

FAREWELLS ARE in order for Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, who will say her home to her town for Portland. The Tillotsons will make their home in the valley city where Mr. Tillotson has been appointed a vice president of the First National bank of Portland.

Society

Edna Killmeyer

Women Of Reames Give Annual Tea

Women of Reames Golf and Country club welcomed new members and heralded the advent of the new season's activities in lovely fashion last Friday afternoon, April 2, when they entertained for new members at tea.

The lace-covered table was centered with a low crystal bowl of cyclamen blossoms, flanked on either side by purple tapers nestled in more of the flowers in crystal rose bowls. Satin ribbons carried on the theme in shades varying from light to deep purple. Bouquets of pussy willows and Forsythia were arranged about the room.

Pouring were Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mrs. Fred Farley, Mrs. W. O. Smith and Mrs. Paul Sharp.

Greeting guests were the club's new officers, Mrs. Paul Sharp, president; Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Paul Farrens, one of the board of directors, Mrs. L. D. Stephens, vice president, and Mrs. Earl Weimar, director, were not able to be present.

Hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock, and 150 guests called. Mrs. John Houston was tea chairman, and on her committee were Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. C. V. Rush, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. J. H. Martin, Mrs. Laurence Sh., Mrs. Paul Landry and Mrs. Percy Murray.

Romantic News Is Learned At Party

Spring and romantic news have gone hand in hand this season and the latest betrothal to be learned here was that of pretty Sally Mueller and Bob Kent.

At the traditional Pi Beta Phi "cooky shine" at the University of Oregon last Sunday at midnight, house members were aroused and told of the engagement. The "Lucky in Love" theme was used with the music and favors carrying out that idea.

Sally is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Mueller and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent both well known Klamath Falls families. Sally is a house officer of Pi Beta Phi, member of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary at the university, and active in social and student affairs on the campus. She is "The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" during her first year at school.

Bob was equally active on the Oregon State college campus where he was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity and last year was selected as the outstanding Beta of the Northwest. He was a member of the Blue Key, national senior men's honorary at OSC.

While Sally was home for spring vacation, a few close friends were told the news which they kept secret until the "cooky shine."

In addition to members of the house at the party, which was featured by a buffet supper with the candle lighted table decked in blue and pink, mothers of the two, Mrs. Mueller and Mrs. Kent, were present as well as Joan O'Neill of Salem.

Mrs. Mueller and Mrs. Kent returned from Eugene Monday evening. No date has been set for the wedding.

JOINING THE RANKS OF BRIDES-ELECT is Sally Mueller, daughter of Mrs. Helen Mueller. Sally told members of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Oregon of her betrothal to Bob Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent of this city, last Sunday at midnight.

Skating Party Is Saturday Affair

A Sunday afternoon skating party was arranged for the young friends of Ruth, Virginia and Frederick Roenicke, when Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke entertained for their children at Skateland. Hours were from 1:30 to 4 o'clock with the skaters served refreshments during the afternoon.

Guests included, Ann Henderson, Carol Jean Elliott, Nancy Elliott, Sara Stewart, Barbara Stivers, Patty Garvin, Wilma Snow, Joan Nelson, Darlene Gulley, Annette Jacobs, Harriet Moody, Clara Cabella, Beverly Lassett, Marjory Shreeve, Jean Ploca, Janet Ford, Lillian Mahan, Sue Ramsby, Nancy Clark, Marcia Wilson, Ruth Wood, Cecile Vandenberg, Dena Lampropoulos.

Donald Mills, Roger Long, David Molatore, Greg Schultz, Ralph Rogers, Walter Sweek, Jack Brock, Ross Tomlin, Donald Hall, Wayne Angel, Bobby Smith, Willard Robinson, James Pugh, James Merrill, Dick Clark, Donald Dexter, Donald Wells, Billy Jacobs, Lyle Shaffer, Donald Williams, Dickie Hilton, LeRoy Porter, Robert O'Hara, Lyle Mills, Angus Stewart, Roger Hagglund, Duane Day.

Nancy Drew, Sue Thompson, Sally Soukup, Susan Porter, Mary Lou Engelcke, Adele Goehring, Beverly Goehring, Nancy Warren, Gloria Mahan, Judith Sleight, Jane Larkin, Susan Peak, Susanne Listoe, Judy Woodruff, Karen Porter, Marcia Mills, Sara Porter, Patricia James, Carolyn Garrison, Rae Marie Neal, Ricky Pepworth, Barbara Kirk.

Members of Elks and their ladies will honor new officers of the lodge at the annual inaugural ball to-night, Saturday.

The affair is formal for women, and formal attire is optional for men. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seavey and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward are in charge.

Dancing will be from 10 o'clock to music by Evans orchestra.

Betty Lou Churchill, Carol Stolk, Sharon Lee McCollum, Beverly Doran, Sonja Funk, Christine James, David Montgomery, Paul Adams, Jon Houston, Bruce Black, Steve Molatore, David Heeder, Steven Heeder, George Goehring, Clyde James Jr., Vickie Brockman, James McKay, Shirley Ashford, Joe Tawney, Russell Leavitt, Arlene Korhonen, Verlund Kimpton, Delmer Mayfield, Darlene Smart, Harold Day, Glen Tracy, Robert Bestall, Jerry Premo, Lois Charlton, Billy Hill, Gerald Stewart, Sharon Gup-till, Gary Gill.

Rex Angel, Gilbert Baker, Anena Bollman, David Broilner, Elvora Epperly, Linda Gregory, Patsy Health, Shelby Holland, H. B. Jones, Carole Jess, Nick Lampropoulos, Alan Lockless, Nick Kamprupion, Alan Lockless, Betty Mansfield, Della Jean Morgan, Patricia O'Hara, Natalia Putnam, Jerry Stewart, Robert Sterritt, Karen Totton, Kerman Vinson, James Walker, Sylvia Wilbur.

Traditional Spring Tea Held Saturday

An event of last Saturday afternoon was the St. Paul's Episcopal church-sponsored bridge tea. Spring flowers were arranged about the rooms, setting the pretty decorated theme.

Bridge was played at 1:30, with tea served at 4 o'clock. Pouring were Mrs. Frederick C. Wisenbach and Mrs. Raymond Reeves. Edith Wisenbach, Ann Reeves, Jean Rae Oldenburg and Marcella Rand assisted about the rooms.

Special awards were received by Mrs. Henry F. Grimes, Mrs. Paul Farrens and Mrs. William Elliott.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Wallace Nordwall, Mrs. Al Lent, Mrs. Jessie Lyle, Mrs. Harry Schoenberg, Mrs. E. B. Brosterhouse, Mrs. C. W. Fyock, Mrs. William Elliott, Mrs. A. W. Westover, Mrs. Louis Soukup, Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Blanche Osborne, Mrs. Marvin Lucas and Mrs. W. K. Jackson.

Those who reserved tables for the afternoon were Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. Robert Sproat, Mrs. J. A. Schubert, Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. Dave Liskay, Hap Jones, Mrs. A. L. Brandt, Mrs. John Bunker, Mrs. Basil Brown, Mrs. C. D. Ough, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mrs. Carl Michaelson, Mrs. Delos Mills, Mrs. A. A. Montgomery.

Mrs. Harry Todd, Mrs. James Wallender, Mrs. Franklin Weaver, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. F. C. Adams, Mrs. Calvin Lamb, Mrs. Wilbur Shannon, Mrs. Roy Whytal, Mrs. W. L. Soliga, Mrs. Boyd Sprague, Mrs. A. J. Lambert, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Jewel Howard, Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Lucile Tweed, Mrs. James Patterson, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Avis McConnell, Mrs. Clara Shaw and Mrs. Dan Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Young of 5723 Altonham drive have announced the betrothal and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Lois Mae, to Donald LeRoy Stroud.

A DELIGHTFUL spring affair was the tea given last Friday by women of Reames Golf and Country club. Above are new officers of the group, Mrs. Paul Sharp, president; Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Paul Farrens, director. Mrs. L. D. Stephens, vice president, and Mrs. Earl Weimar, director were not able to be present. Below are Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. Charles Drew Jr. and Mrs. Arthur Rickbeil, who were among the 150 who called during the afternoon.

Date Announced For Forthcoming Reames Dance

Saturday, April 17 is the date on the calendar set aside by members of Reames Golf and Country club as the time for the club's next dinner dance.

Members are invited to bring guests. A buffet supper will be served at midnight, with dancing from 10 to 2 o'clock. Music will be by Morrison and McDonald's orchestra.

On the committee in charge of arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marshall, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Torgerson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward.

The affair will be formal for women, with formal dress optional for men.

Bridge Club
Mrs. George Clark entertained at her home on Luffey street last Wednesday evening for members of her bridge club.

Specially honored was Mrs. Everett Miner, the former Fern Shoop, who was given a gift from the group.

Guests were Mrs. Miner, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Paul Foster, Mrs. Neal Stewart and Mrs. Clark. Mrs. Vandenberg will entertain the group next.

Luncheon
Mrs. George T. Gerlinger entertained at luncheon at the Town club in Portland this afternoon for Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, candidate for national republican committee woman, and Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state vice chairman of the Oregon republican central committee.

County republican vice chairmen were Willard Ward.

Library Musicale Event Of Monday

Plans are in readiness for the annual spring musicale of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. The musicale will be an event of this coming Monday, April 12, at 2 o'clock in the city library clubrooms.

Mrs. Robert A. Thompson is tea chairman, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, is in charge of the program.

Featured will be Joanne Twedt, Mrs. Robert Banister, and Wayne Sherwood.

Miss Twedt is a senior from the University of Oregon where she studies piano in the university school of music. Mr. Sherwood is another University of Oregon student and a baritone who delighted the audience who heard him last year in the Library club's musical program.

Mrs. Banister, soprano, is well-known in Klamath Falls music circles.

The program follows:
1. Piano
"Sheep May Safely Graze" (Chorale) . . . Bach-Petri.
Sonata in E Flat Major . . . Haydn, No. 34—Miss Twedt.

2. Songs
"Deh Vient Alla Fenestra" (Don Giovanni) . . . Mozart.
"Liebesbriefchen (Love Letter)" . . . Korngold.
"Die Mainacht" (May Night) . . . Brahms.

3. Songs
"Meine Liebe Ist Grün" (My Love is Green) . . . Brahms—Mr. Sherwood.
"Si Mes Vers Avaient des Ailes" (If My Songs Had Wings) . . . Hahn.
Mimi's "Farewell" (La Boheme) . . . Puccini.
"The Lilacs" . . . Rachmaninoff.
"The Whistling Boy" . . . Jerome Kerns—Mrs. Banister.

4. Songs
"How Happy Would I Be With Either"
"Which Way Shall I Turn Me!"
"Many May Escape From Rope and Gun."
"If the Heart of a Man."
"My Heart Was So Free," all from "The Beggar's Opera" . . . Macheath.
"Sea Fever" . . . Ireland.
"And So, Goodbye" . . . Charles—Mr. Sherwood.

5. Piano
Scherzo in B Minor . . . Chopin.
Etude in E Major . . . Chopin.
Waltz in E Flat Major . . . Chopin—Miss Twedt.

Mrs. French Named Outstanding Woman

Her outstanding work with young girls won for Mrs. Lawrence French the annual Soroptimist club of Klamath Falls award for outstanding service at last night's dinner meeting in the Pelican party room.

The award is given annually to a Klamath county woman who has contributed unselfishly, her time and effort toward community service over the years.

Mrs. A. C. Backes introduced Mrs. French and presented her with an award pin. She told of the many years Mrs. French has given time and effort working in community projects and with young girls, without recognition or compensation other than her love of helping others.

Soroptimist members felt that such loyalty and unselfish effort should not go unrecognized. Thus she was chosen for this year's award.

Mrs. French has been a resident of Klamath Falls since 1926 and has been very active in Camp Fire Girls' work both as a director and guardian since 1932.

She has had the leadership of groups of Camp Fire Girls of all ages, from the age of seven through high school girls. She and her groups of girls have done active work in all community service projects. Mrs. French has one son, age 15, and her husband is an instructor at Oregon Vocational school.

Malcolm Epley, managing editor of The Herald and News, was guest speaker for the evening. John Crosby, accompanied by Eloise McIntyre, sang the following selections: "Love In My Heart," by Woodman; "My Lady Walks In Loveliness," by Charles, and "Life," by Curran.

President Thelma Henry gave the address of welcome to all members and guests, and introduced Esther Lawler as toastmistress of the evening.

Mrs. Lawler introduced the following guests who represented the service clubs: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Collier, Rotary; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Premo, Lions; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stark, chamber of commerce; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley, The Herald and News; Pete Green, 20-30; Loraine Quillen, BPW; Alice Vitens, Quota; Mary Bishop, Ventura, and her escort, George Uerlings, the members introduced their husbands and their guests. Frances Balin, past president of the Pelican club, was the guest of Lorraine Johnson, and Ruth Bathiany, former resident of Klamath Falls, was Suzanne Hamilton's guest.

There will also be election of officers for the coming year, and final plans for members attending the state conference in Lakeview April 22, 23 and 24. Members and guests are invited.

Speaker
Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of city schools, will be the guest speaker at the April meeting of the American Association of University Women, to be held Saturday, April 17, at the Pelican cafe at 12:45.

Mr. Gralapp will speak on his recent trip east when he attended the conference of the American Association of Administrators. He will particularly describe the "Flying Classroom" study, in which administrators visited the industries in Chicago, Detroit and New York, with the objective of integrating both vocational and academic education with that of industry. In this collection, he will speak of the scholarship program being worked out for students by federal, state, industrial and research aid. He will also briefly review the speeches of Congressman Judd and Chief-of-Staff General Omar Bradley.

There will also be election of officers for the coming year, and final plans for members attending the state conference in Lakeview April 22, 23 and 24. Members and guests are invited.