WHEAT PRICES MARKED DOWN

CHICAGO, May 7 (AP)—Prices were marked down a couple of cents in wheat and corn on the board of trade at times today. Oats were off fractionally most of the season.

Belief the railroad strike might be avoided and a private forecast that Kansas still could produce a wheat crop of between 145,000,000 and 150,000,000 bushels contributed to the selling.

Wheat closed ¾-1½ lower, May $2.24¼-½, corn was 1⅝ to 2 cents lower, May $2.22¼-$2.22, oats were ⅝ to 1 cent lower, May $1.13-$1.13¼, and soybeans were 1 to 8 cents lower, May $3.89.

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close
May	2.46¾-2.47	2.47	2.44½	2.45¼-½
July	2.35-2.34¾	2.35	2.32¾	2.34-2.33¾
Sept.	2.32¼	2.32¼	2.30½	2.31¾-½

Stocks Hit Upswing

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Buying of selected oils, rails and industrials gave the stock market another average upswing today on the heaviest volume in two weeks.

Hopes for averting the threatened railway strike again prompted much of the day's demand. While many pivotals failed to shake off minus signs, or held to a narrow course, gains of fractions to around 4 points ruled near the close.

The aggregate of about 1,700,000 shares was the best since April 23.

Nickel Plate Railroad common and preferred were among the few soft spots.

Touching highs for 1948 were Frisco Railroad, Baltimore & Ohio, Sinclair Oil, Texas Co., Union Carbide and Radio Corp.

In front were General Motors, Mission Corp., Santa Fe, Chesapeake & Ohio, Firestone Tire, Montgomery Ward, Caterpillar Tractor, International Paper, Superior Oil of California and Paramount Pictures.

Bonds were mixed and major commodities irregularly lower.

Ackerman On Klamath Tour Today

Glenn C. Ackerman, 39-year-old Portlander and candidate for the GOP gubernatorial nomination, is in Klamath Falls this week-end to further his drive for primary votes. He will visit Lakeview Saturday afternoon and go to Bend next Tuesday.

Ackerman is accompanied on the tour through the state by Ray Koopman of Eugene, state secretary of the "Ackerman for Governor" committee, and Dave Karpurk of Portland.

The trio will appear for a talk before the central labor council this afternoon but most of his work here locally will be informal.

The earnest young real estate broker said that he was meeting with pretty good results in his trip over the state but that he wanted to clear up a "smear" started against him by opponents that he wanted a wide-open state.

Liquor By Drink

Ackerman is on record as favoring liquor by the drink sales, but declares that liquor consumption statistics show that monopoly states like Oregon showed an increased consumption in 1947, while bar-sale states showed a decrease.

His plan would be to amend the Knox liquor law to make purchases of amounts as small as an ounce legal, instead of the 16-ounce pint minimum Oregon now has.

"In this state," Ackerman said, "when you buy a drink you buy a drunk."

He would permit bar sales but keep the state as the liquor wholesaler, put the revenue into the treasury's general fund and also pay old-age pensions out of the general fund.

Other planks in Ackerman's platform set him up in favor of increased old-age pensions, improved state hospitals and institutions, cash bonus to veterans, restoration of higher income tax exemptions.

Political Novice

Ackerman is virtually a political novice, his only dealings in the great game were as Earl Snell's Multnomah county chairman in 1940 and as anti-sales tax committee chairman last year.

In his campaign, Ackerman has not taken any swipes at any of his three foes for the GOP nomination, Doug McKay, John Hall or John Peyton, but declares that he is disappointed that McKay and Hall have failed to go into a discussion of issues with him. He sees McKay's popularity on the decline and considers the republican campaign between himself and Gov. John Hall.

John Fox Dies At 52

John Fox, about 52, custodian of the Medical-Dental building since its opening here in 1929, died suddenly at his home, 171 Alameda, at 9:30 a. m. today.

Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Fox had been in good health and his passing was a shock to his many friends. Mrs. Annie Fox survives her husband. There were no children.

Prior to coming to Klamath Falls, Mr. Fox was employed by Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Berry, of Seattle, owners of the Medical-Dental building here.

Final rites will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from Ward's chapel.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
"What's Your Opinion, Mister?"
Fellow from one of those public opinion polls was in Andy's Garden Tavern, querying Andy's patrons on everything from that "new look" to the next election.
And it occurred to me that there's nothing more typically American than collecting other folks' opinions, as well as giving out with one's own. And from where I sit, it's a mighty healthy habit.
So long as people can discuss both sides of a question that comes up—whether it concerns short skirts versus long, beer compared with cider, or the larger issues of party versus party—we're sure of the individual liberty that has made this country great.
For it isn't differences of opinion that matter. The important thing is tolerance for differences of opinion—whether they affect the right of an individual to vote, to speak his mind, or enjoy a glass of beer. They're all parts of the freedom that we cherish!
