

News PTA Notes

Pelican
New officers elected by Pelican PTA at the April 21 meeting are: president, Mrs. Scott Warren; first vice president, Mrs. J. A. Hevins; second vice president, Mrs. T. B. Bonner; secretary, Mrs. Ray Booth; treasurer, Mrs. George Vinson. Installation of the officers will be held at the annual meeting, May 19.

Children of Pelican school presented a rehearsal of their part of the musical extravaganza. Costumes were made by mothers. Mrs. Lois Lind directed with Mrs. Leigh Penning, accompanist.

The association voted to pay expenses of the four visiting delegates who will represent Pelican PTA at the state convention.

Mrs. Louis Orrell Jr., Summer Round-up chairman reported on the plans for health check-ups of children who will be first graders next fall. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers sent a Summer Round-up certificate to Pelican PTA.

The seventh grade won the room count. Mrs. Elmer Owens and Mrs. Lind, assisted by seventh grade girls, served refreshments in the cafeteria.

Riverside
Tuesday night, April 20, new officers of the Riverside PTA were installed. Those taking office for the remainder of 1948 and the coming year were Mrs. H. A. Moore, president; Mrs. G. Loomis, vice president; Mrs. Lingheitt, secretary; and Mrs. E. C. Reed, treasurer.

Verne Speirs, principal of Mills school, spoke on the subject, "Child's Consciousness." The subject dealt with the progress made by children and that what can be expected of one child cannot be expected of another. Mr. Speirs explained why this was so.

After the meeting the pupils of Riverside school presented fathers and mothers and friends with a gift in the form of a program. The theme of their show was early American songs and dances. The singing was beautiful, the dancing gay and the old-fashioned dresses most colorful.

The school orchestra played as a group and in sections and showed great progress.

We, the parents of Riverside school children, wish to thank our teachers and pupils for a most enjoyable evening of entertainment. Also, our thanks to all the mothers who supplied the gathering with pie and refreshments.

Mills
Mills PTA met Friday, April 17, for their regular meeting. Mrs. M. F. Shreeves was in charge of the program. Freda Erle's sixth grade, assisted by eight seventh graders, sang folk songs from many lands. Ruth Roentke read a little story preceding each song.

Mr. Jones presented 11 of his seventh grade boys in an exhibition of physical exercises.

Miss Rogers's third grade and Miss Haldeman's sixth grade won the room count. Verne Speirs, principal, told the audience some interesting facts about the new auditorium which will soon be under construction. Two films were presented, "Boundary Lines" and "The Sport Parade." A white elephant sale was conducted by Arthur Pecco who was assisted by Mrs. R. C. Brodler, Mrs. C. A. Shoop, Mrs. R. Ford and Mrs. R. B. Pappworth.

A baked food sale was held in the cafeteria. Mrs. G. E. Matthews was chairman of the committee and was assisted by Mrs. E. L. Burke, Mrs. Ray Garrison, Mrs. W. C. Westin and Mrs. Stewart Day.

Refreshments were served in the basement by Mrs. C. B. Mills, Mrs. Fred Heyford and Mrs. R. W. Thomas.

Murder Will Out

Joe the Killer slugged the man, went through his pockets, took his wad and skipped the country. To the day of his death, Joe never told a living soul, yet murder will out.

You see Joe stand before the great White Throne on the day of Judgement when the books are opened and the lost dead are judged out of the things written in the books. There it is Joe—All murderers have their part in the Lake of Fire. This is the Second Death—eternal separation from God. And you, Mr. and Mrs. So Good, God named you a murderer that day you had a flash of hate at your brother. — "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer." — 1 John 3:15.

To escape the wrath to come, obey God. Believe in Christ as your own Lord and Saviour who died for you. At that God counts you cleared and gives you eternal life. Rom. 6:23.

"To me to be a Christian means a fixed hope for the future. It is assurance of eternity with the Eternal Father and His Son, Jesus Christ." J. F. STROMBECK, Mgr., Moline, Ill.

Arthur Martin, navy veteran who drew homestead land at Yuma, Arizona, will leave Saturday for his farm. He returned here early this week to take part in the Barber Shop concert in Klamath Falls Friday night. Mrs. Martin and their young son Jimmy will remain with Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, until the new Martin home, now under construction, is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ryckman drove south last week, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nelson, son-in-law and daughter of Chico, a second daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prenger and family, Concord, and later at the home of Mr. Ryckman's brother and Mrs. Ryckman's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo S. Ryckman, San Francisco. They were accompanied south by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Sunnyside, Wash., who flew down as far as Chemult, where they were grounded by bad weather. Mrs. Johnson is also a sister of the two Mrs. Ryckmans.
