

Dakota Couple Is Wed In Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN—In an attractive service on Sunday evening, March 21, a young North Dakota couple were married by a friend of the groom, Rev. James Zeller, of the Methodist church in Chiloquin. Dorothy Aden became the bride of Leonard Bartell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bartell, all of Edmore, N. D.

The single ring ceremony was read before a daffodil-banked altar with a background of multi-colored stock and ferns and lighted by tall tapers in candelabra.

The bride wore a gown of marquisette and lace with long pointed sleeves, shirred bodice, seed pearl trim, and a full skirt ending in a formal train. The sheer veil made with a long train was caught by a princess crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Harley Zeller, matron of honor, wore a floor length aqua gown and her corsage was of sweet peas.

Bill Zeller, brother of the officiating minister, was best man. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. G. D. McKell.

Rev. and Mrs. Harley Zeller entertained for the new Mr. and Mrs. Bartell, who had driven from North Dakota to be married by Rev. James Zeller, at a chicken dinner following the service. They were entertained later in the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Myers.

Bartell served in the navy and has since attended an electrical engineering school in Chicago. The bride is a graduate of Asokos Business college in Grand Forks, N. D.

Lei Proves To Be Good Eating, Too HONOLULU, March 31 (AP)—Young Amama Matilda arrived by air from Australia yesterday and shocked old residents by eating the lei they gave her.

Amama, an eight months old Wallaby kangaroo, is en route to Toronto to become the mate of Bluey. Bluey is a kangaroo too.

After Amama's 3500 mile flight from Sydney, Aric Wilson, formerly of Saskatoon, Sask., draped a lei of carrots about her neck. It was a gift, he said, on behalf of the Toronto Press club.

Members of the Honolulu Press club attended the reception and christened the kangaroo Leilani.
