

Eulalona Chapter Slates Meeting

Mrs. Louis R. Mann, 1437 Pacific Terrace, will be hostess to members of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the regular monthly meeting, Monday evening, May 3, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Lewis C. Hornby, chapter chairman of advancement of American music, will preside during the program hour. The topic for the evening will be American Music. Vocal soloists to be presented by Mrs. Hornby will include Brent Hedberg and Sally Seary, who will be accompanied by Mrs. George W. McIntyre. Marilee Crawford, pupil of Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchellmore, will be heard in a piano solo.

Members of Eulalona chapter are gratified over the election of Jeanette Isabella Dentler, Portland, to the office of vice president-general of the national society D.A.H., at the continental congress held in Washington, D. C., during the week of April 19. Miss Dentler is retiring from the D.A.H. She has a B.A. from the University of Oregon, is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is a singer and harpist. Miss Dentler paid an official visit to Eulalona chapter last September and was much admired for her ability, poise and charm.

Mrs. Archie W. McKeown, Hood River, was installed as Oregon's new regent, at the national congress, Mrs. McKeown has her B.A. degree from Willamette university, 1923, and an M.A. degree from the University of Oregon, 1937. She is an author of historical and human interest stories.

At the Monday evening meeting officers for the coming chapter year will be elected following the report of the nominating committee composed of Mrs. William Owsley, chairman, Mrs. Charles J. Martin and Mrs. B. C. Thomas. Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchellmore, chapter regent, will preside during the business session.

Nomination

Nomination of officers took up the business meeting of the Eagles auxiliary Tuesday night. Crystal Cochran and Dorothy Ackerman were nominated for the office of madam president; Mary Melton, madam vice president; Anna Dale, madam chaplain; Mary Wells and Ruth Meek, madam secretary; Maudie Larson, madam treasurer; Lucille Ruge and Mabel Young, trustees; Betty Kettler, conductor; Mary Jones, inside guard; Mary Davis, outside guard.

Election will be held Tuesday, May 3. At this time Mothers' night will be observed and all mothers will be honored guests. In a previous report, the names of Agnes Nelson and Mildred Mosby were omitted. They put on one of the comedy skits for the aerie April 25.

Delegates were nominated and will be elected Tuesday evening to attend a meeting at Eugene May 16, for institution of all auxiliaries to P.O.E. They will then be organized as auxiliaries to the grand aerie. G. C. Perrell, aerie, and Stella Perrell, auxiliary, will be in charge of the Mother's Day program.

LITTLE EARLY for a pretty sunsuit but Shirley Jean poses just the same. She is the 18-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kamarad, 727 Plum, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hulin-sky who are expected here for a visit from their home in Nebraska.

Rinse your pot with boiling water just before brewing tea. This helps keep the brewing water hot —one secret of flavorful tea. Another is to insist on Tree Tea—it's blended with rare Darjeeling, most flavorful of teas.
