Man Stranded High In Tree
 SIOUX CITY, Ia., April 6 (AP)—A switchboard operator at the fire station misinterpreted an appeal for rescue yesterday and, believing a cat was stranded in a tree, replied, "Leave him there and he'll come down."
 It was a man, not a cat, in the tree, however. After a second call, firemen went to rescue Harry Mote, assistant superintendent of mails here, left high in a tree after a limb he sawed off fell and broke his ladder.

Pomona Glee Club Slated For Tonight

Thirty-three male voices will be heard in the Pomona Men's glee club tonight, Tuesday, in the KUHS auditorium at 8 o'clock.
 The Klamath County Junior chamber of commerce is sponsoring the concert which is directed by Arthur Hitchcock.
 Selections from classics to cowboy lullabies give the program balance and universal appeal with enough variety to please anyone. This season the club has added the Black and White quartet to the choral entertainment.
 The concert is an annual spring tour throughout the Pacific Northwest following a half-century old regime, and the group finds the welcome warmer on each return.
 Director Hitchcock, who succeeds Dr. Ralph H. Lyman, retired, has studied piano in Vienna, Austria. Tickets for the concert are on sale at the high school.

Lightning Hits But No Damage

EVERETT, April 6 (AP)—A bolt of lightning flashed through a suburban Beverly park home here Sunday afternoon, but two women and a year-old baby escaped injury. The exterior was scorched and seven windows shattered.
 The bolt struck in a grove of trees 50 feet from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pattison, ripped deep holes in the earth, traveled along telephone lines to the house, cracked through the living room and then grounded after melting a light meter.
 Mrs. Pattison told police she was sitting in her living room with a neighbor, Mrs. Audrey Cyphert, who was holding her year-old child. The lightning, she said, streaked through the front window between them.
 Pattison, who was in a brooder house at the rear, said it looked as if his home was enveloped in fire.

Documents To Be Displayed

SALEM, April 6 (AP)—Five historic Oregon documents were placed on display in the capital rotunda Monday. They will remain there Tuesday, the day on which the Freedom train is in Salem.
 The documents are:
 The original hand-written copy of Oregon's constitution which was enacted when Oregon was admitted to the Union in 1859; the original state seal, and the legislative committee report adopting the seal in 1859; the 1902 law providing for the initiative and referendum, which was the first of its kind in the country; the 1912 initiative measure providing for woman suffrage; and the 1913 blue sky law, which created the state corporation department and gave it power to check the sale of fraudulent securities.

IWA Convention Speed-Up Planned

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 6 (CP)—A proposal for holding the International Woodworkers of America's annual convention this year so that both Canadian and United States delegates may attend, despite communist border-crossing bans, has been approved by the union's B. C. district council.
 The suggestion is that a giant tent be erected on the border at the peace arch, near Blaine, Wash. Canadian members would sit on the Canadian side of the tent, with American members occupying seats on their side of the boundary.
 The district council will send the proposal to IWA President J. E. Fiedling of Portland, Oregon.

 Preceding the afternoon business meeting, led by Chairman Mrs. Walter Collins, the hobby leader of the day taught the group to make colonial lady place cards and tallies with paper or wooden spoons, crepe paper, cotton and ribbon.
 The unit selected officers for the year '48-'49, voting unanimously for the choice of the nominating committee. Mrs. Walter Collins will remain as chairman. Mrs. Cyril Cook will be vice chairman and Mrs. Earl Hall secretary-treasurer.

Truman Letter Goes To Pope

ROME, April 6 (AP)—President Truman has sent a personal letter to Pope Pius XII, it was learned officially today.
 The letter was delivered to the pontiff yesterday by Myron C. Taylor, the president's special representative to the Holy See, it was learned. Contents of the letter were not disclosed.
 Taylor, who arrived here Sunday by plane, declined to comment on a report published in Rome's leftist newspaper "Unita" that the president had given him "the duty to coordinate electoral activities of pro-American Italians and the Vatican."
 Delivery of President Truman's letter just 12 days before Italy's momentous national election April 18, was viewed as highly significant in many informed quarters.
 Taylor was received by the pope in a 35-minute private audience last night.
 The American, who conferred at length with Gen. Francisco Franco in Madrid last week, said he was not at liberty to reveal the nature of the discussions here or in Spain.

Search Party Makes Second Rescue Try

VERLOT RANGER STATION, Mt. Baker National Forest, April 6 (AP)—Ground parties made a new attempt, beneath clearing skies, today to reach a crashed air force plane high atop 8334-foot Pilchuck peak.
 The plane vanished last Friday on a flight from McChord field to the Sand Point naval air station. Its three occupants are believed dead.
 Aerial pictures of the plane's shattered wreckage were carried into the searchers last night after the party made its way to a rock cliff above the trainer but could not see it.
 Hubert Wilson of the U. S. forest service expressed belief the pictures would enable the searchers to work their way into the plane area some time today.
 The ground party camped last night high on the side of the mountain after a blinding snowstorm and danger of slides forced it to call off its hunt.
 Aboard the missing plane were Capt. James E. McLaughlin, pilot, on active duty as commanding officer of the Seattle air reserve; 2d Lt. Francis A. Geyer, co-pilot, Aberdeen; and T-Sgt. Carl T. Fields, 26, Puyallup, stationed at McChord field.

US Citizen Held By Reds

BERLIN, April 6 (AP)—A young American businessman said here today he had been held incommunicado by the Russians for four days after they removed him from a Soviet-operated train en route to Prague. He said they questioned the validity of his travel papers.
 This account was given by Charles Bear, 29, business manager of Time-Life International in Paris. He said he had a valid Czechoslovak visa stamped in his U. S. passport.
 Bear said he had been in Russian custody from 3 p. m. last Friday until midnight last night and was often under interrogation.
 U. S. army liaison officers said the Russians had released Bear to them at the Soviet central headquarters in Berlin.
 Bear said he had not been harmed but believed he was a victim of confusion among Soviet border control personnel caused by travel restrictions imposed by the Russians in Germany last week.
 World's first commercial radio-telephone service was opened between Long Beach, Calif. and Santa Catalina Island in 1920.

 "We must gather our strength and place it in plain view of men who recognize and respect no other argument."

 But something else is needed. We must get our great production machine back into full and efficient operation.
