John Cargile from Arizona and more recently Eugene, and their children, Daisy, an eighth grader, and Hillary, a fifth grader. Cargile is working on a fencing job at present.

From Kernville, where Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith moved after selling out of the Crosscut cafe, comes word that the Smiths have a service station, grocery and post office combination and can throw rocks into the Pacific ocean from their porch. Their son Dean is remaining in Chiloquin to complete his senior year in high school but will join them this summer.

Earl Greear and his daughter Margaret Lee of Medford were Chiloquin visitors on Wednesday. Arriving by ones and twos the end of this week for spring vacation from college are Linda Roser.

Jini Wampler, Feo Minato and Bill Pohl from Oregon State, Bonnie Gieners and Bill Zeller from the University of Oregon, Kenneth Luderaman from Ashland.

From Fairbanks, Alaska comes word that Lt. and Mrs. Gale Rice have found an apartment in the same building as Doc Sterritt, former Chiloquin businessman, who went to Alaska from Southern California about a year ago. Lt. Rice is in charge of the PX warehouse and Mrs. Rice is employed in the PX store.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin (Dutch) Kitchen of Roseburg were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rice. Kitchen is now foreman of the Interstate Tractor and Equipment company and his wife is nursing at the Veterans hospital in Roseburg.

Norma Lee Gieners, junior at Northwestern university in Evanston, Ill., will spend her spring vacation with a roommate in Southern Illinois, since time is too limited to come home.

Mrs. Homer Beatty was on the sick list Wednesday and unable to take her place as instructor in the local high school.

Gillis Hannigan and Ann McKell, who represented Chiloquin high school on the KPJI quiz program

Little Daughter's First Gloves
Made of soft white fabric. Sizes 0 to 3.
The finishing touch to her EASTER ENSEMBLE from SPENCER'S
619 Main St. Phone 5497

STEVE WALKER
Distributor
Signal Heating Oils
Downtown office now at 140 East Main St.

Tuesday evening, placed first and second among the six competing. Hannigan scored 475 points, Miss McKell placed 450 and the third place was taken by a Sacred Heart representative, David Vandenberg, with 300 points. Jean McKell made the trip with the contestants to give them moral support. A few Chiloquin residents drove to Algoma lookout before they could tune in

Thru 12 Freezing Winters THE QUINTUPLETS have used this for coughs of CHEST COLDS

The Quintuplets have always relied on Musterole to relieve coughs, sore throat and aching muscles of colds. Musterole instantly starts to bring wonderful, long-lasting relief! It actually helps break up painful surface congestion.

In Strength: Child's Mild Musterole, Regular and Extra Strong for grown-ups. At all drugstores.

the station properly as local reception from Klamath Falls stations is so poor in the evening.

Man can develop a distinct new breed of cattle in about a quarter of a century.

TOAST OF THE COAST
Alt Heidelberg BRAND BEER
Distributed in Klamath Falls by Lost River Dairy

At Drew's
MIGHTY GOOD WORK BOOT! TOO!
Buy HYER Boots for Quality

"it's... all out Elegance for Easter" and not only do things have a "new look" . . . but the colors are changed indeed . . . softer hues and muted tones . . . New, . . . beyond description . . .

"BOXCRASE" a.

"A Spring favorite" Casual, yet dressy in the "new look" colors — Kelly, Brown and Beige.

$59.95

"HOLLYPARK" b.

Sketched from the original . . . Smart mens wear worsted . . . Grey ground with unusual yoke treatment.

$49.95

"TOWN 'N BOUT" c.

A three piece ensemble of distinction . . . gorgeous worsted three-quarter length coat . . . for night or day.

$49.59

For Coat or Suit

"SCAMP" d.

A hat to wear with a proud toss of your head, this fur felt profile derby with the I-know-where-I'm-going air.

12.95

"FANFARE" e.

A bag with the new look . . . casual but dressy, in fine suede.

Grey or "Ballenga" $10.95

Gloves to match.

"THE TOOTSIE" f.

By Carmellette . . . fine suede . . . closed toe and heel. A new color, "ballenciaga" (a rich cocoa shade). Also in grey, AAA to B.

10.95

"HUMMINGBIRD NO. 15" g.

Hosiery made by a master . . . finest nylon . . . 15 denier . . . in the new and lighter Spring colors.

$2.50 pair

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT
We now have both 30 day and Budget Accounts for your convenience . . . So now . . . just say "Charge It" . . .

Leons

525 MAIN STREET
Klamath Falls

American Legion
Regular Meetings
1st and 3rd Tuesdays, 8:00 p. m. Veterans Memorial Bldg. 4th and Klamath.
Club Rooms
221 Main, next to Willard hotel. Open daily noon to midnight, except Sunday 2:00 to 11:00 p. m.
For Legionnaires and Guests

Why wax? Relax
Trans-Plastic Miracle Finish on kitchen linoleum saves countless waxings. You clean floors with damp cloth or mop—and the gleam stays put. Skid-less, long-lasting, so easy to apply.
Also in colors for furniture, woodwork.
Pinks, greys, yellows
(By the makers of PLASTICRO— for cleaning and preserving chrome and shining metal.)
Patterson & Son Paint Store
New Home of Sherwin William Paints
1229 E. Main Phone 3324

Kitchen Cabinets
GENERAL ELECTRIC
Remember, when buying Kitchen Cabinets, General Electric Cabinets never need putty, sanding or painting. They are beautifully finished with everlasting high glass enamel.
CALL US FOR FREE ESTIMATES
SWAN LAKE MOULDING CO.
3226 So. 6th Phone 3169