

Vows Exchanged In Portland Church

Friends here have received word of the wedding of Theo Lucile Cole, formerly of Klamath Falls, and B. K. Anderson of Portland. Vows were exchanged February 14 at the Assembly of God tabernacle in Camas. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elsie Neel of Camas, and the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Portland.

Mrs. Doris English of Washington sang "Always" preceding the ceremony, and Philip J. Kube sang "Because." They were accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Woodbridge, who played the traditional wedding marches.

Rev. O. K. Kingsheim read the double ring service at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. About 75 friends and relatives were invited.

The bride was given in marriage by Sam Clough, a close family friend. She was attired in a dress-maker suit of blue gabardine with a matching hat. Pinned at her lapel were two lavender orchids.

Attending her was Mrs. Geraldine Hill, who wore a dark brown tailored suit with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink bouvardia.

Best man was John Maul of Portland, and ushers were Bert Wright of Portland and Jack Neel, brother of the bride. They also lighted candles before the ceremony.

A reception was held after the service in the Nora Self hall, which was decorated in the red and white of Valentine's Day. Potted red tulips and lighted red tapers in crystal holders were arranged on the bride's table.

Mrs. Sam Clough served, and Mrs. Sam Jue presided at the silver coffee service. Mrs. Patricia Munson of Portland served the ices. Assisting were Mrs. William West, Mrs. Karl Hagen, Mrs. James Gittings and Mrs. Keith Dedmore. Mrs. Geraldine Hill was in charge of the guest book.

Following their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are at home at 521 S. W. Sheridan, Portland.

Mrs. Anderson served as a SPAR for three years during the war and was stationed in Palm Beach, Fla., and New York City. After her discharge she accepted a position in the government agriculture office in Klamath Falls.

Claud Vorce of Klamath Falls, grandfather of the bride, was among out-of-town guests.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

March Session

The March meeting of Friendship court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, was held in the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, March 17. Mary Ellen Gaster presided as royal matron. Rooms were decorated with several baskets of flowers in a St. Patrick's motif.

Highlighting the meeting were reports from officers who attended the grand court in Portland the preceding week and witnessed installation of one of their own members, Mrs. Bernice Finch, as grand royal matron for the state of Oregon. Mrs. Finch was presented and introduced along with Jack Schulze, who was elected grand commissioner to the grand court.

Refreshments were served after the meeting with Mrs. Patricia Henry, Mrs. Alice Daily and Mrs. Elola Smith, hostesses. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Frances Reeves, Mrs. Edna Jones and Mrs. L. A. Baker.

Surprise Party

LANGELL VALLEY—Dick Smith was given a surprise party at his home March 13 in honor of his birthday anniversary.

The party was given by the young people's organization of the Full Gospel church. Following an evening of games, refreshments were served to 25 guests.

St. Patrick's Day Is Program Theme

TULELAKE—Mrs. W. J. Shepherd, program chairman for the meeting of the Guild of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church, remembered St. Patrick and the numbers presented by the entertainers carried out the theme of the "Wearin' o' the Green."

Vocal numbers were presented by the mother's chorus under the direction of Mrs. Don Webster with Mrs. Lynn Keller at the piano; the boys' glee club of the high school sang under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Converse; Laurie Brookler played Irish ballads on an accordion; Ann Reed and Alice Stonecypher gave a clever skit from the Gay Nineties presented recently at the high school; Sally Thomas played several piano numbers and Janice Taylor sang with Sally at the piano.

YOUNG daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rush of 2478 Oregon avenue, is little Donna Ray, who is eight months old.
