

CHURCH NEWS

A Cappella Choir Slated Here Sunday

An outstanding musical group, the Whitworth college a cappella choir, will be presented in a concert at the First Presbyterian church tonight, Friday, at 8 o'clock. A free will offering will be taken. The public is cordially invited.

For the regular 11 a. m. Sunday worship, Mrs. George McIntyre will play the organ prelude, "Chloris Prelude," and then offer, "My Heart Is Filled With Longing." The choir, directed by Andrew Loney Jr., will sing the anthem, "Holy Art Thou," by Handel.

Rev. David P. Barnett's sermon topic is "The Christian Worship." Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. Brooks Custer is superintendent.

Baptism To Be Held

Peace Memorial Presbyterian church, 4431 S. 6th, will observe communion of the Lord's Supper at the regular 11 o'clock morning worship this Sunday.

Baptismal service and reception of members will take place. Special organ numbers will be given by Mrs. Hugh Mitchell, and the vocal solo, "Calvary" by Rodney, will be presented by Rae Casaday.

The nursery will have a place for little children during the service.

All are invited to attend regular Sunday school classes at 9:45 a. m. At the special Easter Sunday school program last week, 300 were present.

Rev. Davey To Visit

Rev. John Davey, on furlough from the mission field of Dominica, British West Indies, will be the guest speaker at the 10 a. m. Sunday school hour, and the 11 a. m. worship service at the First Covenant church, 823 Walnut, on Sunday, April 4.

Missionary Davey is director of the Dominion field and works under the auspices of the World Wide Evangelization Crusade, a mission society organized by the renowned C. T. Studd. The evening fellowship hour is at 7:45. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

The Resurrection To Be Theme

The theme for the worship service at the Bible Baptist church Sunday morning will be "The Resurrection Life" according to Pastor Keith P. Fields.

An object lesson for the children will be given during the service. This too, will be in keeping with the theme, "The Resurrection Life." New members will be received at the close of the worship service and Communion will be observed.

Bible Baptists To Have Guest

Rev. John Davey, field director for the Worldwide Evangelization Crusade in Dominica, British West Indies, will be the guest of the Bible Baptist church for the evening service on Sunday.

Rev. Davey will speak to the Youth Fellowship groups at 6:30 p. m., and will show colored slides of the mission work in Dominica at the evening service, 7:30.

The public is cordially invited.

Promo In Charge Of Services

At 11 a. m. Sunday, the hour of the regular worship, there will be a service with Roy Promo, lay reader, in charge at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

There will be no service of Holy Communion at 8 a. m. this Sunday. Church school will meet as usual at 9:45 a. m. with classes for children of all ages.

'Unreality' Sermon Topic

"Unreality" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist and at the Klamath Falls Christian Science church, 10th and Washington this Sunday.

The Golden Text will be "Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity, for vanity shall be his recompense." (Job 15: 31).

Sunday school is held at 11 a. m. downstairs in the church with the morning worship service at the same hour in the main auditorium. Weekly meetings are held at 8 p. m. Wednesdays, and a reading room is maintained at 1023 Main every day except Sundays and holidays.

Among citations commemorating the lesson-sermon will be "Have ye heard that have the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God." (Psa 146: 5). From the "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Christian Science text-book by Mary Baker Eddy, is "No material sense, the unreal is the real until this sense is corrected by Christian Science."

Matthews To Open Series

At the Congregational church, Sunday morning at 11, Rev. Godfrey Matthews, minister, will preach on "Too Good to Be True," being the first in a series of sermons on "The Living Christ." The augmented choir will sing the liturgy and lead the congregational singing under the direction of Marie Jensen.

At 7:30 in the evening one of the outstanding Christian missionaries to India, Lloyd Lorbeer, will address the congregation. Lorbeer is in the service of the American Board, the oldest Protestant missionary society in the United States, and is at present in this country on Sabbatical leave. He will return to his field of labor in October. A most cordial invitation is given to the general public and it is hoped that many will attend.

Schulze To Speak Sunday

"Holding the Easter Vision" will be the topic of Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, 11th and High streets, in the regular morning worship service beginning at 11 o'clock. "Beautiful Savior" will be the anthem presented by the Zion choir. Services will be held in the chapel of the new building. The Sunday school and Bible class will meet at the regular time 9:45 a. m. A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended.

The annual silver tea sponsored by the Zion Ladies Aid will be held on Friday, April 9 from 2 to 4 p. m. at the home of Mrs. F. W. Eberlein, 2959 Summers lane. Members and friends are most cordially invited to attend.

L. D. Good, Longtime SP Hostler, Quits Service

One of the last hostlers with the Southern Pacific railway company retired Wednesday after 33 years of continuous service. He is L. D. Good, 65 of 5648 Denver street.

Good has over 40 years of railroad service in all, having worked with the Union Pacific before joining the SP "family."

In recognition of this 33 years of accident-free service, without injury to himself or his fellow workers, Good was presented a bronze plaque Wednesday afternoon at a farewell party held at the round house in his honor.

This is the first plaque of its kind to be presented to an employee of the company. The presentation more were hired after that date for that specific position.

No immediate plans have been announced by Good as to how he will spend his leisure time. His family includes his wife, a son, L. D. Jr. of Klamath Falls, two daughters, Mrs. Marie Hough of Portland and Mrs. Florence Fairbanks of Honolulu.

A farewell gift with a card signed by 126 of his co-workers in the company, was also presented to the retiring hostler at the party. The gift was a leather bound Bible and a merchandise order at a local men's store for a suit and top coat.

Good worked up until 4 p. m. party time the last day of his service.

PTA Notes

Shasta
President Margaret Sheridan called the Shasta PTA meeting to order the afternoon of March 24. Craig Linday led the flag salute. The first grade pupils read a story and gave interesting talks about different animals. The fifth grade, under the supervision of Miss Hansen, sang an Italian folk song.

Following this interesting program, room count was taken. Miss Ellen Knopp's first grade room took the room prize.

The nominating committee submitted the nominees, all of whom were unanimously elected. They are, president, Mrs. Margaret Sheridan; vice president, Mrs. Audrey Baxter; second vice president, Mrs. Ruth Lindsay; secretary, Mrs. Bertha Hoie; and treasurer, Mrs. Jewel Howard.

The PTA decided to pay the expenses of morning delegates at the convention to be held the last week in April. These delegates will be the five officers and the program chairman.

On April 15, at 10:30 a. m., the fifth grade of the Shasta school will present a program over KFJL. On April 22, the third grade rooms will present an Oregon history program at the same time, also over KFJL.

Harold Ashley was the speaker at the meeting. He explained the distribution and the necessity of taxation. The Shasta Study club will meet April 7, at 1:30 p. m. in the teachers room at school. Mrs. Flinck will present the topic at this meeting. These meetings have been very interesting and informative.

Anyone who wishes to attend will be very welcome.

Mills
The Mills PTA study group met with Mrs. R. B. Pepworth March 31. The executive board held its April meeting and the regular PTA meeting was postponed from Wednesday, April 14, to Friday night, April 16. An interesting program has been planned.

There will be a baked food sale that night and fathers and visitors are most cordially invited.

Fremont
Members of Fremont PTA will meet Thursday, April 8, Rooms 16 and 17 of the junior high and Miss Berg's third grade with Miss Repp's fifth grade, will serve tea.

Principal Lowell Kaup will hold forth on standardization of Oregon schools which will result from the use of basic law money.

A skit from the vaudeville show to be presented this month by the junior high will also be presented Thursday.

Approximately 40 per cent of all motor accidents result from drivers trying to beat the lights.

WHY WE SAY "OLD NICK"

The Devil is sometimes called Old Nick. Nick first appeared in the seventeenth century and caused much concern over the origin of his name. One theory tells us Samuel Butler, in his poem, Hudibras, identified him with Niccolo Machiavelli. Some say this was the source of the term.

Bend Mill Workers Vote For Union

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP)—A majority of workers in the Shervin-Hixon and Brooks-Scanlon lumber operations at Bend have approved membership in the CIO International Woodworkers of America as a condition of employment, the national labor relations board reported today.

The action authorizing the IWA to make such agreements with the companies was taken in separate elections, the NLRB reported. The bargaining units comprise production and maintenance workers, with certain specified exemptions.

KU Students Picked For RC Convention

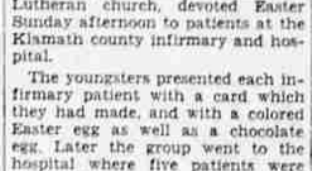

Leonard Wash Jr., and Helen Jackson, both juniors at Klamath Union High school, were chosen Thursday to represent KUHS in the National Red Cross convention to be held in San Francisco in June.

They were selected by the faculty out of some 17 candidates, all of whom were chosen by their respective home rooms. Alternates selected were Marcella Murray and Donna Hansen, also juniors.

The two will go to San Francisco June 21, with all expenses paid by the Red Cross. The confab will last three days, with various conferences and lectures to be attended and sightseeing tours conducted for the visitors.

Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Obenchain, 3306 LaVerne, and Leonard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard L. Wash, 911 Walnut. Both are active in student affairs at the high school.
