

Mothers Week-End On Oregon Campus

Mothers will take the spotlight May 7, 8 and 9 at the annual University of Oregon Mothers Week-end, held in conjunction with Junior Week-end festivities, and many from Klamath Falls are planning to attend.

Mothers coming to Eugene for the event will register in Johnson hall from 2-5 p. m. Friday, 9-12 Saturday morning, and from 2-4:30 p. m. Saturday at Gerlinger hall, noting the name of their son or daughter's living organization. Cups will be awarded living organizations registering the highest percentage of mothers, according to Joanne Frydenlund, Eugene, chairman of the week-end.

Copies of a special Mother's Day edition of the Oregon Daily Emerald will be mailed Oregon mothers this week telling of activities on the campus as well as special events planned for the occasion.

An important event of the week-end will be the election of new officers of the mothers organization for the 1948-49 year. Present officers include Mrs. Howard J. Boyd, Eugene, state president; Mrs. Walter Thorn, Portland, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Eugene, secretary; Mrs. E. W. Grenfell, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Howard, Portland, financial secretary; Mrs. John Dundore Jr., Portland, corresponding secretary; and Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration in the University of Oregon, executive secretary.

Housing for mothers planning to visit over the week-end will be taken care of through dormitories and sororities, although a limited number of Eugene homes will be available, according to Housing Chairman Nancy Peterson, Portland. Requests for housing must be made before May 4, Miss Peterson said.

Seating accommodations have been arranged for in McArthur court for those wishing to attend the Junior Prom Saturday evening.

Among those planning to attend Mothers Week-End from here are Mrs. and Mrs. Alfred Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley, Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, Mrs. James M. Hilton, Mrs. Dean Osborn, Mrs. Leslie Wright, Mrs. Paul O. Landry, Mrs. D. P. McGillivray, Mrs. Carl Mason and Mrs. Helen Mueller.

Resided Here

Mrs. H. H. Hargreaves, who presided as president of the 35th annual convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers here this past week, is no stranger to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Hargreaves was Audrey Roberts before her marriage and spent her young girlhood here, graduating from the old Klamath County high school. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts and her father operated a grocery store here for a number of years before his retirement. She is the cousin of Fred, Bill and John Houston and Mrs. J. H. Carnahan of this city. Mrs. Hargreaves' mother was a sister to the late Jabe Houston. Long time residents will be interested to learn that her brother, Charles Roberts, is residing in Eugene.

RONNIE Sharon is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed H. Owens of 2144 Vine. Ronnie Sharon celebrated her seventh birthday at a party on March 25.

Soroptimists

Two hundred guests attended the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club. Rose Poole introduced Senator Douglas McKay, republican candidate for governor. He also heads the state for the Society of Crippled Children and Adults which is sponsored in Klamath county by the Soroptimist club. Senator McKay spoke a few words before hurrying off to another luncheon where he was to be guest speaker.

Olive Cornett introduced Mrs. McKay as her luncheon guest. Mary Bishop, president of the Klamath Falls Venture club gave a summary of the Venture club conference held last week in Bena where 55 business girls of the Northwest were in attendance. The Venture clubs are sponsored by Soroptimist clubs. The guest speakers were Soroptimists.

At the Saturday session, Lois Bell Sandall, immediate past American Federation president of Soroptimist, gave an address on the participation of women in the United Nations, and Democracy. At their Sunday morning breakfast, the invocation was given by Edna Albrecht. Dena Backes spoke on office behavior and etiquette.

Thelma Henry, president of the Soroptimist club and Doris Peyton, vice president, gave reports on their conference.

Thelma thanked all participating members for helping to make our part of the conference a success. She announced that at the next week's meeting the amendments adopted at the conference would be discussed.

BPW Meeting

Mrs. Louise Humphrey of Portland will address the Business and Professional Women's club Monday at a dinner meeting at the Willard at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. Humphrey will speak on "Women for Policy Making Posts" and also discuss the three tax measures which will be on the November ballot.

Invitations are extended to members of other clubs to attend this meeting. Clubs invited and the person with whom members should make reservations are:

The League of Women Voters, Mrs. Robert Arrington, call 4709; AAUW, Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, 5766; Soroptimist, Mrs. Earl Hamilton, 3323; Toastmistress, Mrs. Rufus Quillen, 5165; Quota, Mrs. Otto Vitis, 5373.

Entertains

Nadine Yockey entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yockey, 125 Sheldon, following the KUHS publications banquet Wednesday evening at the Winema hotel. Dancing followed by refreshments was the program of the evening.

Guests were Howard B. Holt, advertiser; Helen Jackson, John Young, Marcelle Murray, Howard Borough, Dee Miller, Ronnie Brown, Gailya Eichendorf, John Epley, Jim Owens, Bill Mosby, June Henley, Mary Lou Case, Ken Torgerson, Bob Hooker, Edith Wissenbach, Beverly Young, Georgianna Clark, Rosemary Murray, Rosemary Bigbie, Rod Bell and the hostess, Nadine.

Traveling by plane, Barbara Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Peterson, left last Saturday for Minneapolis to visit relatives. Today, May 1, she served as maid of honor at the wedding of Jane Steffen and Dr. B. R. Geurs. Barbara and the bride were classmates at St. Mary's School of Nursing in Rochester, Minn. Barbara will visit in Stanley, Wis., and Rochester before returning home.

LILA COX, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obenchain of Lily, has joined the ranks of brides-elect. She will be married May 15 at the First Methodist church in Klamath Falls to Lester W. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. McDonald of The Dalles. Miss Cox has resigned her position, effective May 1, with the United States forest service at Lakeview.

Quota Club Has Installation

Cardulla Eells took over her duties as president of the Quota club of Klamath county in an impressive installation ceremony and dinner meeting in the Pelican party room Monday evening, April 26.

Alice Vitis, retiring president of Quota club, presided and installed the new officers in a candle light service. Clara Sherman took over the work as first vice president; Helen Spiker, second vice president; Vera Chase, secretary; Alexis Runyan, treasurer, and the following directors, Marjorie Eagle, Anne Mason, Mable Randle and Alice Vitis, as outgoing president.

New members received by the club and initiated at this time were given their Quota pin and each presented with a corsage of red roses, official flower of the club. They are, Virginia Calhoun, Juanita Nellis, Florence Shirk, Gladys Brody, Hazel Morrison, Katherine Coles and Lavonne Hooper.

Anne Mason presided as initiation chairman. Mabel Randle, past president of Quota club of Everett, Wash., presented Mrs. Vitis with a past president's pin and also a gift from the club in appreciation of her year's work.

Following dinner there was an informal hour of discussion and plans were made for the new year of the organization. Roses and spring blossoms completed the effective table decorations.

The next meeting of Quota club is May 10 at noon in the Pelican party room.

Book Review

Grace Kintgen was hostess to the Business and Professional Women's Edith Cunniff Book club, Monday evening, April 26 in her home at 120 Eldorado street. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock to the following members, Bernice Britt, Suzanne Hamilton, Eleanor Weatherford, Gertrude Tolle, Dorothy Ackerman, Isabelle Brixner, Lorraine Quillen, Lucile Tweed, Annie Struthers, Jackie Newcom, Ollie Landrum, Clara Shaw, Coral Sabo, and the hostess, Grace Kintgen.

Coral Sabo was reviewer for the evening and chose the book "Profit in the Wilderness" by Hermann Hagedorn. The review proved very interesting and timely, with many expressing the desire to read the book.

Mrs. Cornett Is Honored By Unit

Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, rep., a candidate for national committee woman from Oregon, was honored at the luncheon meeting of the Oregon Council of Republican Women Inc. Monday at luncheon in the Pelican party room.

The Klamath Falls unit chairman, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, presided at the 1 o'clock luncheon and introduced Mrs. Cornett. In response, Mrs. Cornett said she hoped to serve the republican party to the best of her ability and she was presented with a corsage as a gift from the unit.

Mrs. Fredric W. Young, vice chairman of the Multnomah county central committee, Portland, was a guest at the luncheon. She was introduced by Mrs. Cornett and spoke briefly on the amount of detail work that must be done by women in the forthcoming campaign.

Other guests at the luncheon included Mrs. Eva Arthur of Lakeview, chairman of the Lake county central committee, and chairman of the Lakeview unit of the Council of Oregon Republican Women, and Mrs. Myrtle L. Stephenson of Lakeview.

The local unit voted not to hold meetings in June and July, but there will be a meeting on Monday, May 24, at which time the day has been designated as the birthday meeting of the Council of Republican Women in Oregon. Each member is to bring a contribution of money as many years old as she is. This will be put in the birthday box to be sent the council in care of Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, state president, to help maintain the state office in Portland.

A panel discussion led by Mrs. George Adler as moderator, assisted by Mrs. Don Kenyon, Mrs. Oscar Kiltredge, Mrs. K. L. Moore and Mrs. Otto Vitis, discussed the Marshall Plan and answered questions during the following hour.

Bill Perrin arrived home Friday night from the University of Oregon at Eugene to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin of Pacific Terrace. Bill's guest was Gene Hogan, University student, who is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Henderson of 1972 Earle street.

THE BETROTHAL of Doris Janell Angel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse J. Angel, route 1, box 1007, city, to James Peters, son of Mrs. James Peters and the late Mr. Peters of Butte, Mont., was announced this week. The young couple will wed August 7. The bride-elect is a graduate of KUHS and is now a member of the Balsiger Motor company staff. The groom is also with Balsiger's. He has had two years' service with the army infantry, serving in the Aleutians and the Philippines.

AAUW Luncheon

Klamath chapter, American Association of University Women, will meet Saturday, May 8, in the Pelican party room for a 12:45 o'clock luncheon followed by the annual installation of officers.

At this time there will be a report on the recent state AAUW convention held in Lakeview. Reporting will be the official delegates who attended from here.

Mrs. Ray Janz and Mrs. W. E. Dederick were among the delegates to the Oregon Council of P.T.A. convention from Portland. They represented the Kerns school in the Portland system. Mrs. Janz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cleghorn, 219 Huitt, and the two delegates were guests at the Cleghorn home while attending the convention.
