Boudreau's Bat Gives Indians Sixth Straight Win In Undefeated Season

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Lou Boudreau, batting .519 for his unbeaten Cleveland Indians, is a solid argument for the survival of the player-manager in the major baseball leagues.

Last of the big leaguers who still combine the two difficult jobs, Boudreau almost lost his portfolio last fall. Only a flood of mail from aroused Tribe fans induced Owner Bill Veeck to call off a tentative trade with St. Louis.

Instead of a trade, Boudreau was signed to "virtually a two-year contract," according to Veeck.

The "crazy" of basing the Indians to six straight wins have weighed so heavily on Lou that he has been able to hit safely only 14 times in 27 at bats. This is tops in the league. With nine runs batted in, he is tied for the lead. His shortstop work remains unchallenged.

Boudreau pounded out four straight hits, including a double and home run, in yesterday's 5-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. The team now needs only three more triumphs to tie the modern day record for wins at the start of the season.

The New York Yankees got their Joe DiMaggio-Joe Page combination working for a 5-4 edge over Washington in 10 innings. The result moved the Yanks into second place, going into the important three-game series with the Red Sox at Boston today.

Honors by George McQuinn, Charley Keller and Yogi Berra weren't enough for the champs. They had to win an extra game and finally won on DiMaggio's long fly with the bases loaded and none out.

Page relieved Frank Shea, who was in trouble again by giving seven walks. Left-handed Joe picked up his first win on four hitless innings.

Boston cut loose with a barrage of homers—only each by Ted Williams, Sam Rice, Joe Doherty and Jake Jones—to another Philadelphia, 11-5, although they were out by the A's.

Eddie Mayo's error on Don Kolloway's grounder enabled Chicago to down Detroit, 5-4, for their second victory. Catcher Aaron Robinson had a perfect day for the Sox with three hits, including a homer and double.

Ebbets field proved to be the same old unhappy hunting ground for the New York Giants. Brooklyn smashed the leaders' six-game winning streak with a 17-7 shattering.

Pittsburgh climbed into second place on another fine mound job by the veteran Elmer Riddle. He scattered seven Chicago hits for his second win, 4-2.

Rookie Hank Sauer enjoyed a field day in Cincinnati's 14-inning 5-4 nod over St. Louis. Sauer tied the score with a homer in the eighth and won it in the 14th with a single. He had four hits, boosting his average to .364.

Frank homers by Dick Sisler and Harry Walker enabled the Phillies to edge the Boston Braves, 4-2.

Dallas Promises Return To U-W

SEATTLE, April 30 (AP)—Marshall Dallas, hard-driving University of Washington football back, will return to the Husky institution next fall.

Coach Howie Odell said today the two-year letterman is dropping out only to take a job during the summer. Dallas informed him he would return this fall, Odell said.

Dallas' withdrawal from school had been interpreted earlier as meaning the Huskies had lost their second star backfield man within a week. Quarterback Dick Ottele was declared ineligible last week because he signed a professional contract.

Ralph Hill Trophy Up For Milers

Decision by the 20-30 club to advance a Ralph Hill award for the mile race—top distance in the club's annual Southern Oregon - Northern California high school track meet—brings to mind the great performance and heart-breaking result of Hill's 5000-meter run in the 1932 Olympics.

Hill, long-legged Henley runner and ex-University of Oregon distance star, was the American standard bearer in the Olympic 5000-meter race and he was opposed chiefly by Lauri Lehtinen of Finland. There were other entrants, but in the run they amounted only to scenery.

In trials, a few days before the actual run, Ralph Hill paced 5000 meters (3 miles, 564.167 feet) in 14:59.6, not an overly impressive time but good enough to beat the Finnish runner handily. Consequently, the Henley athlete's stock hit top.

But what happened a few days later reverberated right down to the roots of the Olympiad.

Lehtinen got off to a good start, so did Hill, and the two were as close as Damon and Pythias through the race right down to the last 100 meters. They were practically shoulder-to-shoulder, stride-for-stride until suddenly Lehtinen broke over into Hill's path.

Sixty thousand spectators in the Los Angeles coliseum were vocal in pointing out what they believed a clear-cut fracture of Olympic rules and ethics. Not once, but three times in that last dash for the tape the Finn was seen to step into the American's path, throwing Hill off stride.

It was half an hour after they hit the tape that Lehtinen was announced as the winner.

But so close had he and Hill been at the finish that the official stop watches marked the exact time for both—14:40, an Olympic record. Lehtinen, Olympic officials ruled, had won by three inches.

Hill refused to make a protest, saying that he believed the Finn did not mean any interference. He declined to mount the victor's pedestal with Lehtinen, leaving the Finnish athlete to take the Olympic honor and gold medal alone.

And in the record books is marked down a sports oddity—Ralph Hill and Lauri Lehtinen jointly hold the 5000-meter record of 14 minutes, 30 seconds, and Hill lost the race.

Ralph still lives and runs at Henley and Saturday will be acting as clerk of the course for the high school track meet on Modoc field. Winner of the mile race, crowning event of the afternoon, will receive a trophy bearing the name of the only Klamath county man ever to run in the Olympics.

Western Mail Bag Kamloops-Seeking Anglers Cover Pend Orielle

By BILL JOHNSTON
BANDPOINT, Ida., April 30 (AP)—Two governors and 10 acres of other fishermen will go out tomorrow to catch a fighting rainbow trout 15 pounds bigger than that one you lost last summer.

It is opening day for the Kamloops rainbow season. Every angler on crowded Lake Pend Orielle suspects a new world record trout is waiting until his hook comes by.

The official world record rainbow is a 37-pounder caught in Pend Orielle last year by Wes Hamlet of Coeur d'Alene, Ida. The real champion, you understand, is still in the lake. It's just a matter of catching him.

The Kamloops trout is Bandpoint's major industry on opening day. Visitors from all over the West are expected to join in the fish fest, including Governors C. A. Robins of Idaho and Sam Ford of Montana.

Hamlet will be back to defend his championship. Radio's "Bride and Groom" program is sending Mr. and Mrs. Edmond C. Read Jr. of Glendale, Calif., to Bandpoint for their honeymoon.

Naturally, at such a celebration there are some who can't stand the sight of water and joined the gale mainly to get kam-looped, but most of the fishermen come to fish.

There are two schools of thought on how to catch a kamloops. Both sides agree that you must troll near the surface for them when the water is cold and troll deep when the lake gets warmer later in the season. The main argument is on the issue of skill vs. luck. Most of the fishermen who have never caught a kamloops argue that all you do is hold a pole all day waiting to hit the jackpot. Anglers who have landed the big ones contend there is quite a trick to it.

On opening day last year C. C. Shepherd pulled a 36-pounder from the lake to break the previous world record. The trout have had a year to grow since then, so somebody might break the record again tomorrow.

There is just a possibility that such a development wouldn't be pure one news in British Columbia, especially in the town of Kamloops, B. C.

Sandpoint sportsmen got their first kamloops eggs from British Columbia in 1941. Since then Idaho has been multiplying both its supply of trout and its publicity releases.

British Columbia fishermen complain at intervals that the "world record" kamloops caught in Pend Orielle would make good bait for the 50-pounders landed in Canada.

Idaho replies that it will keep on claiming the world's rainbow championship until the Canadians get around to getting their big fish recognized officially by Field and Stream magazine, which keeps the box scores on such matters.

The goal here, of course, is to catch a kamloops so big it would impress even the Canadians.
