Bags take top spot in accessory gifts. At present the selection includes fallies of black, navy or brown... and those quality shoe calf handbags in several types... a welcome gift at any time, they're so durable, yet handsome.

For adding something a bit extra to your Mother's Day gift, there's a marvelous selection of hankies from $1.00 to $5.95... in pure linens as sheer as silk, cut-work patterns from China, appliqued or daintily embroidered types.

Congressional wives in Washington, D. Radio Waves obtainable only at STUDIO OF BEAUTY, on the mezzanine of Whytal's... have proved remarkably satisfactory... and so popular since their introduction a few weeks ago that on some days the machine is constantly in use.

Outstanding feature of the Radio Wave is the reconditioning period which the hair goes through before curling starts... both processes controlled automatically. But worthy of special note, too, Mrs. Maithinks, is the fact that vari-sized rods are used to obtain different results... something seldom seen in permanent waving.

There are even special large rods for giving the loose, inexpensive Deb curls... at STUDIO OF BEAUTY... and you teen-age girls who are interested in this type will find it worth while calling 7151 for detailed information.

Martha Shops and Shops

White Eyelet dresses for the girl graduate appeared in the windows at WHYTAL'S this week... and they look so exactly like what diploma dresses should... charming but eloquently simple. On one style, the full skirt is enhanced by a wide ruffle, and a ruffled collar extends over the shoulder. The other is unadorned by ruffles, but has puffed sleeves and retains the pleasingly full skirt. Both have ribbon sashes, easily changed to suit your whims.

Pretty as a picture is a two-piece in a challis-like fabric of cream color, trimmed in gold beading and buttons... that would look luscious with gold kid sandals. Inexpensive, but smart for the big occasion, is a chic white chambray, designed with a high neckline, an unusual quilted bodice and very full skirt... or the tailored sharkskin in pale yellow, buttoning completely down the front.

Most graduates-to-be are looking for frocks that will double for dress-up occasions before and after the school year ends, according to Wanda... such as the distinctive but youthful Nan Parker polka dots, designed with a Peter Pan collar, peplum waistline and skirt of unpressed pleats... or the beguiling Agnes Barrett's with their white blouse tops and eyelet encircled black skirts... also being displayed at WHYTAL'S... in the Medical-Dental building, Main at Ninth.

Also new... and extremely smart... are the high-style white frocks for summer... stiffly starched to keep them looking fresh as a daisy. Providing contrast are ribbon bands or perky bows in gray, navy, black or coffee brown... and they're priced at $10.95.

You who prefer picture trims to frame the face, will want to see the handsome Italian Milan straws... in wheat, lobster brown, navy and black. The Watteau silhouette appears in these, too... in the same shades, plus kelly green... and prices on the Milans start at $12.95.

A shipment of lovely, flower-bedecked Tuscan straws... for dressy wear... arrived Friday at LAPOINTE'S... 507 Main... so why not present Mother with a gift certificate and let her select a Panama, a pique or a straw creation for the coming season.

Try putting on make-up before taking your bath, allowing vapors to have their way with powder and coloring, and see if you aren't pleased with results. Your make-up will be better blended, with a dewy rather than a powdered look.

Dill Dressing to enhance potato salad or refresh cole slaw... Garlic Dressing, the salad dressing of Hollywood... and Maraschino Raisins, delicious on grapefruit, appealing in rice pudding... are only a few of the brand new items Martha found at PINE STREET MARKET... carrying the famous Milani name... famous for pleasing people.

Other Milani offerings are a French Onion Soup Mix in two-ounce cans that makes a delicious soup when added to a quart of water... Tartar Sauce of tasty richness for fish, made without starch... a zesty Barbecue Sauce that's a treat for meats... a new Cocktail Sauce for all seafoods... Royal French Dressing... Thousand Island Dressing, for which a re-order has already been placed... and Milani's Celery, Garlic or Onion Juice, convenient kitchen seasonings for a variety of dishes.

Also available at PINE STREET MARKET... corner of Seventh and Pine... for the first time are those Supersoft cellulose dinner napkins, made in three thicknesses... the same as are used in the Pelican Cafe's party room. These 17 by 17 inch napkins... 100 to a package... possibly cost a bit too much for every-day use, but are nice for special occasions.

Marvellous Pearls... in luscious apple blossom pink... have just been received by JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP... and, although Marvella is an important name in pearls, their prices are moderate. Mother would like any of the chokers in one, two or three strands... and especially lovely for a junior high grad are the strings of dainty petite pearls.

In addition, the shipment includes the new, high five-row collar and 60-inch ropes. All the pieces have gorgeous rhinestone clasps... and there are pink pearl earrings to wear with them.

By arrival this week... rushed in for graduation... came a large shipment of Elgin and Waltham watches... both masculine and feminine types... You can have one attractively gift-wrapped... ready for presentation.

Or, in case you have some heirloom jewelry which your daughter craves, it can be revamped to modern styles by Art Reinhardt who is an experienced designer.

The new gallery... in the rear of JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP... 519 Main... is almost finished... for displaying pictures, lamps, shades, imports and statuary... so take a peek next time you're shopping there. And remember, whenever gifts are purchased at this shop, 8 and H Green Stamps benefit the giver.

Panama Hats were joyfully received by LAPOINTE'S millinery department this week... largest selection in several years... with prices starting at $8.95. Off-the-face rolled brims and jaunty sailors will be popular, as usual... but most flattering of the entire group, Martha thinks, are the new Watteau brims that give an enticing side-slant silhouette.

Also new... and extremely smart... are the high-style white frocks for summer... stiffly starched to keep them looking fresh as a daisy. Providing contrast are ribbon bands or perky bows in gray, navy, black or coffee brown... and they're priced at $10.95.

Want to renew the gloss on last year's straw hat? Go over it lightly with a cloth dipped in alcohol. You can revive limp veils by pressing it between two pieces of waxed paper with a moderately warm iron.

Jeweled Pretties were chosen by Martha to lead the list of gift suggestions for Mother from THE TOWN SHOP... because of the many novies that form a fascinating array.

Bear in mind when buying linen duds for summer that wrinkle-resistant linens are not as cool in warm weather as the untreated fabrics, and also that it has a tendency to stretch more than the untreated kind.

Hosiery Brands in six famous lines are carried by MILLER'S accessory department... and surely among these you'll find Mother's favorite to remember her on May the 9th. Most complete selection in a long time... from sheerest sheers to practical solids... carries the names of Belle-Sharmer, Holeproof, Van-Raalte, Phoenix, As You Like It and Hollyogue.

A full gathered or gored overskirt in solid-colored silk, linen, net or lightweight wool makes a snappy-looking slip-over for an old print dress, giving it a fashionable new touch for spring.

Wilson's Candies from San Francisco... The candy with the college education... chosen for a variety of assortments for the fancy packed holiday baskets from well known orchards... are new at THE CANDY JAR. And there, boys and girls, is an idea for sweets to a sweet mother on next Sunday week!

Molded chocolates with cordial-like centers are outstanding attractions of the Wilson boxes. There are several types... one, the ultra pack, combining creams and nuts with the molded. Prices run from $1.50 to $2.00.

Clever, indeed, are the Washington Apple confections... made to resemble an apple and packed in nature crates. The centers look... and since they aren't too rich, would make a nice remembrance on a youngster's birthday.

The "Pure Gold" assortment of Roger's chocolates... and appropriately packaged Hoelter's confections are being featured this coming week by PELICAN CANDY JAR... 722 Main... as a prelude in Mother's Day, May 9th... don't forget!

Powder bases which lack oil in their ingredients should be firmly rejected by older women for they accentuate age lines wickedly. Best choice is a supple base with a porous, creamy texture, tinted to improve the skin tone, but apply it with care.
