

Chapel Choir Plans Songs For Easter

Easter Day services at the Community Congregational church will be conducted at 9:30 and 11 a. m. The earlier service is especially intended for children of the church school, their parents and guardians, and for those who find it difficult to attend later.

In the first service members of the chapel choir and the children's choir will sing the liturgy and lead the congregational singing under direction of Marie Casjens. At the 11 o'clock service both the chapel and choir will sing the solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," (Knapp). Rev. Geoffrey Matthews will preach a sermon in both services entitled "He Was Crucified, Dead and Buried, and on the Third Day He Arose..."

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered to infants in the 11 o'clock service.

A most cordial invitation is given to strangers and visitors in Klamath Falls to attend the services. The church is located on Garden near Martin.

The Pilgrim fellowship meets on Wednesday nights immediately following church practice. Mary Stone, president, extends a cordial invitation to high school age young people unconnected with other churches to attend.

'Reality' Is Lesson-Sermon

"Reality" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington streets, Easter Sunday.

Golden text will be "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the Heaven and in the Earth is Thine; and thou is the kingdom, O Lord; and thou art exalted as head above all" (1 Chron. 29:11).

Sunday school is held at 11 a. m. downstairs in the church, and the regular morning worship service is held at the same hour in the main church auditorium.

A weekly meeting is held at 8 p. m. Wednesdays.

Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon will be the following from the Bible: "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, Rejoice" (Phil. 4:4), together with the correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We must look deep into realism instead of accepting only the outward sense of things."

Presbyterians To Hold Two Rites Sunday

Two morning services will be held at the First Presbyterian church Easter Sunday. The two will be identical in content, the early worship hour beginning at 9 a. m. and the other at the usual time, 11 a. m.

The ministry of music will include three anthems by the choir: "Surely He Has Born Our Griefs" by Antonio Lotii, "Jesus, Our Lord, We Adore Thee" by Will James, and "Alleluia!" by Beauty" by Carl Mueller. The choir is directed by Andrew Loney Jr., and accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre. Mrs. Marvin Nerseth, soprano soloist, will sing, "Agnus Dei" by Bizet.

The organ prelude by Mrs. McIntyre will be "Easter Morning," by Harvey Gaul and the offertory, "Contemplation" from "The Holy City" by A. R. Gaul.

Rev. David Barnett Jr., has chosen as his sermon theme, "God Is Not Through, Are We?"

On Friday, April 2, the public is cordially invited to hear the cappella choir of Whitworth college who will sing in the church at 8 p. m. This choir of 52 voices is led by Professor Wilbur Anders, who

Pastor Fields Plates Services

"The Good News of the Resurrection" will be the sermon title for Easter Sunday morning at the Bible Baptist church, according to the pastor, Keith P. Fields.

Sunday school children will receive a short program at the Sunday school hour.

At the evening hour the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sara Fields, will present the Easter story in song. A baptismal service will precede the evening program.

The public is cordially invited.

CHURCH NEWS First Methodist Slates Duplicate Easter Services

First Methodist church, N. 10th and High, will feature two duplicate Easter services on Sunday morning. The first service will be at 9:30, the second at 11 o'clock. At both services the choir will sing special Easter music, under the direction of Mrs. Robert P. Craig. Mrs. Patricia Hunt is organist. The Rev. Victor Phillips, minister, will preach on the subject, "The Transforming Fact of Easter." The formal Easter offering will be devoted to the world service program of the church which includes missions at home and abroad, special relief for the destitute in foreign lands, Methodist hospitals and colleges both in the United States and foreign countries, work among the negroes and other activities of the Methodist church.

The following musical numbers will be included in the services for Sunday morning:

Organ Prelude—"Festival Overture" by Moussorgsky.

"Trio—"Lamb of God," by Bizet. Catherine Blama, Wilber Elliott, Gerald Pales.

Prayer Meditation by the choir—"Adoramus Christe," by Dubois.

Anthem by the choir—"As It Began to Dawn," by Vincent.

Anthem by the choir—"Hallelujah-Hallelujah," by Lecandroski.

Organ Postlude by Mrs. Patricia Hunt—"Hallelujah Chorus."

Church Sunday school for the beginners and primaries will be held at 9:30 a. m. in the lower auditorium. The other departments will attend one of the morning services. The members of Calvary Commandary Knights Templar will attend the 11 o'clock service in a body. The Methodist Youth fellowship will meet at 6:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to worship at First Methodist on Easter Sunday.

Vocal Solos Highlight Of First Christian Services

"Rise, Glorious Conqueror, Rise," by Keyser, is the anthem to be sung by the choir of the First Christian church for Easter Sunday. Two vocal solos, "They Have Taken Away My Lord," by Mrs. Wesley McNea, and "Hope Crushed to Earth," by Jean Stephens, will also be heard at the morning worship, which begins at 10:50 promptly.

Prayer message, "Resurrection Guarantees," will be given by the pastor, Rev. Howard P. Hutchins. The Lord's Supper will be observed at 11.

The evening worship will feature a number of musical selections. The choir will sing two anthems.

Klamath Temple To Hear Rynning

New Building To Be Used For Easter

Zion Lutheran church announces that Easter services will be held in the new building for the first time. Although construction work on the new building is not completed, work on the building has advanced sufficiently so that the building can be occupied.

Work on the finishing and furnishing of the building will continue, with plans being laid for a formal dedication of the new building and of the pipe organ, recently installed by M. P. Moeller, Inc. of Rugertown, Md., to be held at a later date. In the meantime, services will continue to be held in the new building. A cordial invitation is extended to Zion congregation to attend these services and share its program of worship and work.

"The Triumphant Joy of Easter" will be the sermon topic of Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, 11th and High streets, in the Easter worship services. Two services will be held on Easter morning, the earlier beginning at 9:45 and the latter at 11 o'clock.

The Zion choir will sing for both services, presenting an Easter anthem from the 14th century, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today." The Sunday school and Bible class will not meet on Easter Sunday. All members of these groups are invited to attend the special Easter services.

Sunday School, Church Merge

The Sunday school hour and worship service will be combined in Easter Sunday at the First Covenant church, 823 Walnut avenue.

The services will begin at 10:15 a. m. and close at 11:45 a. m.

The Sunday school will present its program to open the service. The Easter story will be presented in song, readings, and flannelgraph display.

At the close of this portion the primary children will be taken to the ladies auditorium for activities while the worship service continues. The ladies' chorus will sing "He Arose" and Pastor Selmer Jacobson will speak on "Idle Tales or Important News." The Easter offering will be taken for Covenant foreign missions. All the city are invited to attend and enjoy this service on Easter morning.

and the pastor, Rev. Daniel B. Anderson will give the Easter message at the regular worship hour, 11 o'clock.

Evangelist To Wind Up Series

Sunday evening's service at 8 o'clock will conclude the two-week evangelistic meeting conducted by Evangelist Kenneth Morgan of Oakland, Calif., for the Church of Christ, 1774 Arthur.

The services have been conducted nightly. The sermon subject for the concluding service will be "Where Are the Nine?"

The Lord's Day morning service of the Church of Christ is as follows: at 10 a. m. Bible classes for various age groups are provided; at 11 o'clock there will be a sermon, which is followed by the communion service at 11:45.
