and place went to Mrs. I. White and third to Mrs. U. Valdez. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. White are from Henley and Mrs. Valdez from Modoc Point. Each received a World Atlas from Shasta Stationery.

Beauty Award
Mrs. Mark D. Taylor, chairman of the Klamath Falls unit, credited with bringing the most members to the festival, is to receive a beauty appointment at the Charm Center.

Helen Stone, Klamath county home demonstration leader, greeted those arriving for the morning session.

Presiding at the luncheon served to 250 guests by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, was Mrs. Percy Cook, member of the Klamath county home economics council.

The blessing was offered by Rev. Victor Phillips.

Mrs. Cook introduced Mrs. Mabel Mack, state assistant leader; Mrs. E. E. Kilpatrick, treasurer, Oregon home economics extension council, both of whom reported on the year's county home economic leader; Mrs. Lee Holliday, chairman of the county home extension committee and general chairman of the festival committee; Mrs. Wesley Harney, chairman of the Azalea House committee; Mrs. Rose Pool, state Klamath county agricultural agent; Francis A. Skinner, 4-H club leader and others during the luncheon.

Gavel Awarded
The gavel award for 1947-48 went to the Henley unit. The presentation was made by Mrs. Holliday and the recipient was Mrs. Howard Jackson, Henley chairman. Second place went to Klamath Falls and third place was a tie between Shasta-Homedale and Midland.

Selection of the winning unit was based on highest percentage of members in regular attendance; highest percentage of member increase during the year; highest percentage per member contributions to the Azalea House fund, proposed $48,000 dormitory for girls at OSC; business like procedure in conducting meetings; community service (four-H clubs preferred); arrangements for child care during meetings; accurate and complete unit reports; and the number of unit members attending all meetings.

Recognition was given to Mrs. E. E. Lee, Altamont, for a perfect attendance record for five years; to Mrs. Leon Andrieu, Midland for four years; to Mrs. Henry Schmor, Bonanza; Mrs. Mary Taylor and Mrs. O. E. Matthews, Klamath Falls; Mrs. W. B. Bickers, Modoc Point; Mrs. Wesley Harney, Altamont; Mrs. Percy Cook and Mrs. Lee Holliday, Fairhaven, for three years.

Fifty-two women in the county have attended all meetings for a period of one year.

Unit chairmen and the committees they represented were Mrs. Walter Uppendahl, Altamont; Mrs. Wilbur Hook, Bly; Mrs. Verle Hestline, Bonanza; Mrs. Walter Collins, Chiloquin; Mrs. Lee Holliday, Fairhaven; Mrs. Ray Looney, Fort Klamath; Mrs. Howard Jackson, Henley; Mrs. Mark Taylor, Jr., Klamath Falls; Mrs. E. J. Laboda, Malin; Mrs. V. C. Rexford, Merrill; Mrs. Albert Schneck, Midland; Mrs. Ernest Graves, Modoc Point; Mrs. J. A. Blevins, Pelican; Mrs. O. L. Brown, Poe Valley-Olene and Mrs. C. Williams, Shasta-Homedale.

Five Candidates For Rodeo Queen

PENDLETON, Ore., May 6 (AP)—One of five Indian girls chosen from 19 candidates Tuesday will be queen of the Pendleton Roundup September 15-18.

The five chosen were Thelma Parr, 22; Gladys Shevchip, 16; Myrna Williams, 16; Vera Bill, 17, and Laura McKay, 15. All are of the Cayuse tribe except Miss McKay, a Umatilla. Miss Parr was 1939 all-American beauty contest queen at the Roundup. Her mother, Melissa Parr of Portland, was queen of the Roundup in 1932, last time an Indian reigned over the show. Gladys Shevchip won the all-American beauty contest in 1944 and Miss Williams in 1947.

Scrapbook In Top Spot

The attractive scrap book, entered by the Shasta-Homedale home economics unit in competition with 15 others from Klamath county, judged at the recent county-wide festival here was made by Mrs. Iva C. Bjorklund assisted by Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. W. M. Clark, Mrs. C. Kendall and Mrs. M. Shell.

The volume bound with an illustrated wooden cover was a record of one year of activity and included newspaper and radio announcements, pictures of officers and club members, illustrated stories of each meeting and feature entries.

It will be entered in state competition.

Wheat Outlook
Oregon wheat growers shouldn't count on the European recovery plan to increase their wheat markets. L. R. Breithaupt, OSC extension economist, says crops are better in other countries, and that grain importing countries are running short of money to import wheat. This fact, he said, will offset the increased wheat shipments under the ERP.
