

Miss Spannaus Weds Friday Eve

Calla lilies, pink and white snapdragons and ferns against many tulle formed the background for the wedding of Katherine Spannaus and Ernest Palone at the Assembly of God church Friday evening, April 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Spannaus and the niece of Mrs. George Hurn of this city, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Palone of Stillwell, Oklahoma.

Given in marriage by her uncle Carl Grubb, the bride wore a white satin gown with a full lace veil and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses caught with white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a double-ring gold pin which had been worn by her mother and her grandmother on their wedding days. The bride's attendant was Tessie Higby, who wore a floor length frock of pink tulle and carried roses, lily and sweet peas. The best man was Opal English and ushers were Bob Carroll, Monroe Albritton and Wade Baker.

Just before the ceremony, which was read by the Rev. C. G. Ross, Mrs. Muriel Garich sang, "Because." Miss Marie Obenchain was the accompanist and she also played the traditional wedding processional and recessional.

A reception followed at the Spannaus home, 2344 Hadcliffe, where the bride and groom cut their wedding cake.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spannaus wore a blue crepe gown with matching hat and a rosebud corsage.

Immediately after the reception, the young couple left for a two weeks' wedding trip which will take them to the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a periwinkle blue crepe suit with white accessories and a red rosebud corsage. Both the bride and groom are employed at Ewauna Box company, she in the office and he in the planing mill.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ling of Yreka, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner of Yreka, Calif., Mrs. B. H. Elliott of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Moore of Ashland.

The League of Women Voters announces a fourth orientation meeting to be held at the home of Mrs.

WED APRIL SIXTEENTH at the Assembly of God church were Katherine Spannaus, daughter of Mrs. Grace Spannaus of this city, and Ernest Palone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Palone of Stillwell, Oklahoma. They will make their home in Klamath Falls. —Evergreen

Club's Year

Tulelake gardeners this week re-organized the Tulelake Garden club, re-selecting the panel of officers that served prior to the war years. Meetings of the club were discontinued when war work absorbed attention of the women who were then members.

The club, one of the biggest and most active in the basin met Tuesday afternoon in the church annex with Mrs. George Yost, Mrs. French Johnson, Mrs. Tom Newton and Mrs. Walter Reynolds as hostesses.

Meetings will be held each second and fourth Tuesday afternoons from now until the last of September and once a month from October 1 through February.

No spring plant sale will be held this year since re-organization was too late but the members will concentrate on a flower show to be held probably in August. A tulip tea is planned for some time in May at the home of Mrs. William Hooper and the members will work during the fall and winter months on seasonal decor.

Suggested subjects for study during this summer are landscaping, flower arrangement, house plants and pruning and transplanting. Re-elected to office were Mrs. M. V. Maxwell, president; Mrs. Olney Budd, vice president; Mrs. Marvin Thomas, secretary and Mrs. William Hooper, treasurer.

An invitation is extended to everyone interested in gardening, especially the new homesteaders, to join the club.

Woodcraft

Friendship

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, held its regular April meeting in the Masonic temple Wednesday evening, April 21. Royal Matron Mary Ellen Gaster presided as the routine business of the court was conducted. The highlight of the evening was the exemplification of the initiatory degree.

Under the guidance of Clyde Thompson, royal patron, the degree of the order was conferred upon Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith and Mrs. Nina Currier. This was the first class of candidates for the 1948 officers and the work was beautifully and impressively done.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horne. Decorations in the courtroom were arranged by Mrs. T. H. Reeves and Mrs. Larry Baker.

C. E. Dennis, 103 Pine, Monday evening, April 26, at 7:30. Any woman interested in attending please contact Mrs. Everett Dennis, membership chairman, at 9509.

OES Meeting

Aloha chapter No. 61, Klamath Falls, Cascade Crest chapter No. 159, Chiloquin, and Prosperity chapter No. 160, Malin, met Tuesday evening April 20 at the Masonic temple in Klamath Falls in special session to welcome Catherine Felger of Ashland, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of the State of Oregon on her official visit to this district. Accompanying her was Virginia Brown of Klamath Falls, Grand Worthy of the Grand Chapter. Worthy Matron Alma Getz and Worthy Patron James Hunter of Aloha chapter, Worthy Matron Athel Roser and Worthy Patron Lew Kellison of Cascade Crest chapter, and Worthy Matron Gladys Halousek and Worthy Patron Joe Halousek of Prosperity chapter presided jointly over the meeting.

Officers and members of all the chapters represented were complimented by the worthy grand matron on the progress and accomplishments the organization has made in the past year. Agnes Bronson, worthy matron from Tulelake chapter, Tulelake, California, was an out of state guest for the evening.

Courtesy girls from all three chapters presented gifts to the distinguished guest with appropriate ceremonies. Hostesses for the evening were Past Matrons Nadie Holloway and Blanche Bechtel. Table and flower decorations for the event were through the courtesy of Minnie Grizzle, Mrs. H. E. Stone, Vera Chase and Madelon Adler.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the banquet room by the committee consisting of Ora Gienger, chairman, Vera Clemmens, Joannah Chapman, Dixie Beiber, Betty Hanley and Katherine Crismon. They were assisted by members from Cascade Crest and Prosperity chapters. The next meeting of Aloha chapters on April 27, will be for the purpose of conducting initiation of candidates.

On May 11 the annual meeting honoring past matrons and past patrons will be held.
