

Stassen, Dewey Head For Last Lap Of Campaign--- Both Blast At Communism

PORTLAND, May 13 (AP)—Republican Leaders Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed today into the home stretch of their clear-cut race for this Far West state's presidential preference vote.

Both candidates thumped on the topic of communism last night. Stassen initiated his final drive in an address here in Western Oregon. At the same time his New York opponent appeared before a crowd at Pendleton, in the Eastern Oregon wheat region. Each has a full schedule of appearances through the state before the ballots are cast May 21.

The election is the last direct primary before the party's national nomination convention in June. Both candidates—alone in the race—have to a great measure their presidential chances at stake in winning in Oregon.

OVS Classes Return From Portland Trip

OVS, May 13—Two Oregon Vocational school classes have recently returned from conferences held in Portland.

Instructor J. Martin and five students of the medical technology class attended the annual meeting of the Oregon Medical Laboratory Workers' association at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland.

Thursday and Friday were spent listening to lectures by doctors, professors and research workers. A banquet, at which Raymond Erickson, associate professor of physics at Reed college in Portland, was the main speaker, climaxed the meeting.

Nine dry cleaning students and instructor Harold Blankenship attended a three-day convention last week of the Northwest Dry Cleaners association.

Quarter Horse Show Slated

Several basin horse-enthusiasts are planning to travel to Salem for the second annual Northwest Quarter Horse association's sale and show Friday and Saturday.

Quarter horse races are scheduled for Friday and Saturday afternoons, with horses from all over the Northwest competing. The sale will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday, with H. B. Sager of Roseburg, Mont., as auctioneer.

The halter class show is slated for Friday and Saturday evenings. Mares will be judged Friday and stallions Saturday night. Besides the judging and showing, various other events will be held, including a reining contest, cow cutting contest and a $1000 matched roping contest.

Association officials say that a large number of entries have been received. Clay Nichols of Lebanon, Ore., is general show chairman.

High School News and Comment

The job of keeping next year's freshmen in hand, and enforcing the traditions of KU has been placed into the hands of 10 juniors, who will comprise the Tradition's committee. Elected Friday by their fellow juniors, these 10 are Barbara Dutton, Donna Hansen, Helen Jackson, Joan Moore, Marjorie Robinson, Doug Barker, Boyd Carstenson, Wilber Elliot, Gary Smith and Ed Whitney. Automatically a member of this committee will be the student body president, Jim Owens.

Omitted from the list of new rally squad members printed Wednesday was Barbara Dutton. She and the other seven girls were led up on the stage by the graduating members of the squad and introduced one by one at the Pep assembly, Wednesday.

Belle Doris Russell is program chairman for the Girls' Athletic association playday, to be held this Saturday at the high school. Invitations were sent out by the club to several other schools and others attending will be Ashland, Phoenix, Central Point, Eagle Point, Rogue River, Grants Pass and Sacred Heart academy GAAs.

The day will be varied with games of softball, track events, square dances, bicycle races and swimming. Supervising the events will be Mrs. Wayne Scott, GAA adviser; Lillian Redkey, Mrs. Marie Bond and Mrs. Edith Yancey.

What to wear to graduation and pre-graduation functions was discussed at a senior class meeting today. Short talks were given by Principal Stanley Woodruff and senior adviser, Mrs. Bernadine Noggle. Also speaking on the program was Mrs. O. K. Puckett, representing the University Women's organization.

Shouts of "sign my book" or "trade a card" are to be heard all over the lower floor of the KU during these days, as seniors are busy having classmates sign their memory books and trading name cards. The memory books are white booklets with gold trimmings on the cover, and filled with spaces for pictures, autographs and cards. Master Engravers, the company which handles the graduation announcements, sent each senior a memory book, free of charge.

Stassen remains in Portland for another rally tonight, then heads up state. The Dewey caravan moves toward Portland. The New Yorker will inspect the McNary dam site on the Columbia river today and be at Hood River tonight.

Exhibited Temple The Golden Pavilion of Jehol, finest Lama temple in China, and for a long time summer home of the Manchu emperors, was shipped to Chicago and reconstructed for the World's Fair in 1934.

Champs Picked At Big Stock Show

SPOKANE, May 13 (AP)—Selection of the grand champions began today at the 13th annual Spokane Junior Livestock show.

The show's top Herefords were judged late yesterday and were added to the other champion steers eligible for grand champion awards today.

Duane Beale of Pomeroy showed the champion 4-H club steer. Oliver Kienholz, Pulliam, topped the Future Farmer of America Hereford division. Reserve champion Herefords were shown by Gene Meacham, Lapwai, Idaho, FFA, and Raymond Enneking, Keuterville, Idaho, 4-H club.

Young exhibitors from Washington, Oregon and Idaho and Montana are competing in the show.

Births In Oregon Make New Record

PORTLAND, May 13 (AP)—Live births in Oregon during 1947 set a new record, the state board of health reported today.

The total of 35,029 births, a rate of 28.5 per thousand population, was a new high for the state. A preliminary study indicates state's mortality rate for the year may be the lowest in the nation.

Rope-making was one of America's earliest industries. A man in Boston produced it commercially as early as 1630.

Calumet Colt Looks Sharp

BALTIMORE, May 13 (AP)—As if the other four horses didn't have enough to worry about with Citation and Saturday's Preakness stakes, word comes up from a man who should know that the Calumet colt is looking sharper today than when he won the Kentucky Derby.

While old Baltimore slowly got itself into the proper frame of mind to entertain the annual Preakness thousands, Calumet's trainer, Jimmy Jones, said his three-year-old Star was ready for all comers.

"He's training perfectly and worked out as sharp as a tack yesterday," Jones said.

King Ranch's Better Self, third in the Wood Memorial, is on deck as is Bovard, Sylvester W. Labrot's Maryland Hopeful, Salmagundi, William Hellis' Santa Anita derby winner, is due on the grounds at any moment.

The last of the quartet is Vulcan's Forge from the stable of Cornelius V. Whitney.

License Plates Black On Silver

SALEM, May 13 (AP)—Oregon's 1949 motor vehicle license plates will have black numerals on aluminum background, Secretary of State Earl T. Newbery announced today.

The plates now are being manufactured by a Portland firm. Newbery estimated 550,000 pairs of plates will be needed. This year the half million mark was passed for the first time.
