New Church To Open For Inspection

The public is cordially invited to the new Christian church at Tulelake, Calif., this Sunday at 3 p. m. Work on the building has advanced sufficiently to permit informal meetings to be held there, and will be ready for complete use in a few weeks.

The time set is California daylight saving time, and Klamath people wishing to attend are asked to note the difference. An organ and song books from the First Christian church will be provided. This first meeting is arranged primarily for acquainting those interested with what has been accomplished and what remains to be done to the building. Dean Stephens will present special music, and Rev. Howard F. Hutchins will speak briefly.

Songfest To Open Service

"Why Do People Go to Church?" will be the sermon theme at the morning worship of the First Christian church, at 9th and Pine streets. The weekly observance of the Lord's supper is held each Sunday at 11 a. m. as an integral part of worship. Special music will be sung by Charles Uhlig and Dean Stephens. Evening sessions begin at 8:30 for all Christian Endeavor members. A group of 11 left for the state convention at Albany, returning late Sunday evening. Evangelistic services start at 7:30, with a songfest.

The church news spotlight is a feature of the evening session. The sermon, "Where are the Witnesses?" will be the theme. The communion is always ready at the evening hour for all those who may have missed in the morning. Wednesday mid-week sessions start at 7 p. m., and two periods are held, one at 7:15 and the other at 8:15. Teacher training, public speaking, choir and also two classes on Bible study are available for all who desire to attend.

Sermon Series To Open

"The Secret of Victory" will be the topic of the second sermon in a series based on the theme of "Victorious Living" being presented by Rev. Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, 11th and High. The morning worship begins at 11 o'clock. The Sunday school and Bible class meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m. The Zion Ladies Aid will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, April 22, at the church, beginning at 2 p. m. Mrs. E. Blund and Mrs. L. Brazeel will be hostesses for this meeting. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Congregational Nursery Held

Morning service at the Congregational church Sunday at 11 o'clock will be conducted by the minister, Rev. Geoffrey Matthews, who will preach on the subject, "What is the Church?" a sermon specially addressed to those for whom the question is one of great difficulty. The liturgical parts of the service will be led by the choir under the direction of Marie Casjens, who will also play the organ prelude and postlude.

A nursery for little children is conducted in the Community hall during the hour of worship by members of the Junior circle. The high school group meets Wednesday evenings after choir practice at 8 o'clock and is studying "What a Christian Believes." Mary Stone is president and a cordial invitation is extended to young people not connected with other churches to attend.

Church Of Christ Services Slated

Regular services will be held this week at the Church of Christ, 2208 Wantland, including worship, Communion and Bible study. Bible classes are held at 10 a. m. Sunday, with weekly Bible study at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Worship is at 11 a. m. with Communion at 11:45 a. m., and the evening worship at 7:30 Sundays. All are welcome.

Grand Opening Set Sunday

Plans are complete for the grand opening of the new educational building of the First Baptist church, N. 8th and Washington streets, Sunday, April 18. All departments are planning for a large attendance to mark this event in the life of the church. Motion pictures of the entire Sunday school will be taken showing the school by departments and classes with each worker in his respective group. A tour of inspection is also planned immediately following the morning service with Boy Scouts acting as guides. All families are urged to be present Sunday morning.

The pastor, Rev. Cecil C. Brown, states that some work is still unfinished, particularly outside the building. Landscaping and outside decorating will be done as conditions permit. Every department will be fully set up Sunday and the whole school will begin to function on a completely graded and standard basis.

Fields To Speak Sunday

"What Does the Bible Teach Concerning Marriage, Divorce and Re-marriage?" will be the sermon topic of Pastor Keith P. Fields of the Bible Baptist church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour. Sunday school convenes at 9:45 a. m. each Lord's Day. There are classes for all ages, graded according to the school year, that is, a child in the second grade in a public school will be placed in a class where only second graders are. The sermon topic for Sunday evening will be, "Noah, a Man Superior to His Surroundings." This is a study of the Old Testament concerning Noah and his determination to follow the will of the Lord rather than the ways of those about him. The public is cordially invited.

Church Moves To New Site

The reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints announces its new location. Services are now being held in the auditorium of the city library. Beginning this Sunday, church school services will be held in the auditorium under the direction of Ted Schulz, who is in charge of the Klamath Falls mission. Church school services are held between 10 and 11 a. m. each Sunday. The mission has been duly organized in conformity with church regulations. All are cordially invited to attend, and members are urged to take an active part in the organization.
