Klamath Girls Are Active At SOC

Two Klamath girls are active in the plans now being completed for the second annual Mother's Week-end at Southern Oregon college on May 8 and 9.

Klamath girls chosen to head committees are Dorothy Howry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howry of 101 East Main, who has charge of ushering, and Caryl Vanderwall, daughter of Mrs. Fae V. Wilson, 707 Washington, who will handle publicity. Both girls graduated from Klamath Union high school in 1946 and are now sophomores in teacher education at SOC.

Miss Vanderwall, member of Sigma Epsilon Pi, scholastic honorary, has been very active in college activities during her two years at SOC. She holds the position of exchange editor on the Siskiyou college paper, this year, and is an active member of college annual staff. She is also a member of FTA, Redetta Chi, and was general chairman of the Associated Women Students' carnival which was held in January to raise funds for world student relief.

Miss Vanderwall was one of the SOC students selected to represent the school in the National Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Under the supervision of the paper's co-editors, Allen Reed and Bob Stumbo, and Miss Vanderwall, a special edition of the paper containing complete programs of the day's activities, and stories and pictures pertaining to the day's activities, will be issued.

Miss Howry, president of Redetta Chi, has the job of providing ushers for the week-end's activities. Miss Howry also will sing two solos during the musical portion of the morning honor assembly, which will be held in Churchill hall on May 8. Dorothy was very active in music while attending KTHS and has carried this work over into her college course.

Besides her position as president of Redetta Chi, Miss Howry was program chairman for Future Teachers of America and vice president of Susanne Holmes hall, newly constructed girls' dorm.
