Daughters Of Nile Plan May Affair

What promises to be a delightful affair of the coming week is the tea to be given Thursday, May 6, at the home of Mrs. Loren Palmerton on Pacific Terrace, by the Klamath Falls club, Daughters of the Nile, in compliment to Mrs. Earl Newby of Ashland, past queen of Zuleima temple.

Mrs. Newby will accompany her husband here when Mr. Newby, as potestate of Hillah temple, pays an official visit to the Klamath Falls Shrine club.

The tea replaces the usual May luncheon of the group. Mrs. Palmerton is president of the club and assisting at the tea will be Mrs. Glen Hout, Mrs. Ed Osterlund, Mrs. J. V. Owens, Mrs. George H. Adler, Mrs. DeLoe Mills, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Ted Reeves, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Sr., and Mrs. Ray Byrnes.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Newby, Mrs. Oscar Kittredge, Mrs. Steven Moss and Mrs. Palmerton.

Mrs. Oliver Overmyer of Medford, queen of Zuleima temple, is expected to be here for the affair.

The tea table will stress the daughters of the Nile colors with yellow spring blossoms, candles and green appointments.

Tea hours will be from 2:30 o'clock until 5:30 o'clock.

Benefit Party
The women's tournament committee of Reames Golf and Country club has announced a benefit party slated for Saturday evening, May 8, at 8 o'clock at the clubhouse.

Prizes will be awarded and the affair is open to the membership of Reames and their guests. Proceeds will go into the trophy fund.

At a meeting of the committee Tuesday night with the chairman, Mrs. Paul Farrants, final plans for the party were outlined. Present were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Buffington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprout, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Raymond, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerzeth and Mr. and Mrs. Farrants.

Girl Scout Tea
Girl Scouts of Troop 6, of which Mrs. Elmer H. Harnden is leader and Mrs. Floyd Boyd, assistant leader, entertained Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 o'clock at the Harnden home, 836 Pacific Terrace, honoring mothers and members of the Klamath area Girl Scout council.

The girls, as part of their training and work toward awards, made the cookies, decorated the tea table, greeted guests and served tea. They used a bowl of white sweet peas and white daisies on the table with white candles.

Pouring were the troop officers, Carolyn Boyd, Joan Juckeland, Julie Harnden and Janice Larson. Other members of Troop 6 assisted about the rooms and were Geraldine Lee, Flavia Lee, Bernice Trav, Loreen Mills, Laura Gullman, Dolores Caster, Bonita Huidard and Patty Stair.

ASHLAND TO BE HOSTESS GROUP
Ashland club, Daughters of the Nile, will be hostess group to Zuleima temple No. 13, at Ashland Saturday, May 8, at 2 p. m. This is the regular May session of the temple.

Vows Exchanged April 10 In Reno

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Balentine of Klamath Falls this week announced the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Ann, to James Alton Ludlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ludlow of Orinda, California.

The young couple exchanged vows at Reno, Nevada, on the afternoon of April 10, and they are now at home at 29 El Polgar, Orinda. Nancy Ann is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and is completing her first year at Mills college at Oakland, California. She met her husband-to-be while in school. The groom, affiliated in business with his father at Orinda in steel products manufacturing, is a veteran of three years' service with the United States marine corps.

For her wedding, Nancy Ann wore a cream tone sheer wool suit with a brown picture hat and a corsage. Friends of the young couple accompanied them to Reno.

Mrs. Balentine visited recently with her daughter and expects a visit from the two at mid-summer.

Jaycee Session

A group of Klamath Falls couples left this week-end for Portland to attend the Oregon state Junior Chamber of Commerce convention.

Among those going north were Mr. and Mrs. John Sandmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Treibwasser, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, Mr. and Mrs. James Stillwell and Mr. and Mrs. James Burness Jr.

Open House At Malin Residence

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Steyskal opened their recently completed home four miles south of Malin on the old Alturas highway last Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock.

Some 200 friends of the couple from over the basin area called at their home and to enjoy the open house, and the smorgasbord served in the dining room.

Mrs. Bud Fairbro and Mrs. John Reber assisted about the rooms. Later in the evening a group of close friends from the Malin district were invited for cocktails and dancing with Mrs. Reber assisting Mrs. Steyskal.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Reber, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rajanus, Mr. and Mrs. William Rajanus, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Halousek, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steyskal, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kallina, Mr. and Mrs. John Reber, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Osterphier.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Orr, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Zumwalt, Mr. and Mrs. John James, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ottman.

Wed In North
Mr. and Mrs. Jean Prock of Bremerton, Wash., were recent visitors here at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock of Lakeshore drive.

The recently-weds were en route to California for their honeymoon. Mr. Prock is a former resident of Klamath Falls.

Klamath folks who have visited recently in Portland with Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, formerly of this city, bring back greetings and are also pleased to tell all their many friends of their good health.

MAY TWENTIETH in St. Augustine's church is the date set for Rosie Suty's marriage to Robert K. Thompson of Klamath Falls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty of Malin. —Kennell-Ellis

Mrs. Bert C. Thompson entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock to meet Mrs. Emmitt C. Smith of Portland, who is a guest here this week at the Thomas home, 828 Pacific Terrace.

Neighbors and a few close friends were invited for the tea between the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock to meet Mrs. Smith who is the mother of Don Smith, husband of the former Mary Thomas. They are now living in Kabul, Afghanistan.

Mrs. Roland Wright presided at the tea service during the first hour and Mrs. Theodore Case the second hour. The tea table was decked with lovely red tulips which Mrs. Smith brought from Portland.

Mrs. Margaret Dudley of Oakland is expected to arrive by plane Sunday to spend a week or two visiting her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley of North Seventh street.

Wedding Date

The betrothal and forthcoming marriage of Rosie Suty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty of Malin, to Robert K. Thompson, son of Kasper Thompson and the late Mrs. Thompson of Klamath Falls, were announced this week by the bride-elect's parents.

The young couple will exchange vows Thursday, May 20, in St. Augustine's church in Merrill.

Rosie attended the University of Washington for three years and majored in physical education. The groom-to-be is a graduate of Oregon State college where he majored in logging engineering. He served as a captain in the army, corps of engineers, for four years during World War 2.

Saturday Tea

A prettily arranged spring tea was given last Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock when Mrs. Don West and Mrs. Dale Welt entertained at the home of the latter in Merrill in honor of Mrs. Gerald West who has moved from Malin to reside in Merrill.

The tea table was centered with a silver bowl holding red thyllium cactus. Mrs. Virgil Rexford and Mrs. John Degnan poured and assisting about the rooms was Mrs. Kenneth Colwell.

About 26 Merrill friends of the West family were invited to the affair.
