RC Office Help Needed

Volunteers to assist with office social work are needed by the Klamath County Red Cross chapter, and a new course of study has been planned to orient workers.

Mrs. J. C. Miller will conduct the course with the first meeting arranged for Tuesday, May 11, at 1:30 p. m. at Red Cross headquarters, 1111 Walnut. Mrs. Miller holds a Red Cross instruction certificate in social welfare aide training.

Those who volunteer their time will help interview people coming to the Red Cross office for information and service, and will make home visits to offer the same services to those who cannot come to the office. Any woman interested is invited to contact Mrs. Miller or the Red Cross office, telephone 7184. Those who have signed up so far are Mrs. C. S. Robertson, Mrs. Howard Hutchins, Mrs. Robert Toogood, Mrs. Keren Lancaster, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. Victor O'Neill, Mrs. Jerry Perrell and Mrs. Carl Steubens.

Time of later meetings in the 30-hour orientation course will be decided at the first session, Tuesday.

Under the sponsorship of the Klamath County chamber of commerce, the Pelicania spring show will be presented tonight in the KUHS auditorium. Starting at 8:30 a ninety-minute show will be given, the first thirty minutes broadcast over station KPJI. Weeks of effort on the part of the Script and Mike and the Pelicania staff have preceded tonight, and the RASP department hopes that a large audience will attend the show in person.

The cast in addition to the Pelicania staff consists of Rex Mills, Carol Bestman, Joan Fitzwater, Doris James, Patricia Leishan, Corliss Mayfield, Maxine Pugh, Phyllis Raley, and Barbara Snyder.

Alvin Daniel has been selected as E. J. A. candidate for the Elks' scholarship, a $1000 prize to some student in Klamath county to be used for college. This is the first year that this scholarship has been given, and Alvin will be competing with students from each high school in Klamath county. A senior, Alvin, has been especially prominent in work in the woodworking department, and has served as head of the stage crew in building all the sets for plays and music concerts for the past two years; he is also a member of the Honor society.

Junior and senior boys got together to nominate nine girls to serve as princesses for the annual Jaycee boat regatta. June 13 will be the date of this year's festivities, and the nine princesses will compete for the title of queen by ticket sales. Last year's queen was graduate Connie Hunt, she was followed in ticket sales by Donna Edwards, Mary Lou Stanbery and Trudy Bennett.
