

Kiwanis To Hear Talk By Hitchcock

Junior chamber of commerce, Monday, 7:30 p. m., chamber of commerce.
 Lions club, Tuesday noon, Willard hotel.
 20-30 club, Tuesday, 7 p. m., Willard hotel.
 Soroptimist club, Thursday noon, Pelican cafe.
 Kiwanis club, Thursday noon, Willard hotel.
 Rotary club, Friday noon, Willard hotel.

Easter will be the theme of the Kiwanis luncheon program with an address by Phil Hitchcock. The program is sponsored by the committee for the support of churches. There will be special Easter music and the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, pastor of the Community Congregational church, will be the chairman of the day.

A proposed recreational program will be directed to the 20-30's by Sam Smith, director of city recreation, at the dinner meeting Tuesday evening.

Lions will hear Angus Gibson, a past district governor of the Lions. He is an Oregon state legislator living at Junction City and chairman of the senate ways and means committee. Chairman for the day will be Ed Robinson.

A film titled "Colonial Life in Williamsburg, Virginia," will be presented to Rotarians by the sergeant-at-arms committee headed by Walt McInyre.

No program has been announced for the Klamath county Soroptimist club for this week's luncheon meeting. Jaynes is holding their business meeting this week, with general subjects to be brought up.

Teachers Go Back To Desks

MINNEAPOLIS, March 22 (AP)—The month-old strike of 22,000 Minneapolis public school teachers was at an end today.

A compromise agreement on wage demands reached last night sent the teachers back to their classrooms today with a pledge of permanent pay boosts ranging from $20 to $40 a month.

The strike, called February 24 by members of the AFT Federation of Teachers, had affected more than 2000 teachers in 92 schools and had idled more than 65,000 children. About 1100 of the teachers were members of the union.

Turn those no-longer-used ar-New Want Ads are inexpensive and ties into cash now! Herald and bring quick results.

New Appliance Store

Shown above is the new Fyock General Electric store which opened in the Evans building at 10th and Main. Charlie Fyock, head of the firm, is shown making change at the left of the picture.

Loretta Young Upsets Forecast With Surprise Win In "Oscar" Awards

HOLLYWOOD, March 22 (AP)—Loretta Young pointed to the Oscar and cried excitedly to newsmen: "To be perfectly honest, I never expected this in my life. . . I thought Rosalind would get it."

Rosalind Russell was sitting in the 39th row at the Academy awards—her fingers stuffed into her ears. Not "saying a prayer," she explained afterward, "but feeling one." When she saw Loretta head for the stage she joined nearly 6000 other spectators in roaring applause.

Miss Young's receipt of the foot-high gold statuette for the best performance by an actress in 1947 was the big upset of the 20th annual ceremonies of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences. She won for her spirited portrayal of a Swedish-accented housemaid who rose to congressman in "The Farmer's Daughter."

Rosalind, her good friend, was the favorite in advance speculations—and by four to one in a trade-paper poll—for her tragic Lavinia in "Mourning Becomes Electra."

Otherwise, the awards went according to forecasts. "Gentleman's Agreement," a dramatic rap at anti-semitism, was designated the best picture of last year.

Gray and suave Ronald Colman, 57, won his first Oscar in 25 years of stardom in more than 50 pictures as the murderous stage actor in "A Double Life."

Stocky Edmund Gwenn, 70, got an "Oscar" for his performance as Kris Kringle in "Miracle on 34th Street." The Oscar is the first for Gwenn, like Colman a native of England. Celeste Holm was honored for her acting as a sophisticated fashion editor in "Gentleman's Agreement." New York City-born, she's 28 and starred in the Broadway stage shows "Oklahoma" and "Blossoms Girl" before coming to Hollywood a year and a half ago. "G. A." was only her third movie.

Malin

A Kalina spent the past week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Freitag have purchased the Mack Johnson farm and expect to move to the ranch in the near future.

Malin firemen enjoyed a chicken dinner last Monday night at the Farmers club.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Street and young son Robert of Corvallis are spending spring vacation in Malin.

Mrs. Charles Hamilton has been ill for the past week.

W. C. Dalton arrived home last week after an extended trip in the Eastern and Southern states. Dalton visited for some time with his daughter and family in Washington, D. C., Capt. and Mrs. Robert Byrnes and new daughter, Elizabeth Louise. Mrs. Dalton remained in Washington and will return home later.

Malin schools will close for Easter vacation March 25, and will reconvene March 30.

Three Malin 4-H members left last week for San Francisco to enter their livestock in the Grand National Junior Livestock exposition at the Cow Palace March 20 to 25.

They are Elliott West, Kathleen Wilson and Patti Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beardley and children returned to Malin last Friday after spending the past five months in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Elva Smalley's second grade had a program for the parents last Tuesday afternoon. Some of the children presented a play, "Mr. and Mrs. Vinegar," some demonstrated finger painting, while others gave science reports. The program closed with several songs by the children. There was a good attendance of parents.

Four Die In Blazing Apartment

PORT HURON, March 22 (AP)—Three-year-old George Meldrum alone survived a fire which swept a makeshift second floor apartment home Sunday, taking the lives of his parents and two small sisters.

A stove explosion started the blaze. It was made fiercer, police and firemen said, when the father accidentally kicked over an oil can in desperate rescue attempts.

Burned fatally were Charles H. Meldrum, 37; his wife Eliza, 34; and two daughters, Mary Elen, 2, and Shirley, 4.

High School

News and Comment
 By MARY LOU CASE

Don Zarosinski presented the fifth place trophy received Saturday night at the tournament to the student body at an assembly called this morning. As Don told the crowd in McArthur court when he was handed the trophy Saturday, "We were aiming for something better, but didn't get it, and thank you."

Coach Wayne Scott passed out the varsity letters to the basketball boys at the assembly. The band furnished music for the backing, the yell squad led several yells for the team. Maudie Thompson, chairman of the assembly committee, handed the proceedings.

Mrs. Genevieve Allen announced her cast for the senior play, "Comedy of Errors," today. Informal try-outs were being held all last week before school, at noon, during activity period, and after school. Over 75 seniors turned out to try for some part, or offer assistance in the stage work.

The play centers around the confusion of two sets of twins who are separated at birth and finally meet. It is strictly a farce, and one of Shakespeare's first comedies. Leroy Overen has been cast in the part of the Duke, Salimus; and the father, Aegeon, will be played by Rex Mills. One set of twins will consist of Harry Clauson and Len Heston. Jim Crismon will fill the role of one of the two servant twins.

Other parts, the friend, Baltazar, and Angelo, the gold merchant, will be played by Bill Southwell and Stuart Oliver. Bill Mosby and Gilbert Joyce will portray the two merchants; Finch, the schoolmaster, will be double cast with Roy Larson and Bill Carter.

The comedy contains five feminine parts. The wife, the principal feminine portrayal, is Donna Rae Worden; the sister Luciana will be double cast with Mary Lou Case and Lou Ann Chase. Katherine Wilson will fill the part of the Abbess, Nadine Yockey, the courtesan, and Doris Kithridge, the cook.

Stuart Oliver is in charge of the stage productions.

Students returned to KU today to begin the ninth week of this term. A four-day spring vacation will start Friday and last through Monday. Report cards will be issued and carried out to the teachers Wednesday following.

Teacher Standard Ruling Handed Out

SALEM, March 22 (AP)—School districts which hire uncertified teachers or which do not meet state standards may be denied state assistance under the basic school support law, Attorney General George Neuner ruled today for Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction.

Neuner also ruled that Putnam should continue to deny districts any funds for children attending private or parochial schools.

Kerbow Wins Speech Meet

John Kerbow, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kerbow, 625 N. 11th, and a junior at KUHS, took first place in the oratorical contest on the United States Constitution held at Ashland Saturday.

Young Kerbow was the only contestant from the basin to enter the contest, sponsored by the American Legion, and competed with students from high schools of eight Southern Oregon counties.

His speech was entitled, "Civil Rights and the Constitution." He will give the same speech Saturday when he goes to Portland for the state finals of the contest.

John drew most of his material from extensive study of the Constitution itself, and from research in various news periodicals. Gerald Bevans, speech instructor at KUHS, was John's coach and adviser.

Classified Ads Bring Real Results

Nunn-Bush Shoes
 Spring Shipments
 Colored
ARROW
 AND MANHATTAN SHIRTS
 have arrived! Choice of many patterns and collar styles.
$3.50 to $5.00
 Since 1918
Drew's
 MANSTORE
 722 Main
 FASHION PARK

Going to Chicago?
COACH PULLMAN
 DAILY Streamliner
 "CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO"
 217 Forum Bldg., Sacramento 14, Calif.
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
King of the Daily Streamliners

La Pointe's

Buy yourself a snatch of Spring!

WEPT BY MANDERBAIN
 As seen in GOOD
 HOUSEKEEPING,
 March

Here's the perfect suit for spring—done in smart navy wool and spanking-white pique. You'll love the boxy jacket . . . so new and sophisticated with its double row of buttons and graceful cut-away closing. And for absolute fashion-rightness and long, long wear there's the fine Pacific fabric. It's 100% virgin wool worsted gabardine with a lustrous sheen that enhances the beauty of any garment. Come in and see this stunning suit today!

$69.95

La Pointe's

Enhance

By Lilly of France

So revolutionary it will completely change the future of corseting.

ENHANCE

by Lilly of France

Waist Measure 25 to 30
 $13.50
 Also Longer, 26 to 32, $15

unequaled!

UNCONQUERED

CECIL B. DE MILLE'S masterpiece, a Technicolor spectacle unsurpassed, starring Gary Cooper and Paulette Goddard as the "UNCONQUERED"

THURSDAY
PELICAN
 PHONE 4372