

Dates Pile Up On Spring Calendars

Between now and the time school is out—official date for the beginning of vacations for oldsters as well as students—there is plenty to see and do.

Take the all-grade school Extravaganza which is a must for parents of elementary schoolers. It is to be held next Friday night, April 23, and will be on the same night as the SPEBSQSA show at the Pelican theatre.

Tonight is the Reames Country club formal dinner dance. Two plays are dated: Fremont junior high's play, "Rootin' Tootin' Ranch," on Friday night, April 30, and the KUHS student body play, Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors," in the school auditorium Tuesday, May 11.

The last meeting of the year of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club will be held Monday, May 10, in the city library auditorium. Mrs. Victor O'Neill will give a book report and we forecast a jammed house as there is no better book-reporter than Lucille, west of the Missouri Compromise.

On the departure list: Mrs. Carl Lindbergh and daughter Nell, and another daughter, Mrs. Vergil Nelson of Yreka, along with Mrs. John Berg and daughter Nancy, leaving in mid-June for a visit in Sweden. They are sailing June 18 on the Gripsholm.

The Lindberghs plan to remain for three months but Iris reports the earliest return date available is November 13 on the new Swedish liner, Stockholm. The Bergs also have an interesting itinerary. Nancy is a Fremont Junior high student.

The Hale Scarbroughs have added another member to the family. They now own our Duncan's brother, Pete, and both spaniels are due for distemper shots today. To date Hale has made no report on damage to household goods. Duncan's take this past week: 1, both boxes of new party slippers, 2, A to L in the telephone book; 3, end of one gold kid belt; 4, five socks, no mates; 5, one nail brush; 6, 50 per cent damage to one table leg.

Old Lake o' the Woods residents who remember with various feelings Caretaker Raymond Burr back in the late 30's, saw their little friend on the screen this week playing the part of Sgt. Burke in "Sleep, My Love." Outside of the fact he wore a lot of clothes to simulate a husky sergeant of police, it was the same old Burr.

He said he'd get in the movies, and by gum he did, although by a circuitous route. Used to entertain the children with his histrionic ability. Also has a part in the forthcoming film, "Ruthless."

Most of our little friends have had a bout with the measles to draw family attention, but little Janet Seavey, the Chuck Seavey's young'un, was different. Janet fell out of bed and fractured her left collar bone.

Cards directed to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland will reach Huntington Taylor who had surgery there last Tuesday.

Greeting old friends, Henry Mon, back for the spring and summer months from the winter in Southern California. Also home, E. J. Murray, Mrs. P. J. Hannon and daughter Bernardine after wintering in Arizona and Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Voight are home again at 1603 Eldorado after a motor trip with children Monte and Gail. They visited in California, Arizona, Nevada and Mexico and saw a lot of country in their travels.

Folks are still interested in the progress of Major John Harding, patient at Barnes General hospital for treatment after a plane crash. Cal and Bettye Lamb and young Chris were in Portland this week visiting Mrs. Margaret Powell Lamb, and Cal spent a half hour with John at the hospital.

John appeared in excellent spirits and spoke of his return to flying. He was being prepared for surgery on Monday in the hopes of repairing one of his feet, badly frozen during the ordeal. Margaret was with her husband and their little daughter Jonnie is still with Margaret's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rae Horton in Eureka.

Our camera speed demon, Wes Guderian, has done something pretty clever. A series of pictures of little Donald Rogers in an old fashioned wash basin. Each pose is the same struck by his photogenic father, James Rogers—and in the same basin!

Olive Cornett, candidate for the office of republican national committeewoman for the state of Oregon, will be honored at a luncheon scheduled for 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, April 26, in the Pelican party room, by the Klamath Falls Council of Republican Women. Olive is the only candidate for this office—highest award that can be given a Republican woman in the state.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with either Rose Poole or Thirza DeCew. Discussion for the afternoon will be on "The Marshall Plan."

A charming visitor in our town this week was Mrs. Douglas McKay of Salem who was here with her husband, Republican candidate for governor. Mrs. McKay was honored at a no-hostess luncheon arranged last Monday at 1 o'clock in the Pelican dining room by a group of Republican women. Mr. and Mrs. McKay left Tuesday morning for Bend and on to other points in the state.

Soc. Ed. Edna Killmeyer, the lucky one, is off this afternoon for parts unknown in the southern section of the country. She and husband Hugh went armed with road maps and a camera and are not due back until May 1. In the meantime we will take on the duties of editing this section and hope everybody hurries up and gives a part of their contributions eagerly accepted. In view of the fact we have the state PTA convention to cover April 27-29, close friends may be drafted. (L.S.)

FETED AT A TEA April 9 was Miss Inga Marie Nerseth of Pullman, Washington, who enjoyed a brief visit in Klamath Falls with her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseth. Mrs. Nerseth entertained for the visitor, with 60 guests calling during the afternoon.

Jean Hauger Is Complimented At Bridal Party

Jean Hauger of San Francisco, whose marriage to Stanley Van Norman Jones will be an event of tomorrow, Sunday, at the Herbert E. Hauger home on Pacific Terrace, was complimented at a linen shower and luncheon given Friday at 1 o'clock by Mrs. Roy Whitlatch at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas B. Watters, 1217 Pacific Terrace.

Small tables were centered with individual flower pots and after bridge, gifts were presented to Jean in a daffodil decked cart by young Dickie Whitlatch.

Honoring Jean were Mrs. Thomas E. Watters, Mrs. George Flitcraft, Mrs. Frederick Farley, Mrs. Alvin E. Macartney, Mrs. Robert Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Donald Ellingson, Mrs. Stanley Staiger of Oswego, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. William Borchert of Coos Bay, Mrs. Richard Post, Mrs. Thomas B. Watters and Mrs. Whitlatch.

Skatina Party

Jane Larkin's tenth birthday was the occasion for a skating party Sunday, April 11, at Skateland. Hours were from 2 to 4:30 o'clock and late in the afternoon refreshments were served by Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larkin.

Voice Recital Is Event Of Sunday

An invitation is extended to the public to attend a recital this Sunday afternoon, April 18, at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Featured will be pupils of Mrs. George McIntyre, Marie Casjens, contralto; Colleen Creswell, contralto; and John Crosby, baritone.

Mrs. Casjens is known in musical circles as organist and choir director at the Community Congregational church. She does contralto solo work with the Civic Chorus and in numerous other civil affairs. Miss Creswell is a junior student at Klamath Union high school, and was heard as soloist at the school's annual Christmas concert with the a cappella choir.

Mr. Crosby has been in Klamath Falls for nearly a year as an assistant at the chamber of commerce. He is a graduate of the University of Chicago. As a child he spent four years in the choir school of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, where he was by soprano soloist with the famous male choir of the cathedral.

Following is the program: "Where'er You Walk," (aria from Semle) Handel; "The Wanderer," Schubert; "Caro Mio Ben," Giordani; "Sheenfold Song," Ronald; "Supplication," La Forge; "The Glory of God in Nature," Mrs. Casjens; "None but the Lonely Heart," Beethoven; "Yesterday and Today," Tchaikovsky; "Omnipotence," Spross; "Christ Went Up Into the Hills," Miss Creswell; "O Rest in the Lord," (aria from the Elijah) Mendelssohn; "Life," Mrs. Casjens; "In the Silent Night," Rachmaninoff; "My Lady Walks in Loveliness," Charles; "The Horn," Flegler; "Benedemeer's Stream," Old Irish; "Prelude from 'A Cycle of Life,'" Ronald; "Let My Song Fill Your Heart," Charles; "In the Still of the Night," Porter; "Stars in My Eyes," Kreisler; Mrs. Casjens and Mr. Crosby.

A VOICE RECITAL is planned for Sunday afternoon, April 18, at the First Presbyterian church, featuring pupils of Mrs. George McIntyre. On the program are Marie Casjens, Colleen Creswell and John Crosby. The public is cordially invited. Mr. Crosby, Miss Creswell—Jones-Miller Mrs. Casjens—Evergreen

Coming Rites: Saturday, May 22 is the date selected for the wedding of Joan Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin M. Butler of Los Angeles, Calif., and Paul Donald Otterbein Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Otterbein Sr., of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Butler recently announced their daughter's engagement and forthcoming marriage. Miss Butler is a graduate of John Adams high school in Los Angeles. Her fiance attended Oregon State college in Corvallis and is affiliated with Kappa Delta Rho fraternity. He is now associated with Craig Oil company in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Otterbein plan to go south for their son's wedding, which will take place in the Willshire Presbyterian church.

Spring Exhibit: Mrs. Walter Brown of 1335 Pacific Terrace, well-known in the state's art circles, has two entries in the 22nd annual spring exhibition of the Oregon Society of Artists April 7 through 26 at the Portland Art museum. Mrs. Brown is exhibiting "Henrietta's House" and "Still Life." She attended the tea and preview held preceding the opening and reported both the preview and opening as outstanding and very well attended.

This week, Mrs. Brown is visiting in the Wasco and La Grande region.

Delegates Are Announced At Luncheon

Heleen Elizabeth Jackson of 3306 LaVerne, Leonard Waah of 911 Walnut and Marie Fields of Malin were chosen as the three delegates from this area to the junior section of the National Red Cross conference June 21-24 in San Francisco.

Selection of the three high school students was announced following a luncheon meeting of the Junior Red Cross advisory committee Tuesday, April 13.

Mrs. Paul Dalton entertained the group at luncheon at her home on the Merrill highway. Plans were also made for next year's Junior Red Cross program and for naming two delegates for the Junior Red Cross workshop to be held in Bremerton this July. Selection of the three young people for the national conference was made by the respective high school principals, with approval of the adult board.

Covers were laid for Mrs. William Nash, Mrs. Robert Houck, Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Mrs. Robert Erlandson, Mrs. Frances Palmer, and Mrs. Phil Brixner.

Members unable to be present were Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. Haabry Bechen and Mrs. Donald Ellington.

Thirty-nine gift boxes filled by Junior Red Cross members in Klamath county schools were inspected by the adult council, and this Thursday were sent to New York for shipment to Europe.

Miss Nerseth Is Complimented At Tea On Friday

Mrs. Marvin Nerseth entertained at a pretty tea Friday, April 9, complimenting her sister-in-law, Inga Marie Nerseth, of Pullman, Wash. Miss Nerseth was here for a brief visit en route to Pullman from a vacation in San Francisco and the bay region. She is a teacher in the English department of Washington State college.

About 60 friends greeted the honor guest who has visited here on numerous previous occasions. Hours were from 3 to 6 o'clock at the Nerseth home, 2027 Del Moro.

Mrs. Frederick Ehlers and Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., poured at the lovely tea table which was centered with an arrangement of yellow roses. Bouquets of yellow roses were placed about the room.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. T. F. Farley, Mrs. Carl Hagel and Gail Nerseth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nerseth.

Conference

The Soroptimist club of Klamath Falls met Thursday at the Pelican with Esther Lawler, second vice president conducting the meeting.

Further plans for the Northwest conference in Bend to be held during the last of April were discussed. Lillian Hillis announced that there is still enough time to make reservations, and anyone wishing to attend may call Mildred Soukup.

Ethel Matthews introduced John McCulloch as guest speaker. Mr. McCulloch, who has recently purchased the Odell Motor company, was formerly with the FBI and gave a very interesting account of how bad check artists operate.

Several guests attended the meeting including Mrs. Jack Martin, guest of Kathleen Thompson; Mrs. Jack Dutcher of Lake o' the Woods, who was guest of Rose Poole; and Mrs. Dale West of Merrill, guest of Ruth Adams.

Trip Abroad

A group of friends gathered at Foster's restaurant Thursday evening this week to honor Vern Swansen, who plans to leave soon for an extended trip abroad.

Mr. Swansen, a well-known Klamath artist, will spend about six months in Europe, principally in France, studying art and painting.

Spring Program Is Meeting Highlight

A delightful program was presented at the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club Monday afternoon, April 12. The occasion was the annual spring musicale, arranged this year by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman.

On the program were Mrs. Robert Banister, Joanne Twedt, and Wayne Sherwood.

Mrs. Banister is prominent in musical affairs in this area. Miss Twedt appeared through the courtesy of her teacher, George Hopkins of the University of Oregon school of music, where she studied. This was Mrs. Sherwood's second appearance at the Library club. He was featured in last spring's musical program, and is also of the University of Oregon school of music.

Tuesday Plans

A busy day is planned by the three chapters of the Order of Eastern Star in this area for next Tuesday, April 20, when Mrs. Katherine Felger, grand worthy matron of Oregon, makes her official visit.

Participating are Aloha chapter of Klamath Falls, Cascade Crest chapter of Chiloquin and Prosperity chapter of Malin.

A no-hostess luncheon has been arranged for 1:15 Tuesday afternoon at the Pelican cafe in honor of the visitor. Those planning to attend are asked to make reservations by calling Mrs. Horace Getz, 5269, Mrs. W. L. Poole, 8360, or Mrs. Walter Brown, 4357.

From 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the Masonic temple, the OES social club has planned a tea. All Star members in the basin area are cordially invited.

Winners

Winners of the monkey foursome played by women of Reames Golf and Country club Friday were Mrs. R. O. Sprout, Mrs. Marvin Nerseth, Mrs. John C. O'Neill and Mrs. Lloyd Drew.

Luncheon was served at 12:30 with seven tables of duplicate bridge following.

Guests were Mrs. Claude Davis and Mrs. William DeCew. Next Friday's tournament will be a putting contest.

Hat Party

Spring bonnets set the theme of an "Easter hat" party held April 7 by the Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church in the parish hall.

Hats and bags from Kathy's Hat shop and hat boxes decorated by Mrs. Carl Williams were used about the room.

Hostesses were Mrs. Carl Williams, Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, Mrs. Raymond Reeves and Mrs. Mildred Moses.

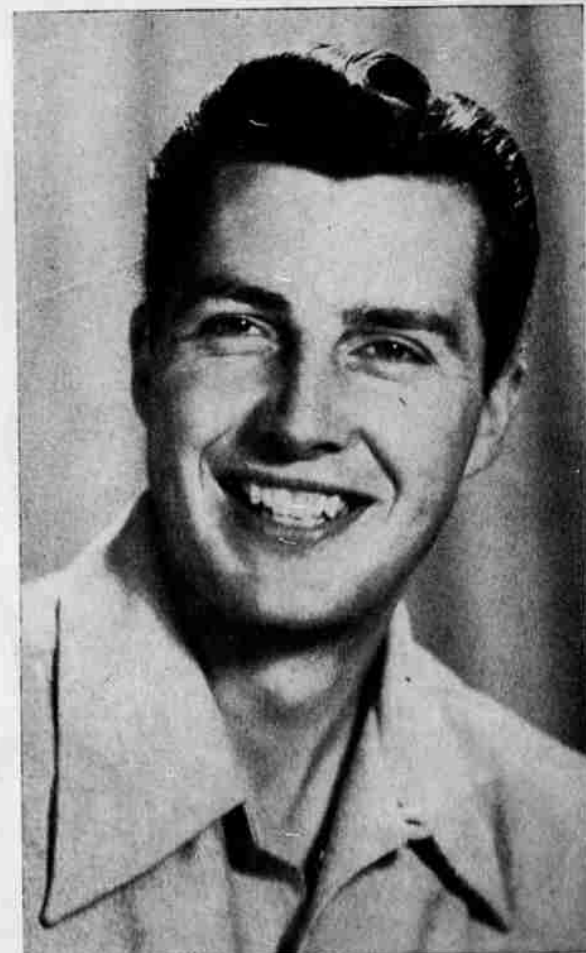

Winners in the hat contest were Mrs. Orville Hamilton, Mrs. J. A. Scott and Mrs. I. C. Burke. Honors in bridge went to Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mrs. Russ Arnot and Mrs. C. M. Lolicams.
