

Eva Burkhalter Is New DAR Regent

Eva Burkhalter of the Klamath Union high school staff, will guide the destinies of Eulonia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for the coming chapter year, as a result of the election held Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Louis Mann, 1437 Pacific Terrace. Elected to serve with Miss Burkhalter, regent-elect, are: Mrs. Harry C. Dickerson, vice regent; Mrs. Lewis C. Hornby, secretary; Mrs. Warren C. Noggle, treasurer; Mrs. William Dawson Foster, registrar; Mrs. Roland E. Wright, historian; Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, chaplain. These officers will be installed June 7.

Mrs. Lewis C. Hornby, program chairman for the evening, presented three talented young people in vocal and instrumental numbers. "Endorr Pageant"—Swedish folk song; "Steal Away," Negro spiritual; "The Prayer Perfect," by Stenson, sung by Brent Hedberg, with Mrs. George W. McIntyre at the piano. Another pupil of Mrs. McIntyre, Sully Seary, sang "Life" by Curran, and "Calm As the Night," by Bohm. Marilee Crawford, pupil of Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, was heard in three piano numbers, "Butterfly" by Grieg, "Spanish Dance" by Mowry, and "Juba Dance" by Dette. All numbers were very much enjoyed.

Our Home Town

Mother's Day

It has been pretty thoroughly commercialized, hasn't it—this holiday which should celebrate one of humanity's noblest attributes. And there is a danger that any of us might easily and thoughtlessly buy Mother a bunch of flowers or a greeting card as a token of the day and let it go at that. But don't you think we owe her more on this, her day?

When you were little and had some particular day that meant a great deal to you, she didn't go buy a little card and make that do for the celebration. She had a party for you—she made it an event—often at the cost of a deal of extra work and trouble when she already had plenty of both. Isn't that true? She put something of her loving self into the event, whatever it was. Well, I think that should be the spirit of her children today. Go to some trouble—make her day the kind that she'll remember and treasure in memory. Make it HER day in truth. Give a party for her—not just with the family, but perhaps with some of her old friends asked to attend. Or, go festive and make it a bang-up dinner for her—away from home—so she won't have to help with the dishes—and a show afterwards. Or buy her something she's been wanting for a long time—something that will entail a bit of self-sacrifice on your part. It's Mother, you know. And it's Mother's Day!

Next week Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on The Alibi Artist.

Mrs. Roberta Blomquist, chapter chairman of Girl Homemakers, reported on the selection of candidates for the DAR awards in this department and these names will be announced in June.

Mrs. Syd Evans, Miss Burkhalter, and Mrs. Roland E. Wright were appointed to arrange for the installation dinner to be held at the Pelican party room, at 8:30 in the evening, Monday, June 7. Mrs. Charles J. Martin will serve as installing past regent.

Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, chapter regent, presided during the business session. Mrs. Caracul, DAR from Portland, and mother of Mrs. Joe Peak, was a guest of the chapter.

Members of Jobs Daughters and the DeMolay will honor their mothers at a Mother's Day breakfast this Sunday. Place will be the banquet room of the Willard hotel, and the time, 9 o'clock.

Wilbur Elliott will sing on the program, and Ronnie Tarr will present a group of piano selections.

Rev. David F. Barnett will give the prayer.

Those planning to attend who have not already been contacted are asked to call Dorothea Cogdill, telephone 7488, for reservations.

Hostesses are Mrs. John Van Dorn and Mrs. John Bunker. Mrs. George Conroy is tea chairman.

In the musical program, young Wayne Angel will play the violin selection which won him first place in the recent state contest. "Legende" by Wieniaski. He will be accompanied by Louise Barnhart.

Book Review

"Sense and Nonsense in Education" will be reviewed by Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill at the Monday meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club May 10 at 2 o'clock.

Election of officers will highlight the meeting. Committee reports will also be heard.

A PRETTY WEDDING of May 2 took place at St. Paul's Episcopal church when Louise Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Henry, became the bride of Jack Robbins. When they return from a wedding trip in the north, the new Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will be at home in Klamath Falls. In the wedding party from left are Betty Lou Cleig, Donna Willis, the bride and groom, small Ginger Leaming and Bruce Wirth.

Couple Trade Vows In Friday Rites

In a ceremony at 7:30 Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Benson, 1135 Pine, Mrs. Mae Salisbury and Tarkel Tweet were married by the Rev. E. E. Hambrick. The bride wore a royal blue gown accented with pearls and her corsage was a single white orchid pinned at the shoulder. Mrs. Louis Benson as matron of honor, was attired in a spring trim, her corsage being of pink rosebuds. Ole Austad, a cousin of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony the reception was also held at the Benson home. A three-tier wedding cake topped by the traditional wedding bell was first cut by the bride and groom and then served to the guests by Mrs. Phil Schroeder, assisted by Esther Trippett and Margaret Adams. The silver tea service and the wedding cake on the lace covered table were surrounded by an arrangement of roses and fern. White tapers in silver candelabras formed the centerpiece. Mrs. Calvin P. Peyton poured, and she was assisted by Waiva Salisbury, who flew here from the University of Minnesota to attend her mother's wedding. Mrs. Charles Fraley had charge of the guest book.

The couple then left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles and points south, and will return in a fortnight by the coastal route. For traveling Mrs. Tweet changed to a black suit with accessories of white and her white orchid corsage.

The bride returned here two weeks ago from Pergus Falls, Minn., and the groom has resided here a number of years. Approximately 40 friends and relatives attended the wedding and reception.

Bridal Party

Invitations are in the mail for a pre-nuptial shower planned for Wednesday, May 12, in honor of Luana Smith. Miss Smith is the bride-elect of Donald Ratliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ratliff Sr. of Malin. The wedding will be an event of June 6. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith of Klamath Falls.

The party will be held at the Ratliff Sr. home. Hostesses are Mrs. J. R. Ratliff Jr., Mrs. Had Noak, Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Jr. and Mrs. Harold Stevenson.

Circus Party

Circus time was the theme of a gay birthday party Saturday, May 1, when Steven Stiles invited a group of young friends to help celebrate his fifth birthday.

Steven is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles of 323 Mesa street.

Guests attended a matinee followed by luncheon at the Stiles home and games. The circus motif was carried out in invitations, favors and decorations.

Invited were Patay Patterson, Sara Dale West, Vicki Howe, Janey Black, Sandra Jo Ray, "Butch" Moody, Roland Bailey, Robert Thompson, Alex Brumbaugh, George Pitteraft, Mark McCulloch, Robbie Mussen, Buddy Kiger, Rex Campbell and Douglas Stiles. Steven's small brother, Mrs. E. O. Foster assisted Mrs. Stiles with the party.

Vows Exchanged In Saturday Nuptials

OLENE — The Rex High home in Poe Valley was the setting of a pretty wedding Saturday, May 1, when their son, Taylor High, took Betty King, daughter of Mr. Charles King, for his bride.

The two exchanged vows at 11 o'clock in the morning. Rooms were decorated with large bouquets of phlox and carnations and many palms.

Rev. H. James Zellar of Williamson River read the ceremony. Just before the nuptials, Harriet Lavenik sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Loveta McTaggart.

The attractive bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white satin with a sweetheart neckline and a trim of satin applique. The skirt ended in a long full court train. Her illusion net veil was trimmed with imported lace. White orchids and freestias with ribbon streamers marked her white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. C. O. Bersting, who wore a gown of light blue. Peggy McIntee in a frock of briar rose, was bridesmaid. Each carried a Colonial bouquet.

Best man was Bruce Hess.

At the reception, the bride and groom cut the first piece of their wedding cake which was later served by three aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Roy Whitlock, Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Mrs. Woodrow Cuddy.

Mrs. Jerry Johnson was at the punch bowl, and Helen Sullivan was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds left immediately for a honeymoon, and for traveling, the new Mrs. High wore a suit of mint green gabardine with a pink blouse and brown accessories.

They will be at home at the Rex High residence on their return. Both young people are well-known in this community, and Mr. High is the only son of a prominent pioneer family and grandson of the late Joe Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson returned the middle of the week from a vacation spent in San Francisco and other California points.

Martha Shops and Shops

Strutwear Gowns

of Jersey or woven rayon . . . just received at THE TOWN SHOP . . . were welcomed this week by Mother's Day gift buyers . . . and they'd be just as nice for the next occasion coming up . . . Graduation!

The flower-sprigged rayons in pink, blue or yellow . . . are styled with ruffled hem, high neckline and cap sleeves. Attached to each is a fragrant sachet, making them exceptionally feminine. The gowns of rayon Jersey prints . . . becoming pastels over white . . . are cut on simple, slim lines with a low neckline . . . comfortably cool for summer.

New Strutwear pajamas of cotton plisse arrive, too . . . in sherbet pink, lemon yellow . . . blue . . . plainly tailored and easy to launder. But more distinctive in styling are the Tom Girl pajamas . . . of fresh sweet pea prints . . . designed with a set-in belt and a tucked fit to the back.

In case you're considering a lingerie gift, Martha recommends that you see the canisole tops and half-slips of rayon Jersey . . . in creamy white or pastel blue . . . moderately priced . . . at THE TOWN SHOP . . . Main at FIFTH. Some of the slips exactly match the lace-trimmed canisoles . . . while others have a wider and richer ruffling of lace around the hemline.

Special note to nylon wearers: The Town Shop has the Dutchess nylon briefs which dry in a matter of minutes after washing. They come in white or pink . . . priced at $1.95.

To keep the babe's clothes un-mussed while traveling, there is a washable quilted vinylite plastic wardrobe bag, large enough for hanging up 10 dresses. Pockets on the outside hold booties and bonnets.

The Bird Cage

Including Milikind's new perfume and lacquer and one of Milikind's famous lipsticks . . . is the cutest idea in the small, inexpensive gift line for Miss Graduate that Martha's seen. You'll find them at the cosmetics counter in L.A. POINTES . . . priced at $2.00, plus tax.

Matching polish and lipstick enclosed in little white wire cages . . . include a variety of colors just right for spring . . . Pink, Strawberry, Clover, Radish, Tomato, Red Currant and Red Beet. The perfume lacquer leaves fingers as fragrant as flower petals for 24 hours . . . and the lipstick is made with real pasteurized cream . . . to keep your lips soft and lovely.

The dainty Milikind gift sets or the many individual preparations . . . exclusive at L.A. POINTES 207 Main . . . are equally desirable for a teen-ager's gift . . . so she can "wash her face with milk for a lovelier complexion."

Gold Flatware

correctly known as Dirlyte (deer-a-lee) . . . has been getting a lot of attention since its recent arrival at RICKY'S . . . and you'll find it not only something new and exceedingly attractive for your table, but a wonderful gift idea for the golden wedding!

The Dirlyte flatware . . . is two aristocratic patterns, "Regal" and "Empress" . . . has the warm color of sunshine that blends so beautifully with many colors, resulting in table arrangements that can be harmonious, appealing, interesting or exotic.

A novel feature are the candle holders in Dirlyte . . . which can be purchased separately . . . as they can be easily converted from tall to short, thus combining effectively with any type of centerpiece.

A 50-piece service for eight costs $99.50 . . . but a starter service of 26 pieces can be purchased for $52.50. A six-piece place setting is priced $11.00 . . . or you can buy it the piece from opposite stock . . . exclusively at RICKY'S JEWELERS . . . 700 Main.

When shopping for unfinished furniture, look for smooth, even-grained surfaces and simple lines that will harmonize with other furniture. See that wood used on the inside is sanded down as carefully as that on the outside, and that all the drawers slide open easily.

Watches, Watches

for boys or girl graduates . . . range in price from a modest $21.50 upward at JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP . . . where the selection includes those excellent Elgins and Walthams . . . and the shockproof, waterproof automatics that wind themselves . . . a deluxe gift to any boy.

Furthermore, Jewel and Gift offers a generous trade-in allowance on an old watch . . . somewhat reducing the original price for a new wristwatch.

Particularly giftable for girls, too are the handsome Elgin American compacts . . . in an assortment of styles . . . which won't leak loose powder. Prices on these start at $3.95.

At this time of year, clubs and lodges are considering appropriate gifts for presentation to retiring officers . . . so Martha is reminding again of the wide array of sterling silver items for this purpose, such as miniature compotes, urns, bonbon dishes, footed compotes, ash trays, coasters and sterling pepper mills . . . all moderately priced.

Graduation cards are now out on display . . . and JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP . . . 519 Main . . . has an unusually attractive gift wrapping service. Ask about the S and H Green Stamps.

Almond Omean

is just about one of the most popular confections at PELICAN CANDY JAR . . . so popular, in fact, that it's constantly having to be re-ordered . . . but there are two other specialties from Harry L. Brown's candy kitchen . . . not so widely advertised, but equally delicious . . . Pecan Caramel Rolls and Pecan Parisienne Creams. All are beautifully packed in flat, pound tins . . . with each piece wrapped in colored foil.

Chocolate-covered Orange Sticks, another favorite that's hard to keep on hand . . . and the colorful Fruit Slices, nice for party occasions, are again available at the PELICAN CANDY JAR . . . 722 Main . . . where there's a complete variety of chocolate-coated nuts . . . either light or dark . . . to please all tastes.

The smoky-toned sheers in hosiery necessitate as good leg grooming as the lighter shades. In fact, their glamorous effect can be spoiled by stubby hair or skin discolorations.

A Tussy Special

is holding forth at CURRIN'S again . . . the once-a-year, half-price special on Cream Deodorant . . . a pre-warm-weather event that so many take advantage of, stocking up for months ahead.

Deodorant is usually thought of as a necessity for fastidious women . . . but men, too, like this Tussy product for its light, spicy fragrance . . . as past sales prove. One customer this week purchased a dozen jars at once . . . for family use . . . which certainly speaks for itself!

Those bothered with perspiring feet, find Tussy's Cream Deodorant a decided benefit during the summer season. And when you can get the usual $1.00 jar for 50 cents, plus tax . . . for a limited time . . . at CURRIN'S . . . the friendly drug store at Ninth and Main . . . you don't have to feel the least bit sparing.

Double Ruffles

of dotted Swiss organdie enhance the new cotton petticoats at LONG'S . . . and since a petticoat is practically a must these days, a sweet girl graduate would be especially thrilled at getting one of these . . . to lend a bouffant fullness to her summer frocks!

Adding another pleasing touch is the eyelet threaded ribbon in red . . . to match the Swiss dots on the permanent-finished ruffles . . . and the price on these is very special . . . only $3.95.

LONG'S APPAREL . . . 719 Main . . . also has a beautiful selection of crepe petticoats, encircled by fine lace . . . and ruffled black taffetas to whisper under full skirts . . . any of which are in the giftable class for graduation.

Beach Wear

and playtime togs will make a colorful debut Monday in the second floor sports shop of MILLER'S . . . with Gantner and Mattern swim suits being featured in the first group . . . and tubbale denims in the latter.

Both one and two-piece suits in assorted shades of wool and rayons will be available . . . and since many shoppers are already showing interest in this item of vacation apparel, it might be well to choose early, while selections are complete. The popular Jantzen will be on deck soon, Martha learned.

The denim selection includes pedal-pushers in red, blue or navy . . . with mid-riff tops to match . . . in sizes from 10 up.

Full cotton skirts . . . in white or colors, stripes or checks . . . and a variety of shorts and slacks will also make their appearance in next week's vacation display in the sports shop of MILLER'S . . . 512 Main.

Camisoles and boned corsets

have been revived to keep company with the ruffled cotton petticoats, and petticoats are now even being worn in layers. For instance, a non-transparent cotton is worn under a sheer organdie, and both are ruffled to give more bounce to the overskirt.

An immaculate white hat

shouldn't be avoided by the older woman on grounds that it points up her age, for such a hat is a dependable accessory to being out the full pinkness of her skin and brightens the color of her eyes. Pastel hats, though often flattering, are more likely to emphasize fading skin tones.
