

M'Kay Winds Up Campaign In Klamath, Girds For Hall Territory Invasion

Senator Douglas McKay, republican gubernatorial candidate, concluded his last campaign visit to Klamath county last night and set his eyes on an intensive three-week drive in Portland — reputedly a stronghold of his opponent, Governor John Hall.

McKay said that his campaign stock is rising every day and that he is thoroughly optimistic over the outcome of the primary race.

"I am gaining steadily over the state," he said. "I plan to spend the next three weeks in Portland. I am better known upstate than in the big metropolitan center, and it is there that I will put in the final drive of my campaign. They will know me in Portland when it is over."

McKay spent yesterday in Klamath county, meeting many people and making a talk to the Kiwanis club. His campaign manager here is Percy Murray.

Good roads and the state's fiscal policy received the attention of the senator in the talk to the Kiwanis club.

McKay, who is chairman of the senate committee on roads and highways and a member of the interim committee on highways, said that in many cases people pay for good roads whether they get them or not.

"We have examples in this state," he said, "of road improvement projects which have actually paid for themselves, in gasoline savings to motorists, in the course of four or six years. This has been figured on the basis of the volume of travel over these roads and the shorter mileage which provides a gasoline saving."

KF Polio Group Host For Meeting

The Klamath County chapter for Infantile Paralysis is acting host for the sectional meeting to be held May 3 at the Klamath county public health department.

This is one of five meetings being held throughout the state to acquaint the chapters with the way the national association operates.

Felix Monter, state representative and Dr. Carlyle Thompson will conduct the meeting, coming directly from the San Francisco conference where new technicalities were studied.

This meeting is open to anyone interested and Mrs. Paul Buck, Klamath county chairman, extends a special invitation to people from outlying communities who so generously supported the campaign for funds.

At 7:30 p. m. there will be a chapter business meeting at the health center. Everyone who contributed to the fund is a member of the chapter and is welcome to attend.

Masons To Open Lodge

Master Masons of Klamath Falls and the basin area will be hosts to the Grand Master of Masons in Oregon, Walter Ransom of Eugene, and members of his official family, when they arrive Saturday to institute a new Masonic lodge in Klamath Falls. The petitioners for Grater Lake lodge started organization proceedings in January and have laid the ground work for the institution of the new lodge. Robert R. Simmonds has been named as master of the lodge with Floyd Bennett and Dexter Elliott as wardens.

Harry D. Proudfoot, grand secretary, Lloyd McRae, deputy grand master, and William Harrison, district deputy, are expected to be among the honored guests. The meeting will be held in the Masonic temple at 8 p. m. and will be open to all Master Masons.

Public School Week Slated

TULELAKE, April 30—The Public School Week program sponsored this week by the Masonic lodge is to give parents an opportunity to see the work the children have accomplished during the year.

This consolidated program to be presented Friday at 8 p. m. in Tulelake high school gymnasium includes Tulelake, Winema and Carr elementary schools and Tulelake high school.

Carr school will give a group of numbers. Winema will present part of the operetta "Windmills of Holland." Tulelake elementary will have numbers by all the grades and Tulelake high school will offer selections. Rev. Hugh Bronson will emcee the program which has been arranged by E. L. Coyner.

During the evening awards in the American Legion auxiliary poppy poster contest and the Americanism essay contest will be presented by Mrs. Ray Judd, district president for the Legion auxiliary.

Achievement exhibits in the high and grade school buildings may be viewed following the program.

On the question of state finance, McKay said he didn't think Oregon people ought to be too worried about the existence of substantial reserves in the state income tax funds. He said that having a reserve against a "rainy day" is a healthy condition for the state.

By the time the next legislature meets, he said, supreme court opinions will have clarified the legal issues involved in the state's financial problems, and an orderly program should be developed to take care of the needs of institutions and other agencies of government now handicapped by rising costs.

remarking on suggestions that some of the tax reserves be turned over to higher education, McKay pointed out that rural schools also need money, and that the whole situation needs to be surveyed.

McKay was introduced by Phil Hitchcock. He made no reference to his gubernatorial contest in his talk.

Li Tsung-Jen Is Chinese V-P

NANKING, April 30 (AP)—Gen. Li Tsung-jen, new "Lion of the North," was elected vice president of China Thursday.

The office is without power except the right of succession to President Chiang Kai-shek.

Li, a reform candidate who has backed Chiang on more than one occasion, roundly defeated the incumbent, Dr. Sun Fo, 1438 to 1295. Sun originally was supported by Chiang. But the president, during the election, told the national assembly delegates to vote as they chose.

Li's election, in a measure, was a minor defeat for the strong right wing of the Kuomintang—its first such political defeat in 20 years.

Students From Klamath Basin Area Talk Future At "Y" Sponsored Confab

In a one-day conference, the theme of which was "Youth Faces the Future," student delegates and their adult advisors from the high schools in Klamath basin attempted to achieve a better insight and fuller understanding of the problems facing youth in the world today and after they leave high school. Sponsored by Klamath County YMCA of Klamath Falls, Oregon and Shasta District YMCA of Redding, California, the conference was held April 27, 1948, from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. at the Methodist church, 10th and High streets, Klamath Falls, and was attended by representatives from Butte Valley high school, of Dorris, Calif., and high schools of Bly, Merrill, Glenbrook, Henley, Chiloquin, Tulelake, and Klamath Union high school.

Featured speaker at the conference was Dr. Ralph Eckert, consultant in parent education for the bureau of adult education, California state department of education. Two discussion periods were scheduled. The morning session included the following topics: Parent Education, led by a panel discussion from Merrill high school; Preparation for Homemaking and Marriage, with panel discussion by Butte Valley high school; Cliques and Gangs, with Henley high school leading the panel discussion. The afternoon session covered the topics of Dating—Boy-Girl Relations, Klamath Union high school assisting with panel discussion; Recreation, with a panel discussion from Tulelake high school; and Student-Parent Relations, led by a panel discussion from Bly high school. Dr. Eckert summarized the discussions at a general assembly, at which Novelle Dahl, Tulelake high school; Mary Parson, Butte Valley high school; Thomas F. Hauptman, Glenbrook high school; Bob Burleigh, Merrill high school; Beverly Cameron, Bly high school; Wilfred Loosley, Chiloquin high school; Edward Freier, Henley high school; and Marjorie Robinson, Klamath Union high school. 1948 council officers elected were: president, Marjorie Robinson, Klamath Union high school; vice president, Bob Burleigh, Merrill high school; secretary-treasurer, Edward Freier, Henley high school.
