WHEAT SHOWS SLIGHT GAINS

CHICAGO, March 23 (AP)—Sustained buying was lacking in the grain pits at the board of trade today. There was some early buying credited to commercial interests, but during the greater part of the session small lot selling held all rallies to small advances.

Traders said there are indications that the commodity credit corporation has completed its April allocation of 8,600,000 bushels of wheat.

Corn and oats followed the action of wheat.

At the close wheat was ¼ to 1⅜ higher than the previous close, May $2.36-$2.36½, corn was ¼ to 1½ higher, May $2.16¼-½, oats were ⅝ higher to ⅜ lower, May $1.10⅝-⅜. Soybeans were unchanged to 1 cent higher, May $3.45.

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close
May	2.34½-2.34	2.36½	2.33½	2.36-2.36½
July	2.24¼	2.25	2.22	2.24¾-2.25
Sept.	2.21¾-2.22¼	2.22¾	2.20	2.22⅜-½
Dec.	2.22⅛	2.22½	2.19⅞	2.22-2.22¼

Volume Drops On Market

NEW YORK, March 23 (AP)—Selective recovery tendencies persisted in today's stock market although volume dwindled and many leaders faltered.

Dealings, slow in the forenoon when trends were a shade lower, picked up a bit after midday as prices stiffened for assorted coppers, steels, oils, rails and industrials. While small minus signs were plentiful near the close, gains of fractions to a point or so predominated.

Transfers were in the vicinity of 1,000,000 shares compared with Monday's 2,040,000.

Ahead most of the time were Kennecott (at the year's best level), Anaconda, Phelps Dodge, U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, Denver Rio Grande Western (at a 1948 peak), Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Montgomery Ward, Schenley, International Telephone, Westinghouse Electric, Owens-Illinois, U. S. Gypsum, Warren Petroleum (at the year's high), Pacific Western Oil and Standard Oil (N. J.).

The majority of motors, aviations and amusements followed a slim trail.

The market was forced to absorb some further profit cashing by those who felt the recent bulge had been a bit too soft.

A batch of pleasing earnings statements was helpful.

WHY WE SAY

By Lloyd J. Stevens

This phrase referred to circumstances once prevalent in London because of robbers. Scotland Yard termed them "trippers-up" because they tripped people by the leg (pulled their legs). This caused the victims to fall and lie on the ground. Being inert, they were robbed by the footpads. 3/3

Theft Charge Filed Today

Ivan Alfred Wilcher, 29, arrested last Friday on a chicken-stealing complaint, is named in a felony warrant charging him with larceny of some $82 worth of carpentry tools and equipment. The latter complaint is held by Justice of the Peace J. A. Mahoney and Wilcher had not been arraigned today.

The man is in the county jail, along with Ernest Arnold Swartzfager of Sprague River, on a charge of larceny of livestock. Both are accused of stealing 20 chickens from Joe Willis, 1221 Crescent, last January.

Police found a considerable amount of carpentry tools in Wilcher's residence, 2853 Front, and identified the tools as belonging to David May, building contractor. The tools allegedly were stolen from the site of a house May was building last October.

Wilcher specifically is accused of stealing a saw, hammer, square, level, tri-square, brace and bit, extension cord, two inside doors, a chisel, a screen door and a length of baseboard.

Driver Gets Jail Term

Leonard Stoneburg, 25, of route 3, is spending two days in the city jail after pleading guilty in city court this morning to a charge of reckless driving. He was fined $50 and 28 days of a 30-day jail sentence was suspended.

Stoneburg was arrested early last night on S. 6th near Washburn way when his car struck the "island" in the center of the four-lane highway, breaking off a light standard.

Witnesses told police he was driving toward town on S. 6th when his car hit the concrete roadway partition, blowing out two tires. When officers arrived Stoneburg's car was straddling the end of the "island" and he was busy jacking up a back wheel to change a tire.

Rescue Try At Home Falls Flat

PORTLAND, March 23 (AP)—Three young men broke into the girls juvenile detention home here last night but failed to free a girl from the home when she refused to accompany them.

School Supervisor Lois Peterson reported a gun was fired when she blocked the door to the hooded trio. The three, who Miss Peterson said spoke like 'teen agers, locked the door inside and ran to a second floor dormitory, routing the girls out of bed.

The supervisor said the girl refused to leave with them when they finally located her among the others. When someone mentioned calling the police, Miss Peterson said, the three left hurriedly.

Hit-Run Car Injures Girl

Melba Ross, 14, of 844 Eldorado, was slightly injured late yesterday afternoon when she was struck by a hit-and-run car at 11th and Main.

The girl told police that she was crossing 11th and an unidentified car stopped while she was in the crosswalk. When she neared the curb the automobile started ahead again, turning off Main onto N. 11th.

She was struck and knocked to the pavement. The driver of the car did not stop and is wanted by police on a hit-and-run charge.
