Martha and Shops

For May Days

on the campus . . . or for graduation week . . . MILLER'S Cotton Shop . . . on the second floor . . . is plentifully stocked with adorably styled washables for the teen-agers . . . in sizes 9 to 15 . . . but about the most popular for all-summer occasions are the smart linen suit-dresses . . . available in a wide range of pastels or in solid colors combined with linen prints.

Especially fetching among these is a two-piece Doris Dodson frock. A print skirt flares beneath a square-necked blouse top, on which applique trim matches the skirt. In another distinctive style, a cool dress of rayon print is combined with a hip-length linen jacket.

Wonderfully tuckable linen suits in blue, aqua, pink or white are featured in the June Bentley's . . . and equally fresh looking are the two-pieces of plaid gingham on which white pique is used for collars and cuffs.

Sparklingly gay are the pastel chintz . . . short jackets topping full, swing skirts of striped chintz . . . and new pastel shades have arrived in the well-known Nellie Don shirtwaisters . . . ranging in size from 9 to 14.

Jaunty Junior, Jonathan Logan and Babs are other familiar names represented in the excellent variety of summer cottons now on display at MILLER'S . . . 812 Main.

If rugs are given an annual beating during spring housecleaning, beat only on the wrong side with a wide, flat beater to loosen deeply imbedded soil. After beating vacuum on both sides.

Faberge' Perfumes

are back at CURRIN'S for the first time since pre-war days . . . and all four of the enchanting Faberge' fragrances are being greeted with delight . . . although tantalizing "Tigress" is in the popularity lead so far . . . maybe due to the splashed orange and black containers that fit the name.

Sprightly "Woodhues" and debonair "Aphrodite" are the lighter fragrances of the group . . . intoxicating "Tigress" and "Tigress" are the heavier, more sophisticated.

Faberge's extraordinary colognes are available in all these four scents, ranging in price from $1.25 to $6.00. The perfumes sell for $5.50 and $8.00 . . . but purse flacons sizes are only $2.00 and $3.00. (All prices plus tax.)

This first shipment included matching fragrances in body powder for $1.75 and $3.50, shaker, hair and a variety of gift sets . . . one containing the four colognes priced at $5.00.

There are also "Woodhues" and "Aphrodite" colognes for men in this Faberge' line . . . exclusive with CURRIN'S . . . the friendly drug store at Ninth and Main.

With camisole-topped petticoats back in the fashion picture, lingerie clasp are staging a comeback in decorative silver, gold or enameled to line up straps for a neater appearance beneath sheer blouses.

CARE Packages

can now be purchased right here in Klamath Falls . . . at the PELICAN CANDY JAR . . . for sending to friends or relatives in war-depressed Europe. The procedure is far simpler than trying to pack and mail your own . . . because there are no duties, no taxes, no postage on these CARE packages from a government-approved, non-profit organization.

By dropping into The Candy Jar, you can see for yourself just what each $10 carton of food contains . . . enough to supplement rations of a family of four for a month. The same amount would cost $9.67 in a store, plus $4.25 average postage to Europe . . . and receipted delivery is guaranteed in practically all countries.

In addition to food supplies, there are special packages for infants, and others filled with household supplies, or clothing materials . . . any of which can be sent through the PELICAN CANDY JAR . . . 722 Main . . . to any designated person in Europe at the same charge of $10 . . . without any extra for postage or duty.

Shoes are stepping out in every color. Combinations of three rainbow shades are used on suede slung pumps as piping for platform soles, sandals of twenty-karat gold kid will be seen everywhere, and white satin evening shoes have gem-embroidered gold mesh insets. Their platform soles are studded with vari-colored jewels.

Turkey Pie

is frozen, ready for baking . . . is an interesting new quicke in the frozen foods box at PINE STREET MARKET . . . where you're rewarded quite regularly by something new and different in foods that lend zest to the menu. These pies from Chef's kitchen are individually wrapped in cellophane . . . and with each comes a frozen square that provides rich giblet gravy when melted.

Another new time-saver is Q-T Instant Frosting . . . in three colors and flavors . . . vanilla, chocolate or pink (strawberry). Martha tried the strawberry over a banana cake and found it very good, as well as decorative.

Swiftening . . . that improved shortening put out by Swift & Co. . . is being featured at PINE STREET MARKET . . . corner of Seventh and Pine . . . and you'll find it's excellent for pastries . . . or even to use in frostings. One outstanding quality is that it needn't be kept under refrigeration to prevent its becoming rancid.

Gossard's

"Line of Beauty" . . . at WHYTALE'S, in the Medical-Dental building . . . was replenished this week by the arrival of new numbers in girdles, combinations and bras . . . which will be good news if you've been waiting for a special size in these foundation garments of quality.

Typical examples of "Southern belle" hats were shown in the "Fetes des Chapeaux" parade in New Orleans. Among the most outstanding was a vanilla-colored straw on which the brim was bound with turquoise velvet and masked with yellow poppies sheathed in yellow tulle. Apples were made of pink woven horse-hair braid, trimmed with pink roses, and with a green tulle veiled duster fashion beneath the chin.

Bonanza Cloth

a sturdy cotton fabric of fine texture . . . soft enough for a tenderfoot . . . vat dyed and sanforized, is used for the exceptional collection. The play clothes just received by WHYTALE'S from Fleischman's Apparel City in California. And the name Fleischman, you know, signifies quality and washability.

Favored by Martha is a beautifully fitting sunbaker dress of copper color. Nifty for wearing with it . . . as a concealing garment . . . is a pelum bloused in electric blue or a light grey boxy jacket with huge buttoned pockets.

Being displayed as a matching trio in "Bonanza Cloth" are a swim skirt, halter and pedal pushers in a vivid shade . . . but other colors are also available for mix or match in this selection which includes shorts, pedal pushers, skirts, sunbaker dresses, jackets and blouses. Leisure apparel for warm weather is arriving in a variety of cottons at WHYTALE'S . . . in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth. One especially cute number is a peasant style dress of splashy print seersucker, for covering up a matching playsuit. A bolero jacket-swing skirt duo is fashioned of the same material. In case you'd like a complete outfit . . .

If you've been hankering for a fur scarf, you can start modestly with two skins, then increase its size and showiness by adding more skins whenever funds permit. However, furriers caution not to wait more than two or three years to make additions, as original skins are fairly safe from deterioration in that period of time.

Silver Week

being observed nationwide from April 20 to May 1 . . . is being linked with diamonds at RICKY'S. Inasmuch as April is the traditional diamond month. Throughout this observance . . . there's only a week left, remember . . . an F. B. Rogers four-piece silver tea set is being given away with every purchase where a diamond is involved . . . be it a ring or otherwise.

So, if you have a wedding date set for May or June, you'll certainly be wisely taking advantage of a splendid offer by choosing a ring now . . . while you can have one of these tea sets absolutely free. In fact, they were purchased by Ricky's especially for this event . . . and are not even priced!

The set . . . which doubles nicely as a coffee service . . . includes a teapot, creamer and sugar, plus tray . . . something you'll be proud to show off. But if you aren't interested in rings this April . . . there are still the diamond set watches or diamond earrings at RICKY'S JEWELERS . . . 700 Main.

In arranging stiff-spined flowers like calla lilies or gladioli, experts on flower arranging say to rub the stalk gently to make them arch and sway out gracefully from a low bowl. Allow the warmth and pull of your hand to soften up the buds where you want it to bend, and cut the stems in graduated lengths.

No Waiting Now

at STAR BEAUTY SHOP to have your beauty work done . . . not since Cordia Nash became the new owner and made changes in its method of operating, along with a complete renovation of the interior. The walls are attractively brightened by a color combination of blue and peach . . . and other improvements have been added.

The shop is proud of its policy that there shall be no larkful waiting for appointments . . . and you can get a manicure, one of its specialties, practically any time without previous booking.

On the staff, besides Mrs. Nash, are Claire Hall, a former Dumasnair operator, Zoe Bruce and Jerry Robinson . . . at STAR BEAUTY SALON . . . 435 Main . . . in the rear of the Star Drug Store. The phone number is 7085.

Precious touches such as gold belts or velvet sashes have raised simple cotton dresses to the ranks of high-styled nifties. Swirling skirts have turned their former severity into charm.

Pretty Horsey

are the new batch of hankies just in at THE TOWN SHOP . . . for there are three different types featuring heads of horses . . . brown or gray-toned prints from Switzerland, priced at a dollar . . . inexpensive colored prints for 65 cents . . . and matched embroidered sets for the men, as well as the ladies, for $1.25 and $2.95. A dandy little gift suggestion for the one in your family whose hobby is horses!

With Mother's Day coming up you'll be interested in learning that lots of other dainty new numbers have also arrived. About the most effective are the black Swiss linen sheers, edged in white . . . or with beautiful petit point designs in colors.

Perfectly gorgeous are the all-white shadow prints for $1.50 . . . and ever-popular, those enhanced by Chinese hand-work or the lovely embroidered patches. Handkerchiefs of pure linen or chagry Swiss sheers from the Studio of Carol Stanley are also found among this newest collection at THE TOWN SHOP . . . Main at Fifth.
