

Officers Installed By White Shrine

Last Saturday evening the Masonic temple was the scene of a ceremony in which the elected and appointed officers of Naomi Shrine No. 5, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, were installed. With the retiring worthy high priestess, Charlotte Martin, and watchman of shepherds, Larry Baker, in the East, the installing herald, Marian Wilson, presided at the installing officers to enter the shrine room.

Mrs. Emma Brown, past worthy high priestess of Williamette shrine, Salem, presided as the installing worthy high priestess, and Wayne Henry, past watchman of Salem, was the installing watchman of shepherds. Other installing officers were Alma Sears of Bethlehem shrine, Eugene, worthy herald; Stella Henry, worthy high priestess of Salem, worthy chaplain; Helen Spiker, worthy scribe; Kate Peyton, worthy guardian; Alma Kofler, worthy organist.

The officers to be installed were escorted into the shrine room by the shrine attendants and king's guards and were seated in white draped chairs forming a cross in the center of the room. The installation was administered by Wayne Henry and the worthy high priestess-elect, Beatrice Denison, was presented at the altar for her installation and took her station in the East. Jack Schulze was then installed as watchman of shepherds and installation of the remaining officers followed: Blanche Barker, noble prophetess; Dr. J. C. Hunt, associate watchman; Irene Markham, scribe; Nina Currier, treasurer; Blanche Marks, chaplain; Blanche Schulze, shepherdess; Frances Reeves, guide; Lillian Haseline, herald; James Hunter, Jack Metler and Paul Jones as wisemen; Nell Retterath, queen; Vera Clemens, organist; Vera Marie, Waddell as handmaiden; Beatrice Wilkes, scribe; Vera Linkenbach, guardian; Lydia Wilson, guard.

Past officer's jewels were presented to Charlotte Martin and Larry Baker by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry. They were also presented with gifts from the officers who served with them. The newly installed worthy high priestess presented gifts to her installing officers. Alma Sears, worthy matron of Aloha chapter of Eastern Star, and Mary Ellen Gaster, Royal Matron of Friendship court of amaranth, honored Mrs. Denison with gifts.

Musical numbers for the occasion were furnished by Mrs. Dorothy Ackerman and Erling Helby, who sang solos. Installation ceremonies were held at the home of Mrs. Don Hancock, matron of honor in a gown of yellow net. She carried a nosegay of small yellow, pink and white flowers, and wore a headband of flowers in her hair. Pat McKay and Lila Driscoll, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of pink net with similar nosegay bouquets and headbands. Small Nancy Givan, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length frock of blue and carried a tiny basket of yellow rose petals. Her headpiece was similar to those of the other attendants.

Best man was Gordon Givan, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Mike Brown, Dick Pepple, Bob Heup and Don Roper.

The home of Mrs. Anna Francis in Klamath Falls was the scene of the reception where the young couple cut the first slice of a prettily decorated wedding cake. For the wedding trip, the new Mrs. Givan selected a dressmaker suit of pink with matching hat and gray accessories. The carnations from her prayer book were worn at the shoulder.

From a visit in San Francisco and the bay region, Mr. and Mrs. Givan returned to make their home in Klamath Falls.

Gifts were presented to the honored guests, and refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Doyle Moore, Mrs. Wilbur Friend and son, Mrs. Ralph Edwards, Mrs. Arlie Moore, Mrs. Maynard Paugh and son, Mrs. Elmer Edwards, Mrs. Charles Thurman, Mrs. Floyd Edwards, Mrs. Charles Ropp, Mrs. E. L. Homer and the honor guest and hostess.

Mrs. Paul Angstadt entertained Wednesday evening at her home on Pacific Terrace for members of her bridge club.

At the next auxiliary meeting, Tuesday, April 20, there will be a preview of the show to be given by auxiliary members April 25.

Couple Trade Vows In Merrill Church

St. Augustine's Catholic church in Merrill was the setting for a pretty wedding April 3 when Doris James of Klamath Falls became the bride of James D. Givan of Bonanza. Rites were solemnized at 10 o'clock in the morning with Rev. Father James O'Connor officiating.

Mrs. Peter Lorenz sang "Ave Maria" preceding the nuptials, and the traditional wedding marches were played. Spring flowers in white, pink and yellow decked the altar.

The bride entered the church on the arm of George Bray, a family friend of her father's. She wore a heavy white satin fashioned with long fitted sleeves, fitted bodice and flowing skirt. A fingertip illusion net veil fell from a halo arrangement of net with tiny white wedding bells on either side.

White carnations and matching ribbon streamers marked her white prayer book.

Mrs. Don Hancock was matron of honor in a gown of yellow net. She carried a nosegay of small yellow, pink and white flowers, and wore a headband of flowers in her hair.

Pat McKay and Lila Driscoll, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of pink net with similar nosegay bouquets and headbands. Small Nancy Givan, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl. ## Easter Rites

MERRILL—In an Easter service in the First Presbyterian church, Reno, Nev., Virginia Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Sharp, Merrill, became the bride of Glenn C. Haskins, also of Merrill. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Haskins.

The noon ceremony was read by Rev. Arthur Rice before an altar arrangement of Easter lilies and tall white tapers.

The bride wore a dusty pink dressmaker suit with brown accessories. Three brown orchids were pinned at her shoulder.

Gwen Sommers, Klamath Falls, the bride's attendant, wore a gray suit with black accessories and her shoulder flowers were pink camellias.

Carroll Kandra, Merrill, was best man.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Haskins left immediately following the ceremony for a two weeks wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Las Vegas, Sun Valley and Mt. Hood, skiing at the last two resorts.

They will make their home in the Hood apartments, Merrill.

Mrs. Haskins, graduate of Merrill high school, later attended the University of Oregon. She was affiliated with Alpha Gamma sorority. At present she is recorder for the city of Merrill.

The groom, who studied at Oregon State, will be associated with his father in farming.

New Members

A record number of members and guests attended the Sojourner meeting of April 14. Among those were the following guests, present for either the first or second time: Mrs. N. E. Nelson, Mrs. A. F. Betsch, Mrs. Howard Stroud, Mrs. H. W. Davis, Mrs. P. A. Boyd, Mrs. E. C. Galbreath, and Mrs. Rosalyn Jackson.

Thirteen new members were introduced by the club president, Mrs. Charles Houston. Attendance at three meetings constitutes membership for Sojourners, and some of the new members were present for the third time at the spring tea.

The Sojourner spring dinner dance is in the offing, according to Mrs. Marshall Poole, chairman of this annual affair. The rest of the committee working on the dance is Mrs. Gerald Garner, Mrs. Ted Lind, Mrs. John Argetainger, Mrs. H. S. Schoenberg and Mrs. S. J. Anderson. The date of the dance will be announced shortly.

Hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. Carl Sparks and Mrs. Jack Dickman, awarded clever prizes of spruce bulbs, seeds and rose plants to the following women in bridge, Mrs. H. W. Davis and Mrs. Walter Turner, and to Mrs. Allan Fletcher in pinocchle.

The next Sojourner meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, April 26, and newcomers wishing more information about joining are welcome to call Mrs. Houston at 7511.

Civic Group

CHILOQUIN—Mrs. Walter Zimmerman recently entertained members of the former Dial club, a study and civic group which was active for several years preceding the war. Special guest of the luncheon was Mrs. E. A. Blockinger, visiting locally from Media, Pennsylvania after being away for several years.

An attractive arrangement of spring flowers centered the luncheon table. Attending were Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. Leroy Stenger, Mrs. Edouard Priault, Mrs. E. A. Blockinger, Mrs. Guy Steiger, Mrs. G. D. McKell, and Mrs. Zimmerman.

Mrs. Floyd S. Roberts Jr. and children Barbara Joan and Bruce, of Portland spent this week with Mrs. Roberts' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Van Scot Mollison of 5020 S. 6th.

Mrs. Paul Angstadt entertained Wednesday evening at her home on Pacific Terrace for members of her bridge club.

WED IN RENO, NEV., were Virginia Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Sharp of Merrill, and Glenn C. Haskins, also of Merrill. The two exchanged vows Easter Sunday. They are at home in Merrill.

Dinner Party

MERRILL—Faculty members of the Merrill high school enjoyed a progressive dinner last Saturday night beginning with cocktails at the home of Miss Belk and Miss Coad.

In the apartment of Miss Richards and Miss Tromblade, guests were seated at a table centered with spring blossoms and tapers.

The main dinner course was served in the home economics room of the high school with Principal and Mrs. Harold Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Burke and Mrs. Turmell as hosts. The spring theme was further carried out here and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luke McAnulty where dessert was served.

Assisting Mrs. McAnulty were Miss Belk and Mr. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fruits, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. McAnulty, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Burke, Miss Coad, Miss Richardson, Miss Coad, Miss Belk, Mrs. Turmell and Mr. Smith were in the party.

At cards at the McAnulty home, high went to Mr. Hendrickson and the consolation award to Miss Coad.

Mrs. C. L. Harvey, Mrs. Will Wood, Mayme Whittington and Mrs. Glenn Kent will be the hostess committee for the next regular meeting of the club of Past Matrons of the Eastern Star, to be held April 30 at the Masonic temple. The time, 1 o'clock.
