

MIDLAND AND EMPIRE NEWS

Chiloquin

The senior high school students from Chiloquin who took part in the county speech festival on Thursday at Henry high school accumulated a total of 23 points, which placed them third in competition. Three points were given for excellent, two for superior and one for third ranking. Local students scored as follows: Ann McKell, 3 in story telling, 2 in humorous; Gillis Hamdigan, 3 in radio speaking; Virginia Shoresy and Joan Lookey, 3 each for poetry reading; Wilfred Lookey, 2 in humorous; Jack McKell, 2 in radio speaking; Jack McKell, 1 in special radio; Joe Ball, 1 in after-dinner speaking; Bill Wampler and Jack Jones, the affirmative team in debate, placed 2 points, and the negative, represented by Wilfred Lookey and Joe Ball, made 1.

Merrill

Mrs. James Bradshaw entertained the Friends members at her home March 12. Members present were Mrs. Homer Fields, Mrs. John McKell, Mrs. J. W. Heeder, Mrs. Ivan Icenbue and Mrs. Russell Allen. A banderchief shower was held for Mrs. George Michaels, who has moved to Prineville.

Women of the Moose sponsored a card party Saturday, March 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huddle. Seven tables of pinocle were in play with Jack Ratliff Sr. winning high for men; J. W. Reeder, men's low; Louisa Icenbue, high for women; and Doris Winebarger, low. Joe Slezak received traveling award. A potluck supper was enjoyed at midnight.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. James Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ratliff, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and Mrs. and Mrs. Hilary Winebarger, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huddle, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Icenbue, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reeder and Mrs. Milo Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Meter, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slezak, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Geaney, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Nine, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, Mrs. Charles Edwards and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huddle. The next card party will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Henley on April 3.

Last Friday's festival for junior high students found Chiloquin in fourth place among eight schools competing, the local group having 17 points, earned as follows: Ken Miller, 3 in oratory and 2 in radio speaking; Duane Nelson, 2 in radio speaking; In announcing; JoAnne Risemore, 2 in humorous and 1 in story telling; Robert Oates, 2 in humorous; Glenn Hescok, 1 in story telling; Claudette Parazoo, 1 for poetry reading and 1 for choral reading.

Annabelle Summers is in a Klamath Falls hospital suffering from a broken shoulder received in a car accident last week.

Vernon Norval and his son, Bill, took in the finals of the state "A" basketball tournament in Eugene last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Nash are in Portland this week on business.

The heaviest snow storm of the year on Tuesday gave Chiloquin school students an unanticipated vacation. Classes resumed Saturday morning but were dismissed again Thursday afternoon for an Easter vacation which will end next Tuesday morning.

Concert ticket-holders were in Klamath Falls Wednesday night to hear the duo-plianists, Appleton and Field, in the last concert of the season.

"The Little Red School House," a one-act play, is being given soon by the eighth grade in a program put on by the drama club of CHS. Parts are being cast as follows: Teacher Mary Bronson, Jacquelyn Shoresy; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Worden Eggman and Joanne Keyser; twins, Ray Kelly and Claudette Parazoo; toughie, sleepy and tubby students by Robert Jackson, Bonnie Hatfield and Bobbie David; Mayberry Fluter, Johnny Unive; Marigold Talbot, Betty Baldwin; Elsa Schmidt, Mary Jo Graves; Tessie, Dorothy Kennington, and two parts yet to be cast.

Mrs. Bertina Herington of Seattle, Wash. has spent this week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Quince Buell and Pat. She will visit for several days in Klamath Falls with a son before returning to Washington.

Mrs. Quince Buell was in a car accident last week on the icy corner leading south out of town. She suffered shock and bruises but no serious injury.

The Eastern Star held a class instruction meeting at the Masonic hall on Wednesday night at which Mrs. Ilma Thum of Cottage Grove, associate grand matron of the state, was in charge. A potluck dinner preceded the meeting. Several guests from Klamath Falls were present.

Mrs. Lawrence Meyer was feted at a surprise birthday party given at the Myers home near Williamson River Thursday evening. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bartell, Rev. and Mrs. Harley Zeller, Bill Zeller and Rev. James Zeller.

The Chiloquin unit of the home extension service will meet Thursday, April 1, from 10 until 2 at the home of Mrs. Earl Hall for a demonstration of foreign foods given by the hostess and Mrs. Cyril Cook.

Mac For Prexy Delegates Meet

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 27 (AP)—MacArthur for president delegates from 20 states met here today to form an active national group to promote the general's candidacy.

The group hopes to unite the MacArthur movement throughout the country and start at least 1000 MacArthur clubs before the republican national convention, said Lansing A. Hoyt, national chairman of the MacArthur clubs.

SAIGON

See the KUHS Student Body Play "The Black Flamingo" A 3-Act play of French Revolutionary Days presented by the School Drama Dept.

Placed left in right, on the balcony, Joe Demetras as the priest; Bob Plass, Francois de Lussac; On the stairs, Darlene Knowles, Charlotte Rex Mills, Popo, Doris; Elaine Erikson, Claudia, Barbara Davis, Madeline Hodler, Jim Lindner, Trilbe Radner, Cy Newman, Eugene de Lussac, Leroy Overen, Trilaud; Berthea Cogdill, Diana; Bob Mahoney, Bourne.

Thursday, April 1
KUHS Auditorium—8:00 p.m.
Admission — Adults 75c, Students 40c

Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. Lawson and son have gone to Arkansas to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewer. They will stay in Arkansas until they can join Lawson, who has re-enlisted in the army and is not settled yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Garey returned home March 11 after spending a week in Oakland on business. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obenchain were business visitors in Klamath Falls Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellingson of Ivory Pine have had as their guest Walter's mother, Mrs. C. P. Ellingson of Northhome, Minn. Mrs. Ellingson left Sunday after a month's visit here to visit in California before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carlisle and son, Alan, of Westwood, Calif., spent the week-end here visiting Mrs. Carlisle's mother, Mrs. O. G. Protzman.

W. C. Murr of DeLake has rented the Gearhart garage from Rudy Ashbaugh and plans to open for business at once. Murr's family will join him here as soon as school is out at DeLake.

Mrs. C. D. Garrett and son, Mike, returned home Thursday after spending the last two weeks in Medford with Mrs. Garrett's daughter, Mrs. Russ Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Ashbaugh and daughter, Gwen, of Myrtle Creek, visited here Sunday. Gwen is on spring vacation from school at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton of the Home Grocery store returned home Sunday after a week's vacation. Some of the time the Hamiltons spent on the coast and also visited relatives in Phoenix, Ore.

GOP's To Fill Philly To Brim
PHILADELPHIA, March 29 (AP)—Delegates to the republican national convention opening June 21, will take over virtually every first class hotel room in the city.

J. Kenneth Bradley of Connecticut, who is in charge of convention housing facilities, said yesterday the delegates will be housed in some 25 Philadelphia hotels. Visitors will be assigned to smaller hotels, private homes and nearby communities.

Approximately 8,000 GOP officials and delegates are expected to the conclave.

The assignment by states includes: Oregon: Penn - Sheraton, Normandie, Drake; Washington: Penn - Sheraton, Warburton, Ritz-Carlton; Alaska: Essex, Whittier.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carlisle and son, Alan, of Westwood, Calif., spent the week-end here visiting Mrs. Carlisle's mother, Mrs. O. G. Protzman.

W. C. Murr of DeLake has rented the Gearhart garage from Rudy Ashbaugh and plans to open for business at once. Murr's family will join him here as soon as school is out at DeLake.

Mrs. C. D. Garrett and son, Mike, returned home Thursday after spending the last two weeks in Medford with Mrs. Garrett's daughter, Mrs. Russ Smith and family.

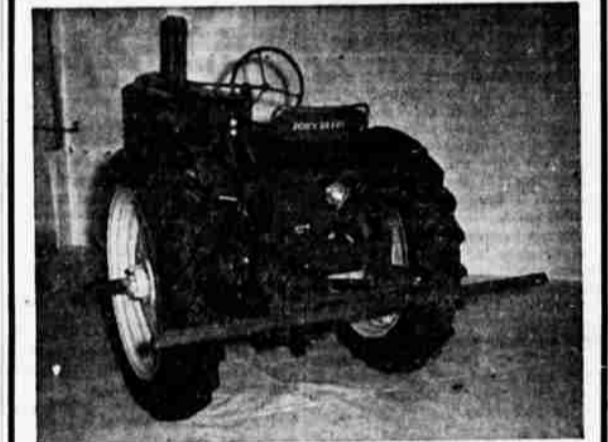

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Ashbaugh and daughter, Gwen, of Myrtle Creek, visited here Sunday. Gwen is on spring vacation from school at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton of the Home Grocery store returned home Sunday after a week's vacation. Some of the time the Hamiltons spent on the coast and also visited relatives in Phoenix, Ore.

POOLE'S
for
Fishing Tackle
222 So. 7th
Phone 5149

OIL
Prompt Delivery
Convenient Credit
Courteous Service
Phone 5149
PEYTON & CO.
Since 1911

Farmers!
Here are the latest developments in
INTEGRAL TOOL CARRIERS
Economical - Simple
Easy to detach

Integral tool carrier with single adjustable tool bar. Takes only 3 to 5 minutes to remove.

Corrugator attachments for single tool bar.

Plow attachment for single tool bar. 1-2-3 bottoms available.

This tool carrier is used successfully in many farming operations such as corrugating, plowing, cultivating, discing and transplanting. Available soon . . . see us for complete details.

Brown Equipment Co.
"Your John Deere Dealer"
3049 So. 6th St. Phone 8247

BLONDIE
By Chic Young

Red Ryder

Alley Oop

Boots and Her Buddies

Wash Tubbs

Freckles and His Friends

Little Orphan Annie

PENNEY'S "SPECIAL FEATURE"
LUGGAGE-LUGGAGE-LUGGAGE
NOW! . . . WHEN YOU NEED IT — MATCHING 3-PIECE SETS

21" WEEKEND CASE	9 ⁹⁰	plus tax
27" PULLMAN CASE	13 ⁷⁵	plus tax
25" WARDROBE CASE	16 ⁷⁵	plus tax

Ideal for any trip you are planning. Top grain leather bindings, lustrous rayon linings, brass plated steel locks, standard pocket arrangements. Specially treated cover—easy to clean. Tweed color with 2 contrasting stripes. Wardrobe case has hangers and extra pockets. Be smart—save NOW—at Penney's. MAIN FLOOR
AVAILABLE TUESDAY MORNING 9:30 A. M.