Two Estates Probated

Petition for probate of the estate of the late Nona P. Corpening of Olene listed the probable value of her property at $40,000 and a will named Leo Donovan as heir to virtually all of the estate.

Mrs. Corpening died March 23, and her will was dated February 13, 1939. The terms of the will that various members of her family would get $1 each and Donovan would receive the remainder of the property.

Donovan was also appointed executor. The court has appointed P. D. Rakestraw, A. R. Campbell and Donald R. Smith to appraise the estate.

Also filed for probate Wednesday was the estate of the late Thomas R. Skillington, who died April 5 in San Francisco. The estate is tentatively valued at in excess of $5000.

A will dated March 15, 1944, directs that two grandchildren be given $500 each and that the remainder of the property go to a son and daughter, Lynn E. Skillington and Mrs. Dorothy Abner, both of Klamath Falls.
