

Teen-Agers Picked Up

A half dozen teen-agers ran afoul of the law and state police were called to the Stewart-Lenox district this week to investigate the theft of a jeep.

Slayer Suspect Surrenders

MOUNTAIN GROVE, Mo., March 31 (AP)—A 48-year-old farmer, sought for questioning in the slaying of his estranged wife and a circuit court judge, surrendered today after spending the night at a neighbor's home.

State and county officers had sought the farmer, Ernest Alton Scott, for 36 hours after Circuit Judge Charles H. Jackson, 54, and Mrs. Scott, the mother of 10 children, were killed in shootings 45 minutes apart Monday afternoon.

Scott surrendered to Highway Patrol Sgt. E. E. Barkley, who said a first degree murder charge had been drawn against the farmer by Wright County Prosecutor Frank Collier in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Scott.

Asked by newspapermen in the presence of Barkley why he had shot Jackson, Scott was quoted as replying: "Oh, I don't know. I thought he'd broke up my home."
