

MARKETS and FINANCIAL STRIKE THREAT UPS WHEAT

CHICAGO, May 10 (AP)—Strike news took command of the grain market today and caused enough nervous short covering to give cereals a firm tone. May contracts showed most strength, particularly May corn. Trading was not active.

Wheat closed 1/4-1/2 higher, May $2.43 1/2-2.44, corn was 1/2-2/4 higher, May $2.21 1/2-2.22, oats were 1/4 higher, May $1.14-1.14 1/2, and soybeans were unchanged to a cent lower, May $3.85.

Wheat receipts in the Southwest were heavy today as producers rushed to beat the rail strike deadline.

Broomhall, international grain authority, said "reports on crop conditions in the Soviet Union have been exceptionally favorable up to the present time."

	Open	High	Low	Close
Wheat—	2.42 1/2-2.43	2.44 1/2	2.42 1/2	2.43 1/2-2.44

Stocks Stay Steady Today

NEW YORK, May 10 (AP)—The stock market maintained its equilibrium fairly well today despite the darkening labor horizon.

While many leaders eased a trifle when the president authorized the army to take over the railroads following stalemated strike negotiations, assorted favorites moved upward. Mild irregularity prevailed near the close.

Dealings were active at intervals with low-quoted issues inclined to monopolize the ticker tape. Transfers for the full proceedings ran to around 1,400,000 shares.

Commonwealth & Southern came out on an 80,000-share block, unchanged at 3, but subsequently advanced a trifle to a 1948 peak.

Touching highs for the year were Western Union, Secony and Sinclair Oil.

Occasional stumblers included Chesapeake & Ohio, Standard Oil (N.J.), Caterpillar Tractor, Boeing, Schenley and American Tobacco.

In the resistant area were Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Studebaker, Good-year, Northern Pacific, International Harvester, Johns Manville and Phelps Dodge.

Bonds were uneven. Grain and cotton futures hardened.

Jack Travis Pays Visit To Klamath

Jack Travis, Hood River newspaperman, was here Sunday on a visit in connection with his candidacy as a delegate to the republican national convention and to help make advance plans for the Harold Stassen visit May 18.

Travis is strictly a Stassen man and so declares himself on the May 21 primary ballot.

He talked here with Phil Hitchcock, state senate candidate and a member of the Stassen supporters' group. Details of the Stassen visit are being worked out with the Young Republicans club, which had charge of the arrangements for the Dewey visit.

Police Kept Busy Over Week-End

Sixty days in jail plus a $25 fine was the sentence passed Monday morning on Alvan C. Spiby, 22, of 616 Commercial, after he pleaded guilty in municipal court to charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct.

Spiby was painfully cut across the top of his head Saturday night when he fell through a plate glass window at Pritchard's Mill Supply company, 132 S. 7th, and a city police officer had to have the assistance of two state patrolmen in subduing the man.

Got Rough

The city officer attempted to arrest Spiby at the Kanteen on S. 7th, where he had been creating a disturbance. Spiby resisted, the officer said, and in the melee fell into the window. He came out fighting and two state police officers who happened by joined in the scuffle to handcuff the man.

Seven stitches were needed to close the gash in Spiby's scalp.

City police arrests over the week-end included 15 persons for intoxication, four for traffic arrests, four for violating the city dog ordinance, three for disorderly conduct and two for vagrancy.

$100 Fine

Orval Vernon Clark, 21, 2336 Oregon, paid a $100 fine on a charge of drunk driving, and a 30-day jail term was suspended. Clark was arrested early Sunday morning at 6th and Elm.

Harry C. Steward, 62, Baldwin hotel, posted $25 bail for making a turn on Main street after he was involved in a minor auto mishap near Center street Saturday afternoon. Gene Ericks, 24, 3242 Maryland, and Archie E. Rutter, 18, Roseburg, each posted $25 bail on speeding counts.

Booked for dog ordinance violations were Dan Merino, 139 W. Oregon, $5 bail; H. B. Harsha, 802 California, $5 bail; B. L. Hansen, 1500 Division, $10 two dogs, and Frances Guilmon, 2257 Darrow, $5 bail.

Stay-Down Strike In Second Week

SHREFF, ENR., May 10 (AP)—A stay-down strike by 92 miners at Waleswood colliery went into its second week today.

The men quit work and refused to come to the surface last Monday in protest against a decision by the national coal board to close the mine. The board contends the works cannot be operated profitably.

The strikers have built an altar in their chamber 1150 feet underground. They held services yesterday.

The Rev. Harry Whitaker, a Baptist who is a former coal miner, preached on the text "Wait on the Lord, be of good courage."

Wives of the miners cook and send down four meals a day.
