LA VERNE AMBERS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ambers of Gates, Oregon, and formerly of Klamath Falls, will wed Robert E. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Robertson Sr., of Shady Pine, on June 27.

"I Love You Truly" was played just before the bridal party entered the living room through an archway. Rev. McClain played the wedding march.

The bride was lovely in a soft rose suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses and carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas and rosebuds with ribbon streamers over a white Bible.

Mrs. Raymond Maye of this city was her sister's attendant. She wore a grey suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Melvin Berry was his brother's best man.

The two little flower girls were Darlene Maye, niece of the bride, and Sandra Stone, niece of the groom. Both wore yellow silk frocks and carried white flower baskets tied with blue and white ribbons. They scattered rose petals in the bride's path.

Mrs. Graham Berry, mother of the groom, wore a grey afternoon dress with a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was recorded for the young couple, the new Mr. and Mrs. Berry cut their wedding cake. Mrs. Clifford Stone and Mrs. Maye assisted in serving. The wedding was attended only by members of the immediate families and a few close relatives and Mrs. Gladys Milford. Mr. and Mrs. Berry will make their home at 1030 California avenue.

Xi Delta

The regular meeting of the Xi Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. James Crapo with Mrs. Russell Brackman as hostess.
