

Plans Readied For Coming Convention

Mrs. William B. Chandler, Hillsboro, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, has announced that the official "call" to the 57th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs has been released. According to the convention call, the 1948 convention will be held in the municipal auditorium of Portland, May 24-28.

Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck of Richmond, Va., federation president, will preside over the convention, the first to be held during her administration. She will be assisted by the two vice presidents, Mrs. H. C. Houghton, Red Oak, Ia., and Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, Whiting, Ind. Foreign delegates, many of whom will appear in their native garb, will take an active part in the program under the direction of Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, Baltimore, Md., extension secretary for the foreign and territorial clubs and a past president of the general federation.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Sacred Heart Scene Of Easter Wedding

Sacred Heart Catholic church was the setting of an Easter Sunday wedding March 28, when Angela Mae Milani, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milani of Midland, became the bride of Clarence Allen Casabier, son of Mrs. Allan C. Casabier, also of Midland.

Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred Milani. Her gown was of white satin with a yoke and long fitted sleeves of Chantilly lace. The softly draped skirt fell into a court train.

A tara of white satin caught the bride's fingertip veil. An arrangement of Easter lilies and small pink rosebuds with ribbon streamers marked her prayer book.

Gloria Deque was maid of honor in a gown of pink satin, with a small matching hat, and a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's niece, Catherine Milani, was the little flower girl. Her frock was of blue net over white satin. In her hair was a headpiece of pink rosebuds and she carried a basket of pink roses.

Best man was Robert D. Casabier, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were James Phillips and Ben Garske. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milani of 2733 Crest, entertained for the young couple at a reception at their home following the rites.

The newlyweds are making their home in Klamath Falls following a wedding trip in Southern California.

Look to Suburban For Norge

It happens at midnight...

NORGE with the new Self-D-Froster

It's new... it's modern... it's exclusive... it's the new Norge Self-D-Froster—the refrigerator that DEFROSTS ITSELF! Just think of it... no more fuss and muss of manual defrosting... no button or dial controls. No melting of ice cubes... no exposure of food to outside air. Norge... and only Norge... eliminates these worries. Every night at midnight, while you sleep, the Self-D-Froster takes over.

Here's how the Self-D-Froster works!

This handsome electric clock, mounted on the refrigerator door, turns the mechanism off at midnight, switches it on after the cooling of frost has melted.

Defrost water is carried away into the non-spill Handefrost container, conveniently located and easily removable for emptying at your convenience.

Defrost water never collects in the Cold-Pack... so there's no need to remove your meats. Sealed Giant Side Freezer keeps ice cubes frozen.
