

Fathers' Night Is Held At Academy

The annual Fathers' Night program held in the school auditorium of Sacred Heart academy by the Mothers club and Sisters of St. Francis on Friday, April 9 was well attended. Mrs. Vincent Herlihy, club president, led the opening prayer and conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Virgil Smith announced in her financial report that the set of encyclopedias, portable phonograph and most of the geography maps have arrived and are already in use in the classrooms.

Mrs. Jeff Korsen reported for the nominating committee and by unanimous approval of all members the nominations were adopted and the following officers elected for the coming school year: Mrs. Virgil Smith will remain as treasurer; Mrs. Don Drulliner, president; Mrs. E. M. Igl, vice president; and Mrs. W. G. Ely, secretary. These officers will be duly installed during the May silver tea which will be the last gathering of the group this year.

After a lengthy discussion led by Mrs. Drulliner, Mrs. David Vandenberg and Mrs. J. A. Mahoney, the club agreed to sponsor a project for the benefit of the Teen-Age center, with Mrs. Drulliner, chairman. Mrs. W. G. Ely, Mrs. J. J. Ehrheth and Mrs. E. M. Igl also led a discussion of interest to members. Mrs. Otto Smith brought to the attention of the group the necessity of the fathers' interest in school athletic activities, with the view that next year, with the fathers' assistance, the transportation problem might not be so difficult. Mrs. Dick Collins and Mrs. Drulliner were appointed to handle the senior dance orchestra.

The entertainment program was opened by the fifth and sixth girls chorus with a selection entitled "Far-off India." John Ely led members of his class in a panel discussion on "Travels of the Tomato." Theresa Wessel sang "Mother Combrini" by Gaskill, and the students of Sister Rose Claire presented a three-act play based on episodes in the life of the foundress, Mother Combrini.

Harriet Lavenik and Andrew Barry, vocal students, harmonized "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Herbert. Mrs. W. G. Ely and Mrs. John Andrews then served refreshments to member and guests in the dining room. They were assisted by Mrs. Leo Donovan, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Richard Fyynn, Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, Mrs. C. Matney, Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Ray Oldenburg, Mrs. H. A. Pavlat, Mrs. Perry Pierce, Mrs. Eugene Prouty, Mrs. C. H. Wilcher and Mrs. George Yost.

The next meeting of the Mothers' club will be the silver tea on May 23 when the new officers will be installed.
