

Ohampi and Makahwee
The Ohampi and Makahwee Camp Fire groups of Fairhaven gave a play at the last PTA meeting, April 9, called "The Flag Speaks". It was a play based on the United Nations Preamble. In the cast were Beverly Ferniman as Sally Drew; Mary Egan as Charlotte; Jean Jamieson as Lillian; and in the chorus were Beverly Hurlbut, Carolyn Stoler, Betty Lou Davis, Betty Cowan, Shirley Henry, Joan Hickman, Geraldine Loomis, Arlene Lynch, Nancy Lynch, De Loris Cone, Lois Husted, Shariene Loomis, Helma Hurlbut; the single voice was Virginia Martz. Jean Jamieson, Scribe.

Sacajawea Horizon Club
The Coca-Cola Bottling company on Spruce street was visited by the Sacajawea group of Horizon club girls, April 5.

About 12 girls in the group made the trip where they saw the bottles being cleaned, filled with syrup and carbonated water, capped, mixed and packed in cartons and cases. Following the tour each was given a bottle of Coke.

This is intended to be only the first of a number of tours in various establishments about town. Flo Ann Perkins, Scribe.

The Sacajawea club met again the 19th of April to elect officers. The new officers are president, Geraldine Lewis; vice president, Phyllis Lynch; secretary, Barbara Swanson; treasurer, Claudette Gleason; scribe, Arlene Brallier.

The girls who were interested filled out application blanks for the Camp Fire Day camp, June 28 to July 5 and July 6 to 9. This is to learn the work for assistant counselors at established camp, Lake o' the Woods. New Scribe, Arlene Brallier.

Okishi Horizon Club
Two special films were shown the Freshman Horizon girls in the Okishi club by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hooker who entertained the girls in their home on the evening of April 8.

Movies taken at a party given before their junior high graduation were especially well received by the girls. Travel pictures through Nevada and Arizona and of Crater lake were also enjoyed.

President Diana Binkley called a short business meeting and membership cards were presented to the charter members. Day camp at Moore park and camp at Lake o' the Woods were discussed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hooker assisted by her daughter, Mary.

Mrs. Robert Henry and her daughter, Shermalee were hostesses for the next meeting of the group on April 22. The girls engaged in general discussions and worked out some requirements for rank.

Shermalee will pass Firemaker's rank at the next Court of Awards, and Leona Leithead is completing her Torchbearer craftsman in art.

At the end of the evening refreshments of cleverly decorated cake were served with punch.

Truman Invited To Visit Oregon

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—President Truman was invited Wednesday to visit Portland, Ore., during his forthcoming trip to the west coast.

The invitation was extended by Senator Gordon (R-Ore.) in a White House call.

Gordon said later that the president was invited for the annual Rose Festival, which will be held June 9-12.

He said the president would like to attend, but did not comment himself on the invitation.

Dewey To Speak At OSC May 4

CORVALLIS, April 29 (AP)—Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, candidate for the republican presidential nomination, will speak at a special convocation at Oregon State college at 8 p. m. on May 4, it was announced Wednesday.

Preceding the speaking engagement he will inspect various industries and the OSC campus. A dinner will be given by local republicans preceding his talk. The Dewey party will spend the night here and leave the following morning for appearances at Junction City and Eugene.
